(2) If a child committed to the cabinet as dependent, neglected, or abused is placed in the home of the child's[~~his~~] parents, the child shall not be removed except in accordance with the following standards and procedures:

(a) If the family service worker believes that the committed child continues to be dependent, neglected, or abused, but immediate removal is unnecessary to protect the child from imminent death or serious physical injury, the casework situation and evidence shall be reviewed with his supervisor to determine whether to continue work with the family intact or to remove the child. There shall be documentation that the family service worker, prior to the court hearing, made an effort to contact the parents to inform them of the specific problems that could lead to removal so they have an opportunity to take corrective action. If the parents are unavailable or do not respond to attempts to communicate, the specific circumstances shall be documented;

(b) If it appears that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm and there is not reasonably available an alternative less drastic than removal of the child from the home, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the commitment pursuant to KRS 610.120 in relation to the cabinet's intention to remove the child from the parent's home. If the parents' whereabouts are unknown, notice may be mailed to the last known address of an adult who is a near relative. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall not be removed from the parents' home;

(c) If a family service worker finds a committed, unattended child who is too young to take care of himself, the family service worker shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for an emergency caretaker in the child's home until the parents return or fail to return within a reasonable time. If no in-home caretaker is available for the child, the family service worker shall request any appropriate law enforcement officer to take the child into protective custody. If, after a reasonable time, it appears the child has been abandoned, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the case; or

(d) If there exist reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child, the family service worker shall, with the assistance of a law enforcement officer, immediately remove the child prior to filing a petition for review. Within seventy-two (72) hours after the removal, the cabinet shall file a petition for review in District Court pursuant to KRS 610.120 with a request for an expeditious hearing. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall be returned to the parents' home.

(3) The cabinet or the Department of Juvenile Justice, as appropriate, shall notify the juvenile court of the county of placement with the conditions of supervised placement of each child placed in that county from one (1) of the residential treatment facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet. Notice of the conditions of such placement may be made available by the court to any law enforcement agency.

The Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall have the power to make such visitations and inspections of the homes, facilities, and agencies in which children who have committed public offenses have been placed as it deems necessary to carry out its functions under the law.

(5) The Department of Juvenile Justice may assist the courts in placing children who have committed public offenses in boarding homes, and, under agreements with the individual courts, may assume responsibility for making such placements. Counties may pay or contribute towards the expenses of maintaining such children and, to the extent authorized by the fiscal court, the Department of Juvenile Justice may incur obligations chargeable to the county for such expenses.

Section 4. KRS 620.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The court for the county where the child is present may issue an ex parte emergency custody order when it appears to the court that removal is in the best interest of the child and that there are reasonable grounds to believe, as supported by affidavit or by recorded sworn testimony, that one (1) or more of the following conditions exist[~~the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused~~] and that the parents or other person exercising custodial control or supervision are unable or unwilling to protect the child;

2. The child or is found to be an abused or neglected child, as defined in KRS 600.020(1), by the Circuit Court in this proceeding; or

(b) That the parent has inflicted or allowed to be inflicted upon the child, by other than accidental means, serious physical injury;

(c) That the parent has continuously or repeatedly inflicted or allowed to be inflicted upon the child, by other than accidental means, physical injury or emotional harm;

reasonable efforts as defined in KRS 620.020 to reunite the child with the parents, or a child-placing agency or child-caring facility, whether the cabinet has rendered or attempted to render all reasonable services to the parent which reasonably might be expected to bring about a reunion of the family, including the parent's testimony concerning the services and whether additional services would be likely to bring about lasting parental adjustment enabling a return of the child to the parent within a reasonable period of time, considering the age of the child;

(d) The efforts and adjustments the parent has made in his circumstances, conduct, or conditions to make it in the child's best interest to return him to his home within a reasonable period of time, considering the age of the child;

(f) The payment or the failure to pay a reasonable portion of substitute physical care and maintenance if financially able to do so.

(4) If the child has been placed with the cabinet, the parent may present testimony concerning the reunification services offered by the cabinet and whether additional services would be likely to bring about lasting parental adjustment enabling a return of the child to the parent.

(5)[~~(3)~~] If the parent proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the child will not continue to be an abused or neglected child as defined in KRS 600.020(1) if returned to the parent, and proves the following to the satisfaction of the court, the court in its discretion may determine not to terminate parental rights:

(a) That serious physical injury to the child will not occur in the future;

(b) That continuous or repeated physical injury or emotional harm to the child will not occur in the future; or

(c) That sexual abuse or exploitation will not occur in the future.

(6)[~~(4)~~] Upon the conclusion of proof and argument of counsel, the Circuit Court shall enter findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a decision as to each parent-respondent within thirty (30) days either:

(a) Terminating the right of the parent; or

(b) Dismissing the petition and stating whether the child shall be returned to the parent or shall remain in the custody of the state.

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS 45.750 TO 45.810 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) There is created within the capital construction fund the "Statewide Deferred Maintenance Fund". The fund shall be used as a supplemental source for funding deferred maintenance and government mandate needs of state agencies. Maintenance includes equipment used primarily for maintenance purposes and expenditures related to deferred maintenance of infrastructure and capital assets. The balance of any moneys remaining in the fund at the close of any fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year.

(2) Priority for the funding from the statewide deferred maintenance fund shall be determined by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet in consultation with the state budget director and the commissioner of the Department for Facilities Management. State agencies that do not have separate agency-specific maintenance funds or that have inadequate maintenance funds shall be given priority for access to moneys in the statewide deferred maintenance fund.

(3) Moneys from the statewide deferred maintenance fund shall not be expended for:

(a) New capital projects; or

(b) Additional funding for any capital project that received line item authorization by the General Assembly in any branch budget bill.

(2) The Finance and Administration Cabinet may transfer money from the emergency repair, maintenance, and replacement account to the allotment account of an emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance project, for expenditure thereon, even though the specific project is not included in any branch budget bill, statutory budget memorandum, and biennial budget report enacted for that biennium. Moneys may be transferred from the emergency repair, maintenance, and replacement account to the allotment account of an emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance project only if no other funding source is available.

(3) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall report each transfer, including the necessity, purpose, and amount of the transfer, to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee not later than thirty (30) days after the transfer.

HB 135, AN ACT relating to court facilities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 26A.090 is amended to read as follows:

As used in KRS 26A.090 to 26A.115, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Operating costs allowance" means compensation equivalent to the annual expenses borne by the unit of government for utilities, janitorial service, rent, insurance, and necessary maintenance, repair, and upkeep of the court facility which do not increase the permanent value or expected life of the court facility, but keeps it in efficient operating condition, and, at the election of the Administrative Office of the Courts, capital costs of interior or mechanical renovations for the benefit of the court.

(2) "Use allowance" means compensation equal to four percent (4%) annually of the total original capital costs and the cost of capitalized renovation of the court facility, except that if indebtedness has been incurred in respect to such capital costs at an~~[a constant annual]~~ interest rate equal to or greater than seven percent (7%), compensation shall be at a rate of eight percent (8%) annually of that portion of the capital costs for which the rate applies. For refinanced projects constructed or renovated prior to July 1, 1994, the use allowance payment shall not change for the term of the original bond issue, unless there is a change in the space occupied. For~~[Except that in the case of]~~ court facilities renovated or constructed after July 1, 1994, "use allowance" means the court's proportional share of the annual principal and interest cost in connection with the renovation or construction, but not to exceed eight percent (8%) annually of capital costs, or, if there is no debt, four percent (4%) annually of capital costs.

(3) "Capital costs" means the costs borne by the unit of government, excluding grants, conditioned by the grantor agency specifically for court facility construction or renovation, for acquisition of property and for construction and capitalized renovation including interest accruing during construction or renovation, but no other interest of each court facility. If capital costs are not documented, reasonable estimates provided by qualified appraisers will suffice.

(4) "Capitalized renovation" means all remodeling involving the structural or mechanical systems, except for remodeling that involves substantial demolition of the original structure. Remodeling involving substantial demolition of the original structure shall constitute construction resulting in a new court facility.

(5) "Unit of government" means a county, city, urban-county government, special district, or corporate entity created for the purpose of constructing or holding title to a court facility.

(6) "Court facility" means the land and buildings owned or operated by a unit of government in which space for the court of justice is provided. Judges' benches, jury and witness boxes, and fixed seating shall be considered as permanent building fixtures.

(7) "Court facilities standards committee" means a committee consisting of the Chief Justice or his designee; one (1) judge each of the Court of Appeals, the Circuit Court, and the District Court appointed by the Supreme Court; the president of the Circuit Clerks' Association; the chairman of the Judiciary-Civil Committees of the General Assembly; the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet; and a county judge/executive appointed by the Governor. (a) Upon fourteen (14) days' prior written notice to the court, discharged from commitment. Written notice of discharge shall be given to the committing court and to any other parties as may be required by law;

(b) Placed in the home of the child's~~[his]~~ parents, in the home of a relative, a suitable foster home, or boarding home, upon such conditions as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may prescribe and subject to visitation and supervision by a family service worker or juvenile probation and parole officer. At the time a committed child is placed in the home of his parents by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, the parents shall be informed in writing of the conditions of the placement and the criteria that will be used to determine whether removal is necessary;

(c) Placed in one (1) of the facilities or programs operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, except that no child committed under the provisions of KRS 610.010(1)(b), (c), or (d) or any child ten (10) years of age or under shall be placed in a facility operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children adjudicated as public offenders;

(d) Placed in a child-caring facility operated by a local governmental unit or by a private organization willing to receive the child, upon such conditions as the cabinet may prescribe;

(2) If a child committed to the cabinet as dependent, neglected, or abused is placed in the home of the child's~~[his]~~ parents, the child shall not be removed except in accordance with the following standards and procedures:

(a) If the family service worker believes that the committed child continues to be dependent, neglected, or abused, but immediate removal is unnecessary to protect the child from imminent death or serious physical injury, the casework situation and evidence shall be reviewed with his supervisor to determine whether to continue work with the family intact or to remove the child. There shall be documentation that the family service worker, prior to the court hearing, made an effort to contact the parents to inform them of the specific problems that could lead to removal so they have an opportunity to take corrective action. If the parents are unavailable or do not respond to attempts to communicate, the specific circumstances shall be documented;

(b) If it appears that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm and there is not reasonably available an alternative less drastic than removal of the child from the home, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the commitment pursuant to KRS 610.120 in relation to the cabinet's intention to remove the child from the parent's home. The petition shall set forth the facts which constitute the need for removal of the child. The court shall serve notice of the petition and the time and place of the hearing on the parents; however, the family service worker shall also contact the parents to ensure that they received the notice and are aware of the right to be represented by counsel. If the parents' whereabouts are unknown, notice may be mailed to the last known address of an adult who is a near relative. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall not be removed from the parents' home;

(c) If a family service worker finds a committed, unattended child who is too young to take care of himself, the family service worker shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for an emergency caretaker in the child's home until the parents return or fail to return within a reasonable time. If no in-home caretaker is available for the child, the family service worker shall request any appropriate law enforcement officer to take the child into protective custody. If, after a reasonable time, it appears the child has been abandoned, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the case; or

(d) If there exist reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child, the family service worker shall, with the assistance of a law enforcement officer, immediately remove the child prior to filing a petition for review. Within seventy-two (72) hours after the removal, the cabinet shall file a petition for review in District Court pursuant to KRS 610.120 with a request for an expeditious hearing. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall be returned to the parents' home.

(3) The cabinet or the Department of Juvenile Justice, as appropriate, shall notify the juvenile court of the county of placement with the conditions of supervised placement of each child placed in that county from one (1) of the residential treatment facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet. Notice of the conditions of such placement may be made available by the court to any law enforcement agency.

(4) The person in charge of any home to which a child is probated, and the governing authority of any private facility or agency to which a child is committed, shall make such reports to the court as the court may require, and such reports as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may require in the performance of its functions under the law. The Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall have the power to make such visitations and inspections of the homes, facilities, and agencies in which children who have committed public offenses have been placed as it deems necessary to carry out its functions under the law.

(5) The Department of Juvenile Justice may assist the courts in placing children who have committed public offenses in boarding homes, and, under agreements with the individual courts, may assume responsibility for making such placements. Counties may pay or contribute towards the expenses of maintaining such children and, to the extent authorized by the fiscal court, the Department of Juvenile Justice may incur obligations chargeable to the county for such expenses.

Section 4. KRS 620.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The court for the county where the child is present may issue an ex parte emergency custody order when it appears to the court that removal is in the best interest of the child and that there are reasonable grounds to believe, as supported by affidavit or by recorded sworn testimony, that one (1) or more of the following conditions exist[~~the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused~~] and that the parents or other person exercising custodial control or supervision are unable or unwilling to protect the child;

(a) The child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused;

(b) The parent has repeatedly inflicted or allowed to be inflicted by other than accidental means physical injury or emotional harm; or

(2) Custody may be placed with a relative taking into account the wishes of the custodial parent and child or any other appropriate person or agency including the cabinet.

(3)[~~(2)~~] An emergency custody order shall be effective no longer than seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, unless there is a temporary removal hearing with oral or other notice to the county attorney and the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision of the child, to determine if the child should be held for a longer period. The seventy-two (72) hour period also may be extended or delayed upon the waiver or request of the child's parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision.

(4)[~~(3)~~] Any person authorized to serve process shall serve the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision with a copy of the emergency custody order. If such person cannot be found, the sheriff shall make a good faith effort to notify the nearest known relative, neighbor, or other person familiar with the child.

(5)[~~(4)~~] Within seventy-two (72) hours of the taking of a child into custody without the consent of his parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision, a petition shall be filed pursuant to this chapter.

(6)[~~(5)~~] Nothing herein shall preclude the issuance of arrest warrants pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Section 5. KRS 620.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, when the court is petitioned to remove or continue the removal of a child from the custody of his parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision, the court shall first consider whether the child may be reasonably protected against the alleged dependency, neglect or abuse, by alternatives less restrictive than removal. Such alternatives may include, but shall not be limited to, the provision of medical, educational, psychiatric, psychological, social work, counseling, day care, or homemaking services with monitoring wherever necessary by the cabinet or other appropriate agency. Where the court specifically finds that such alternatives are adequate to reasonably protect the child against the alleged dependency, neglect or abuse, the court shall not order the removal or continued removal of the child.

(2) If the court orders the removal or continues the removal of the child, services provided to the parent and the child shall be designed to promote the protection of the child and the return of the child safely to the child's[~~his~~] home as soon as possible. The cabinet shall develop a treatment plan for each child designed to meet the needs of the child. The cabinet may change the child's placement or treatment plan as the cabinet may require. The cabinet shall notify the committing court of the change, in writing, within fourteen (14) days after the change has been implemented.

(1) Any party aggrieved by a proceeding under KRS 610.010(1)(e) may appeal from the juvenile court to the Circuit Court as a matter of right in the manner provided in the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure. The Circuit Court may order that the child may be removed to a suitable place, pending the appeal, if it appears by affidavit or sworn testimony that the child would be in imminent danger if left with or returned to his parents, guardian, or other person party to the appeal.

(2) The cabinet may appeal from the juvenile court to the Circuit Court as a matter of right any case in which the cabinet is the petitioner.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 620 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Budget Address

Governor Paul E. Patton

Tuesday, January 20, 1998 - 7:00 p.m.

Speaker Richards, President Saunders and members of the General Assembly, Justice Stephens and members of the Judiciary, Governor Henry and other members of the Executive, my fellow Kentuckians.

During these next several weeks, we'll debate as many as a thousand subjects, and pass hundreds of bills which will change the public policy of Kentucky. As important as many of these bills will be, none can compare in importance to the budget and the revenue base which supports it. I appreciate the opportunity to discuss our proposed budget with you, and the people of Kentucky.

This proposal outlines how I believe we should spend, over the next two years, 31 and a half billion dollars, almost as much as the annual budget of the United States just 57 years ago, more than the entire social security budget in 1970, and equal to this year's entire federal education budget.

We're the biggest business in the state, one of the largest enterprises in the nation. Bigger than Humana, Vencor and Lexmark combined. Anyway you look at it, we spend a lot of money.

Developing this budget proposal was an awesome responsibility. The task of improving it, and making it the official public policy of the commonwealth now rests with you.

Where we spend our money is, for the most part, a matter of judgement. That final judgement lays with the people, and they've sent you here to exercise that responsibility on their behalf. I fully understand that. But you have to have some place to start, and that's what I present to you tonight, a starting point.

I know it's not perfect, but I know it'll be better after it's gone through that magnificent creation of our founding fathers, the legislative process.

Before I get down to the specifics, let's talk about what a budget is. In one sense of the word it's an authorization for the various branches of government to spend our revenue on specific things or services. But more than that, it's a promise by the government to deliver needed services to the people.

One of the most respected traits of human behavior is the commitment to keeping a promise. If an individual breaks a promise to us it's hard to have faith in what that person says after that.

The same is true of government. When our government promises, through its budget, to deliver a service that we need and want and then doesn't deliver, it breaks a promise too, and we feel betrayed. It doesn't matter that the cause was a lower revenue estimate than expected, it's still a promise broken.

It's better to be conservative and not make the promise until you're reasonably sure the money's going to be there, than it is to betray the people and cause them to lose faith in their government. It's my intention to keep every promise made in this proposal!!!!

Most of you've heard me say many times that the overall goal I'd like to achieve, during whatever time I have to occupy this office, is to put Kentucky on the path to attaining a standard of living and a quality of life comparable to the country as a whole. I know we can't achieve that in one term or even two, but I do believe that if we have the vision to see into the next generation, the freedom of mind to imagine Kentucky, not as it is but as it could be, and the courage to do what it takes to get us there, then we could build that kind of Kentucky and it could be here within the lifetime of most of us in this chamber!!!

Shortly after taking office, we spent a considerable amount of time working with our cabinet to develop a specific plan to achieve our overall goal. The result of that effort, was the development of five specific strategies, all designed to move the commonwealth forward. We put those five strategies in this book and we all keep it close to us, so we can be sure that our actions are actually helping us achieve our goal. These five strategies are:

Enhance Economic Development. Improve the product of our educational system. Build self-sustaining families. Reduce crime and improve the financial condition of the state.

I can report to you tonight that this proposal supports all of these strategies.

The success of the first four of these objectives depends on achieving the fifth. One of our highest priorities has been to establish sound fiscal policies that would eliminate the constant cycle of optimistic budgets and recurring revenue shortfalls. In the fourteen years since 1980 we've had 10 revenue shortfalls. That's no way to run a railroad.

To address this problem we've developed four fundamental principles of fiscal management. These are:

(1) conservative, independent revenue forecasts (2) a structurally balanced budget (3) an adequate budget reserve trust fund and a fiscally responsible and (4) logical capital investment program.

Dr. Ramsey, Merl Hackbart, and I are preparing a white paper on the details of this strategy for those who are interested in details.

Our policy of fiscal responsibility is one of the fundamental elements of our program to build a better Kentucky. Two years ago I submitted to you a continuation budget, so we could put the state on a sound financial footing. We're now prepared to reap the benefits of that conservative fiscal policy. We can now start to move Kentucky forward.

This is a good budget. It emphasizes our children. It will make our communities safer. It invests in the future. It begins to make substantial progress on our shared vision of a better Kentucky.

And now let me get down to the specifics.

Over the past two weeks, I've already talked about 8 areas in this budget which'll improve the lives of millions of Kentuckians. Let me review some of them.

This proposal continues our commitment to elementary and secondary education with a four percent increase, which will more than cover the cost of inflation. That's more than enough money to give teachers a cost of living adjustment!!! And I call upon this body to guarantee it, because they deserve it !!!

This budget significantly increases funding for the distinguished educator program, provides 92 million dollars for new schools, and nearly 25 million more dollars for pupil transportation over the biennium. It increases our spending on pre-schools, family resource centers and professional development for teachers. It puts more money in school technology, and increases funding for the minority teacher recruitment program by 169%!!!!

In addition to the 4% increase, we're adding 15 million extra dollars to begin a safe schools program, a program we can't start quickly enough to suit me !!

Speaking of safety brings me to another subject, pay raises for firefighters and police officers, in both state and local government. One of the foundations of our efforts to maintain a safe and orderly society is to have honest, competent, well-trained police officers and firefighters. This budget provides an extraordinary pay raise for almost every qualified law enforcement officer and firefighter in Kentucky !!!

This, of course, brings up another subject, state employee raises. In 1982 you passed a law which said that all state employees will get a minimum 5% raise, and not one administration since then, has fully funded that mandate. Our first budget did and this proposal does, too! We're not going to increase government services on the backs of state workers!!!

We've dedicated our administration to the children of Kentucky and we've asked you to dedicate this session to them.

In addition to funding elementary and secondary education and school safety, we've dedicated 13 million dollars to financing our share of the new state -federal partnership to provide children's health insurance!!!

We increased the general fund contribution to the budget of the Cabinet for Families and Children by 13.7% over the biennium.

We've funded our new child protective initiative and we've increased funding for the department of juvenile justice, by 48% over the biennium!!!

That's because one of the issues I've found which seriously concerns the people of Kentucky is the dramatic rise in juvenile crime. We're meeting that threat with a dramatic increase in spending on programs to address the problem of juveniles who break our laws.

Over 4 years, new funding for juvenile treatment programs will go up $40 million, an increase of 144 percent from where it was just two years ago!!! We're going to treat our kids right but we're going to insist that they learn to live by the rules of our society!!!

We've increased funding to make our criminal justice program work better; we put in more money to help prevent domestic violence and child sexual abuse and we've funded a new office of early childhood development within my office to focus on ways to better serve our very young children.

We're going to accelerate the investment of the coal severance tax money and increase reimbursements to counties for housing juveniles and state prisoners.

We're going to increase the promotion of tourism, invest in our parks, and we've increased the Agriculture Department's budget by 40 percent. We're going to make sure that the Kentucky farmers get help marketing their products!!!

And we're going to fulfill our commitment to postsecondary education. Not only are we living up to our promise to put 100 million new dollars into our colleges and universities, we're going to do more, 18 million dollars more in fact. That extra money will be going directly to our students and their families through increased student financial aid. Our proposal fully funds our existing needs based scholarship programs for the first time in the history of the Commonwealth!!!

In the second year of the biennium, we've allocated an additional 10 million dollars for more scholarships. I strongly suggest that this money be used to begin a new financial aid program based on academic performance, sometimes called a merit based scholarship program. I'm confident that the program I've been discussing with members of the General Assembly, will greatly increase participation in postsecondary education in Kentucky and will help us keep our best and brightest students here in the Commonwealth. I'm convinced it's something we can't afford not to do. I predict to you that before this biennium is over, most of the southern states will have a substantial merit based student financial aid program. We've got a chance to stay ahead of the curve in this important initiative, we can't afford to fall behind. I predict that a program similar to the one under discussion will be, ten years from now, the most important piece of legislation enacted in the last session of the Kentucky General Assembly in the twentieth century!!!

One of our most important responsibilities is to invest in infrastructure, and none of our infrastructure is more important than roads. I'll be submitting the details of our road program to you in a couple of week's but I do want you to know that we've responded to your requests to stop diverting road fund dollars to pay for general fund obligations. This budget begins to phase out that unsound practice!!!

And we're trying to get more money from the federal government to help pay for our transportation needs. One of the ways they're reducing the federal deficit in Washington is by diverting federal highway trust fund revenue to general fund uses. We're trying to stop that practice in Washington, just as we intend to do in Frankfort. I've spent a lot of time in the nation's capital as the lead governor on transportation issues. We haven't won the battle, but I think we're making headway.

Certainly our investment in roads is vital to our future, but we have other investment needs that we must attend to. This budget proposes that we invest $860-million new dollars in basic infrastructure through the sale of bonds. That includes $425-million dollars for postsecondary education, $62.5-million dollars for new elementary and secondary schools, and $76-million for our criminal justice system.

This is a substantial commitment to new infrastructure but let me remind you that our financial condition was so unstable when I took office that I recommended only 210-million dollars of new bonds in that first biennium, the lowest new indebtedness incurred by Kentucky in over 25 years. The total new debt incurred during my four years in office will be about average for an administration over the past two decades.

I'd like to point out one unique proposal in our budget, and that's the program to jump start our efforts to establish endowed chairs and professorships at our universities through a bond issue. This 110 million dollar proposal will allow us to demonstrate to these schools that we're serious about excellence and willing to fund it in a major way!!!

I know it's an unusual approach and I expect you to question it and evaluate the soundness of the proposal, as I have. I've found it to be a good idea and I support it. I hope you do too.

I know you've all heard about our surplus expenditure program and I know you're anxious to learn more about it. I'll be releasing it before the week's over and I hope you'll agree that it's the right way to spend the extra money that comes in when the economy does better than the economists expect.

Our new fiscal policy means that every budget proposal should contain a surplus expenditure program, but they're not likely to be as large as this one, because we'll seldom have an economy as strong as ours has been these past two years.

Our recommendation for the use of this surplus is to add to our budget reserve trust fund, make a major investment in our school and state government technology programs, and fund about 135 projects for all parts of the state. These projects will be geographically balanced and bipartisan.

I worked all last week listening to every legislator who wanted to support a project. We can't fund them all but I've devoted this past weekend to deciding which ones to recommend and in which order. I'm not quite finished but as I said, I'll finish the task this week.

My main priority is to make this program fair and productive for all Kentuckians. Let me assure you that there's never been a major budget proposal that's had as much legislative input as this one.

It will total $500 million dollars. If the economy continues as strong as it is right now, all these projects will be funded. If the economy turns down, we won't be able to do all of it in this biennium but I'll commit to you, that if any part of this program is left unfunded after July 1st of 1999, those unfunded projects will be among my top priorities, if I'm ever honored to have the responsibility to submit another budget to you.

Yes, there are a lot of important initiatives and ongoing programs in this proposal but it's still not enough to allow us to catch up with the rest of the nation as quickly as I'd like, but it will allow us to gain ground.

We can gain ground, if we don't make ill-advised tax cuts.

Let me remind you one more time that we're in the process of cutting or eliminating six taxes which'll save the people of Kentucky almost 300 million dollars a year when they're fully implemented in two more years. We've cut the personal income tax, the inheritance tax, the provider tax on physicians, your automobile property tax and taxes on private pensions. And we're paying back the intangibles tax improperly collected from Kentuckians. We've absorbed these cuts with growth revenue and frugal management of state government. The first legislative session of the next millenium when the governor and legislature that would have to absorb new tax cuts in the budget are in office would be the proper time to address revenue reduction measures.

For this session, let us take the responsible course for our children, and invest in them!!!

I'll continue to talk to you and the people of Kentucky about this budget for the duration of the session. It's going to be an exciting 10 weeks.

Two weeks ago I called for a bipartisan effort to make it productive. I want to report to the people that we're making progress, in spite of serious and fundamental disagreements on important issues. I believe that most of the members of this General Assembly want to put personal and political differences aside. I'm trying to do that, and I'm willing to go that extra mile to make it work. We have a long way to go and it still may degenerate into the chaos some have predicted, but I pray that doesn't happen. I can only hope, for the sake of Kentucky, that this effort to work together for the common good can last.

We still have some long days ahead of us. The disagreements will be many. The frustrations and fatigue will cause flare ups that we'll all have to apologize for, but our work must go on, too much is at stake. The future of Kentucky is at stake. The children of Kentucky are at stake. Let us not fail them!!!

Good night and God bless you!!!

Representative Stumbo moved that the Joint Session of the House and Senate be dissolved. Agreed.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Section 1. KRS 95A.262 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall, in cooperation with the Cabinet for Human Resources, develop and implement a continuing program to inoculate every paid and volunteer firefighter in Kentucky against hepatitis B. The program shall be funded from revenues allocated to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund pursuant to KRS 136.392 and 42.190. Any fire department that[~~which~~] has inoculated its personnel during the period of July 1, 1991 to July 14, 1992, shall be reimbursed from these revenues for its costs incurred up to the amount allowed by the Cabinet for Human Resources for hepatitis B inoculations.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and KRS 61.316, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall allot on an annual basis a share of the funds accruing to and appropriated for volunteer fire department aid to volunteer fire departments in cities of all classes, fire protection districts organized pursuant to KRS Chapter 75, county districts established under authority of KRS 67.083, and volunteer fire departments created as nonprofit corporations pursuant to KRS Chapter 273. The commission shall allot seven[~~five~~] thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500)[~~($5,000)~~] annually to each qualifying department. Any qualifying department that[~~which~~] fails to participate satisfactorily in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system as described in KRS 304.13-380 shall forfeit annually five hundred dollars ($500) of its allotment. The commission shall recommend to the commissioner of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A to define satisfactory participation in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system. Administrative regulations for determining qualifications shall be based on the number of both paid firefighters and volunteer firemen within a volunteer fire department, the amount of equipment, housing facilities available, and[~~ such~~] other matters or standards as will best effect the purposes of the volunteer fire department aid law. A qualifying department shall include at least twelve (12) firefighters, a chief, and at least one (1) operational fire apparatus or one (1) on order. Fifty percent (50%) of the firefighters shall have completed at least one half (1/2) of one hundred fifty (150) training hours toward certification within the first six (6) months of the first year of the department's application for certification, and there shall be a plan to complete the one hundred fifty (150) training hours within the second year. These personnel, equipment, and training requirements shall not be made more stringent by the promulgation of administrative regulations. No allotment shall exceed the total value of the funds, equipment, lands, and buildings made available to the local fire units from any source whatever for the year in which the allotment is made. A portion of the funds provided for above may be used to purchase group or blanket health insurance and shall be used to purchase workers' compensation insurance, and the remaining funds shall be distributed as set forth in this section.

(3) There shall be allotted two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund that shall be allocated each fiscal year of the biennium to the firefighters training center fund, which is hereby created and established, for the purposes of constructing new or upgrading existing training centers for firefighters. If any moneys in the training center fund remain uncommitted, unobligated, or unexpended at the close of the first fiscal year of the biennium, then the[~~such~~] moneys shall be carried forward to the second fiscal year of the biennium[~~,~~] and shall be reallocated to and for the use of the training center fund, in addition to the second fiscal year's allocation of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Prior to funding any project pursuant to this subsection, a proposed project shall be approved by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education as provided in subsection (4) of this section and shall comply with state laws applicable to capital construction projects.

(4) Applications for funding low-interest loans and firefighters training centers shall be submitted to the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education for their recommendation, approval, disapproval, or modification. The commission shall review applications periodically, and shall, subject to funds available, recommend which applications shall be funded and at what levels, together with any terms and conditions the commission deems necessary.

(5) Any department or entity eligible for and receiving funding pursuant to this section shall have a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of its personnel certified as recognized by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

(6) Upon the written request of any department, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall make available a certified training program in a county in[~~of~~] which the[~~such~~] department is located.

(7) The amount of reimbursement for any given year for costs incurred by the department for administering these funds, including, but not limited to the expenses and costs of commission operations, shall be determined by the commission and shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the total amount of moneys accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund which are allotted for the purposes specified in this section during any fiscal year.

(8) The commission shall withhold from the general distribution of funds under subsection (2) of this section an amount that[~~which~~] it deems sufficient to reimburse volunteer fire departments for equipment lost or damaged beyond repair due to hazardous material incidents.

(9) Moneys withheld pursuant to subsection (8) of this section shall be distributed only under the following terms and conditions:

- (a) A volunteer fire department has lost or damaged beyond repair items of personal protective clothing or equipment due to that equipment having been lost or damaged as a result of an incident in which a hazardous material (as defined in any state or federal statute or regulation) was the causative agent of the loss;
- (b) The volunteer fire department has made application in writing to the commission for reimbursement in a manner approved by the commission and the loss and the circumstances thereof have been verified by the commission;
- (c) The loss of or damage to the equipment has not been reimbursed by the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident or by any other person;
- (d) The commission has determined that the volunteer fire department does not have the fiscal resources to replace the equipment;
- (e) The commission has determined that the equipment sought to be replaced is immediately necessary to protect the lives of the volunteer firefighters of the fire department;
- (f) The fire department has agreed in writing to subrogate all claims for and rights to reimbursement for the lost or damaged equipment to the Commonwealth to the extent that the Commonwealth provides reimbursement to the department; and
- (g) The department has shown to the satisfaction of the commission that it has made reasonable attempts to secure reimbursement for its losses from the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident and has been unsuccessful in the effort.

(10) If a volunteer fire department has met all of the requirements of subsection (9) of this section, the commission may authorize a reimbursement of equipment losses not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or the actual amount of the loss, whichever is less.

(11) Moneys that[~~which~~] have been withheld during any fiscal year and that[~~which~~] remain unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall be distributed in the normal manner required by subsection (2) of this section during the following fiscal year.

(12) No volunteer fire department may receive funding for equipment losses more than once during any fiscal year.

(13) The commission shall make reasonable efforts to secure reimbursement from the responsible party for any moneys awarded to a fire department pursuant to this section.

(14) There shall be allotted each year of the 1992-93 biennium one million dollars ($1,000,000), and each year of the 1994-95, 1996-97, 1998-99, and 2000-01 bienniums one million dollars ($1,000,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund for the purpose of creating a revolving low-interest loan fund, which shall thereafter be self-sufficient and derive its operating revenues from principal and interest payments. The commission, in accordance with the procedures in subsection (4) of this section, may make low-interest loans, and the interest thereon shall not exceed three percent (3%) annually or the amount needed to sustain operating expenses of the loan fund, whichever is less, to volunteer fire departments for the purposes of major equipment purchases and facility construction. Loans shall be made to departments that[~~which~~] achieve the training standards necessary to qualify for volunteer fire department aid allotted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and that[~~which~~] do not have other sources of funds at rates that[~~which~~] are favorable given their financial resources. The proceeds of loan payments shall be returned to the loan fund for the purpose of providing future loans. If a department does not make scheduled loan payments, the commission may withhold any grants payable to the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section until the department is current on its payments. Money in the low-interest loan fund shall be used only for the purposes specified in this subsection. Any funds remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year for the purposes of the fund.

(3) A joint sewer agency shall be established upon the enactment of identical agreements establishing and setting out the powers of the sewer agency by all parties establishing the joint sewer agency. Any agreement enacted by a city or county shall be by ordinance. (4) All the powers granted a metropolitan sewer district and cities of the first class by KRS 76.010 to 76.279 may be granted by ordinance to the joint sewer agency except that such powers may be restricted or qualified in order to conform to the local needs of the county, city, and sanitation district.

Upon satisfaction of its legal obligations, the sanitation district shall be legally dissolved. Any special ad valorem tax imposed by the sanitation district shall be removed from the tax rolls by the county clerk, and any assets of the sanitation district shall be assumed by the county or otherwise transferred by contract to another entity for the purpose of providing service within the area of the sanitation district before dissolution.

The records subject to subpoena include, but are not limited to, a person's bank records and other relevant documents, but excluding individual and business income tax records.

(2) If the registry concludes that there is probable cause to believe that the law has been violated, the registry shall notify the alleged violator of its conclusions and the evidence supporting them, and shall offer the alleged violator a conciliation agreement to resolve the issue. A conciliation agreement may require the alleged violator to comply with one (1) or more of the following:

(a) To cease and desist violations of the law;

(b) To file required reports or other documents or information;

(c) To pay a penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) a day, up to a maximum total fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), for failure to file any report, payment of an administrative fee, or other document or information required by law until the report, fee payment, document, or information is filed; except that there shall be no maximum total fine for candidates for statewide office; or

(d) To pay a penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation for acts of noncompliance with provisions contained within this chapter.

(3) To accept a conciliation agreement, an alleged violator shall deliver the signed agreement to the registry either in person or by mail postmarked not later than ten (10) days after the day he received it. The registry may institute a civil action in Franklin Circuit Court or the Circuit Court for the county of the violator's residence to enforce the provisions of any conciliation agreement accepted by a violator who is not complying with its provisions.

(4) If the alleged violator declines to accept the conciliation agreement or fails to respond within the time allowed, the registry shall[~~, within five (5) days,~~] submit a written request to the Chief Justice of the Kentucky Supreme Court to recommend not fewer than five (5)[~~ten (10)~~] nor more than ten (10)[~~fifteen (15)~~] retired or former justices or retired or former judges of the Court of Justice who are qualified and willing to[~~ serve on a panel which shall~~] conduct a hearing to determine if a violation has occurred. The time and location of hearings shall be determined by the registry. Retired or former justices or judges selected to serve[~~ on a three (3) judge panel~~] shall receive reimbursement from the registry for their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred as a result of the performance of their duties at the hourly rate set for attorneys by the Finance and Administration Cabinet. The registry shall notify the complainant and the alleged violator that a hearing shall be conducted of the specific offenses alleged not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing, which shall be open to the public pursuant to KRS 61.810, the attorney for the registry shall present the evidence against the alleged violator, and the alleged violator shall have all of the protections of due process, including, but not limited to, the right to be represented by counsel, the right to call and examine witnesses, the right to the production of evidence by subpoena, the right to introduce exhibits and the right to cross-examine opposing witnesses. If the justice or judge determines that the preponderance of the evidence shows a violation has occurred, the justice or judge shall[~~The panel shall conclude its proceedings and~~] render a decision not more than sixty (60) days after the case is submitted for determination. The decision shall become the final decision of the registry unless the registry board at its next regular meeting acts to set aside or modify the justice's or judge's decision, in which case the registry board's decision shall become the final registry decision. A party adversely affected by the registry's order may appeal to Franklin Circuit Court within thirty (30) days after the date of the registry's order. The[~~date on which the panel was appointed to conduct a hearing. If the panel determines that the preponderance of the evidence shows a violation has occurred, it shall issue an order, which shall be appealable to the Court of Appeals within thirty (30) days after the date of the order, to the~~] violator may be ordered to comply with any one (1) or more of the following requirements:

(a) To cease and desist violation of this law;

(b) To file any reports or other documents or information required by this law;

(c) To pay a penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) a day, up to a maximum total fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), for failure to file any report, payment of an administrative fee, or other document or information required by law until the report, fee payment, document, or information is filed; except that there shall be no maximum total fine for candidates for statewide office; or

(d) To pay a penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation for acts of noncompliance with provisions contained within this chapter. An appeal of an order[~~ of the panel~~] shall be advanced on the docket to permit a timely decision.

(5) If the registry concludes that there is probable cause to believe that the campaign finance law has been violated knowingly, it shall refer the violation to the Attorney General or the appropriate Commonwealth's or county attorney for prosecution. The Attorney General may request the registry's attorney or the appropriate county or Commonwealth's attorney to prosecute the matter and may request from the registry all evidence collected in its investigation. In the event the Attorney General or the appropriate local prosecutor fails to prosecute in a timely fashion, the registry may petition the Circuit Court to appoint the registry's attorney to prosecute, and upon a motion timely filed, for good cause shown, the court shall enter an order to that effect. Prosecutions involving campaign finance law violations, in which the reports are required to be filed in Frankfort, may be conducted in Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court for the county in which the contribution or expenditure constituting a campaign finance violation was solicited, made, or accepted. The prosecution of a person who unlawfully solicits, makes, or accepts a contribution or expenditure through the use of the mail may be conducted in the Circuit Court for the county in which the solicitation is mailed, the county in which the contribution is mailed or received, or the county in which the expenditure is mailed.

(6) Any person directly involved or affected by an action of the registry[~~ or the panel~~] which is final, other than of a determination to refer a violation to the Attorney General or appropriate Commonwealth's or county attorney for prosecution, may seek judicial review of the action within thirty (30) days after the date of the action.

(7) If judicial review is sought of any action of the registry[~~ or the panel~~] relating to a pending election, the matter shall be advanced on the docket of the court. The court may take any steps authorized by law to accelerate its procedures so as to permit a timely decision.

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby adjourns this day in memory and honor of Steve Hamilton for his countless examples of courage, heroism and sportsmanship. He was one of Morehead State University's most successful athletics alumni and coaches, serving as the University's Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and leaving a prominent legacy as MSU's all-time winningest coach with 305 career victories during his 14-season career as the Eagles' baseball coach, including five divisional championships and two OVC championships, as well as his own illustrious contributions as a record-setting MSU athlete in baseball, basketball and track. His accomplishments which extended beyond the boundaries of the University and the Commonwealth include his 11-year career as a major league baseball pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, Washington Senators, New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox, San Francisco Giants, and the Chicago Cubs. This talented, versatile athlete pitched in two World Series as a New York Yankee and played in an NBA Championship Series for the Minneapolis Lakers. He has served as advocate, legislative liaison and author to assure their voices are heard by those who can provide assistance. Whereas, the poet Robert Frost illuminated said recipient's career and heart well when he said, "There are many kinds of courage and bravery under fire; courage to risk reputation, friendship and career for convictions which are deeply held. Perhaps the rarest courage of all, for the skill to pursue it is given to the very few, is the courage to wage the battle to illuminate the nature of man and the world in which he lives." So it can be said about the very admirable Ashar Tullis and the Kentucky House of Representatives doth this day rejoice for the life that he has lived. Legislative Citation No. 28 was adopted without objection.

(1) Except as may otherwise be provided by this chapter, every employer shall pay to each of his employees wages at a rate of not less than the federal minimum hourly wage as prescribed by 29 U.S.C. sec. 206(a)(1). The minimum wage rates required under this chapter shall be adjusted in accordance with adjustments made in the federal minimum hourly rate. The adoption required in this subsection includes only the federal minimum hourly rate prescribed in 29 U.S.C. sec. 206(a)(1) and does not include other wage rates, or conditions, exclusions, or exceptions to the federal minimum hourly wage rate. In addition, adoption of the federal minimum hourly wage rate does not extend or modify the scope or coverage of the minimum wage rate required under this chapter[~~four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) an hour~~].

(2) For any employee engaged in an occupation in which he customarily and regularly receives more than thirty dollars ($30) per month in tips from patrons or others, the employer may pay as a minimum fifty percent (50%) of the wage prescribed in this section if he can establish by his records that for each week where credit is taken, when adding tips received to wages paid, not less than the minimum rate prescribed in this section was received by the employee. No employer shall use all or part of any tips or gratuities received by employees toward the payment of the statutory minimum hourly wage as required by this section. Nothing, however, shall prevent employees from entering into an agreement to divide tips or gratuities among themselves.

HB 264, AN ACT relating to motor carriers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 138.665 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) A license shall be required of each motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier subject to the provisions of KRS 138.660 before he uses or continues to use the public highways of this state.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirement in subsection (1)(a), the cabinet may issue a trip permit for each motor vehicle subject to KRS 138.660(1) for a fee of twenty dollars ($20) for each permit. If the vehicle is subject to those taxes in KRS 138.660(1) to (3), the cabinet may issue a trip permit for each motor vehicle for a fee of forty dollars ($40) for each permit.

(2) Application for a license or trip permit shall be made to the cabinet and shall contain such information as the cabinet deems necessary.

(3)[~~Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, the motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier shall file with the cabinet a bond as required under KRS 138.670. No license shall be issued to any person unless such person has furnished a bond as provided in KRS 138.670 to secure payment of taxes, penalties and interest imposed by KRS 138.660 to 138.7291.~~

~~(4)~~] The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the bond, if required, having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the cabinet shall issue a license. However, if an application for a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been revoked for cause by the cabinet, or if the cabinet is of the opinion that the person who makes the application does so as a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license, prior to the time of filing the application, has been revoked for cause, or that the application is not for any other reason filed in good faith or is not sufficient cause, the cabinet may, after a hearing of which the applicant shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing and in which he shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(4)[~~(5)~~] All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

(5)[~~(6)~~] A license shall not be assignable or transferable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued.

(6)[~~(7)~~] The cabinet shall keep and file all applications and bonds, with an alphabetical index thereof.

(7)[~~(8)~~] Each holder of a license required by subsection (1) shall display his license number or other identification on or in each vehicle subject to the taxes imposed by KRS 138.655 to 138.7291 in the manner prescribed by the cabinet. The cabinet may require the license number or other identifier to be displayed so that it can be readily recorded either manually or electronically by cabinet representatives. In addition, the cabinet may require each individual unit in the license holder's fleet of vehicles subject to these taxes to be uniquely identified.

(8)[~~(9)~~] The provisions of this section shall not apply to a nonresident motor carrier engaged in transporting passengers for hire in irregular route interstate charter or special operations, provided reciprocal privileges are granted to similar nonresident carriers by the laws and regulations of his state.

Section 2. KRS 138.670 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A[~~Every~~] motor carrier or[~~and~~] heavy equipment motor carrier determined by the Transportation Cabinet to be at risk for nonpayment of its highway use taxes shall file with the cabinet a corporate bond, cash bond, or securities approved by the cabinet in the minimum amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and in a maximum amount of four (4) months' liability for taxes imposed under KRS 138.655 to 138.725 but not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The applicant for a license shall be the principal obligor and this state shall be the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the licensee to the cabinet of all taxes levied under KRS 138.655 to 138.725, together with all penalties and interest thereon and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.655 to 138.725.

(2) If the liability upon the bond is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the cabinet any surety has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the cabinet may require the licensee to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount, failing which the cabinet shall forthwith cancel the license. If a new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the cabinet shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(3) If, upon hearing of which the licensee shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing, the cabinet decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall forthwith, upon written demand of the cabinet, file an additional bond in the same manner and form with surety thereon approved by the cabinet, in any amount determined by the cabinet to be necessary, failing which the cabinet shall forthwith cancel the license.

(4) Any surety on a bond furnished by a licensee shall be released from all liability to this state accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the cabinet, a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The cabinet shall promptly, on receipt of the request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless the licensee shall, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file with the cabinet a new bond with surety satisfactory to the cabinet in the amount and form hereinbefore provided, the cabinet shall forthwith cancel the license. If the new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the cabinet shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

Section 3. KRS 138.685 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensee shall file with the cabinet, in the format[~~on forms~~] prescribed by the cabinet, a quarterly tax return. The return shall be made under penalty of perjury and shall show such information as the cabinet may require. The licensee shall file the return on or before the last day of the next succeeding calendar month following the quarterly period to which it relates.

(2) The quarterly tax return shall be accompanied by a remittance covering the tax due.

Section 4. KRS 138.710 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The reports required by KRS 138.685 shall be accompanied by a certified, electronic, or cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer for the amount of tax due for the preceding calendar quarter computed as provided in KRS 138.690, except that the cabinet may waive this requirement and accept the check of the licensee if he is of sound financial condition and has established a good record of compliance with the requirements of KRS 138.655 to 138.725, inclusive.

(2) The Transportation Cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations providing for the payment by credit card of any tax or fee that it collects. The administrative regulation may require the payee to add to his tax or fee, the administrative charge of the financial institution.

Section 5. KRS 138.715 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any licensee neglects or refuses to make the return or pay the tax at the time provided in KRS 138.685, a penalty of twenty percent (20%) of the tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date when due shall be paid on the tax.

(2) If any licensee subject to the penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section submits to the cabinet in writing the reasons for failure to comply with KRS 138.660 to 138.7291 and if the cabinet finds the reasons sufficient evidence or justifiable cause for modifying the penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section, it may modify the penalty enacted therein to five percent (5%) of the amount of the tax due and delinquent, provided the five percent (5%) penalty may be reduced to one percent (1%) if the violation is the first violation by the taxpayer within the twelve (12) months.

(3) If the penalties provided by this section are collected by proceedings in court, an additional penalty of twenty percent (20%) shall be collected and distributed as is authorized by KRS 134.400 and 135.060. Whenever any licensee neglects or refuses to make and file any report for any calendar quarter as required by KRS 138.685, or files an incorrect or fraudulent report, the cabinet shall determine after an investigation the amount of the liability which the licensee has incurred under KRS 138.660 to 138.7291 for any particular quarter and assess and collect the amount of tax and penalties due.

An insurer that ceases to do business in Kentucky shall not reenter Kentucky for a period of five (5) years from the date of the notice required under this paragraph, unless the insurer files with the commissioner a written request to reenter Kentucky and the commissioner approves the request in writing. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove a request for reentry within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request.

(2) (a) Pre-existing conditions provisions shall not exclude or limit coverage for a period beyond six (6) months, or twelve (12) months for health benefit plans issued after July 15, 1996, following the individual's effective date of coverage and may only relate to conditions which had, during the six (6) months, or twelve (12) months for health benefit plans issued after July 15, 1996, immediately preceding the effective date of coverage, manifested themselves in a manner that would cause an ordinarily prudent person to seek medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment or for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received or as to a pregnancy existing on the effective date of coverage;

(b) In determining whether a pre-existing conditions provision applies to a person covered under a plan, all health benefit plans shall credit the time the person was covered under a previous health benefit plan provided by an insurer, including Medicaid and Medicare, if the previous coverage was continuous to a date not more than sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the new coverage.

(3) Health care benefit plans shall not discriminate against any provider who is located within the geographic coverage area of the health benefit plan and is willing to meet the terms and conditions for participation established by the health benefit plan.

(4) No individually insured person shall be required to replace an individual policy with group coverage on becoming eligible for group coverage that is not provided by an employer. In a situation where a person holding individual coverage is offered or becomes eligible for group coverage not provided by an employer, the person holding the individual coverage shall have the option of remaining individually insured, as the policyholder may decide. This shall apply in any such situation that may arise through the Kentucky Health Purchasing Alliance, any other health purchasing alliance, an association, an affiliated group, the Kentucky state employee health insurance plan, or any other entity.

(b) Subject to paragraph (d) of this subsection, a group health plan, and a health insurance insurer offering group health insurance coverage, may not impose any pre-existing condition exclusion in the case of a child who is adopted or placed for adoption before attaining eighteen (18) years of age and who, as of the last day of the thirty (30) day period beginning on the date of the adoption or placement for adoption, is covered under creditable coverage. The previous sentence shall not apply to coverage before the date of the adoption or placement for adoption.

(c) A group health plan, and health insurance insurer offering group health insurance coverage, may not impose any pre-existing condition exclusion relating to pregnancy as a pre-existing condition.

(d) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall no longer apply to an individual after the end of the first sixty-three (63) day period during all of which the individual was not covered under any creditable coverage.

(6) (a) 1. A group health plan, and a health insurance insurer offering group health insurance coverage, shall provide the certification described in subparagraph 2. of this subsection:

a. At the time an individual ceases to be covered under the plan or otherwise becomes covered under a COBRA continuation provision;

b. In the case of an individual becoming covered under that provision, at the time the individual ceases to be covered under the provision; and

c. On request on behalf of an individual made not later than twenty-four (24) months after the date of cessation of the coverage described in subdivision a. or b. of this subparagraph, whichever is later.

The certification under subdivision a. of this subparagraph may be provided, to the extent practicable, at a time consistent with notices required under any applicable COBRA continuation provision.

2. The certification described in this subparagraph is a written certification of:

a. The period of creditable coverage of the individual under the plan and the coverage, if any, under the COBRA continuation provision; and

b. The waiting period, if any, and affiliation period, if applicable, imposed with respect to the individual for any coverage under the plan.

3. To the extent that medical care under a group health plan consists of group health insurance coverage, the plan is deemed to have satisfied the certification requirement under this paragraph if the health insurance insurer offering the coverage provides for the certification in accordance with this paragraph.

(b) In the case of an election described in subsection (4)(c)2. of this section by a group health plan or health insurance insurer, if the plan or insurer enrolls an individual for coverage under the plan and the individual provides a certification of coverage of the individual under paragraph (a) of this subsection:

1. Upon request of that plan or insurer, the entity that issued the certification provided by the individual shall promptly disclose to the requesting plan or insurer information on coverage of classes and categories of health benefits available under the entity's plan or coverage; and

2. The entity may charge the requesting plan or insurer for the reasonable cost of disclosing this information.

(7) (a) A group health plan, and a health insurance insurer offering group health insurance coverage in connection with a group health plan, shall permit an employee who is eligible, but not enrolled, for coverage under the terms of the plan, or a dependent of that employee if the dependent is eligible, but not enrolled, for coverage under these terms, to enroll for coverage under the terms of the plan if each of the following conditions is met:

1. The employee or dependent was covered under a group health plan or had health insurance coverage at the time coverage was previously offered to the employee or dependent;

2. The employee stated in writing at that time that coverage under a group health plan or health insurance coverage was the reason for declining enrollment, but only if the plan sponsor or insurer, if applicable, required that statement at that time and provided the employee with notice of the requirement, and the consequences of the requirement, at that time;

3. The employee's or dependent's coverage described in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph:

a. Was under a COBRA continuation provision and the coverage under that provision was exhausted; or

b. Was not under such a provision and either the coverage was terminated as a result of loss of eligibility for the coverage, including as a result of legal separation, divorce, death, termination of employment, or reduction in the number of hours of employment, or employer contributions toward the coverage were terminated; and

4. Under the terms of the plan, the employee requests the enrollment not later than thirty (30) days after the date of exhaustion of coverage described in subparagraph 3.a. of this paragraph or termination of coverage or employer contribution described in subparagraph 3.b. of this paragraph.

(b) 1. If:

a. A group health plan makes coverage available with respect to a dependent of an individual;

b. The individual is a participant under the plan, or has met any waiting period applicable to becoming a participant under the plan and is eligible to be enrolled under the plan but for a failure to enroll during a previous enrollment period; and

c. A person becomes such a dependent of the individual through marriage, birth, or adoption or placement for adoption; the group health plan shall provide for a dependent special enrollment period described in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph during which the person or, if not otherwise enrolled, the individual, may be enrolled under the plan as a dependent of the individual, and in the case of the birth or adoption of a child, the spouse of the individual may be enrolled as a dependent of the individual if the spouse is otherwise eligible for coverage.

2. A dependent special enrollment period under this subparagraph shall be a period of not less than thirty (30) days and shall begin on the later of:

a. The date dependent coverage is made available; or

b. The date of the marriage, birth, or adoption or placement for adoption, as the case may be, described in subparagraph 1.c. of this paragraph.

3. If an individual seeks to enroll a dependent during the first thirty (30) days of the dependent special enrollment period, the coverage of the dependent shall become effective:

a. In the case of marriage, not later than the first day of the first month beginning after the date the completed request for enrollment is received;

b. In the case of a dependent's birth, as of the date of the birth; or

c. In the case of a dependent's adoption or placement for adoption, the date of the adoption or placement for adoption.

(8) (a) In the case of a group health plan that offers medical care through health insurance coverage offered by a health maintenance organization, the plan may provide for an affiliation period with respect to coverage through the organization only if:

1. No pre-existing condition exclusion is imposed with respect to coverage through the organization;

2. The period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status-related factors; and

3. The period does not exceed two (2) months, or three (3) months in the case of a late enrollee.

(b) 1. For purposes of this section, the term "affiliation period" means a period which, under the terms of the health insurance coverage offered by the health maintenance organization, must expire before the health insurance coverage becomes effective. The organization is not required to provide health care services or benefits during this period and no premium shall be charged to the participant or beneficiary for any coverage during the period.

2. This period shall begin on the enrollment date.

3. An affiliation period under a plan shall run concurrently with any waiting period under the plan.

(c) A health maintenance organization described in paragraph (a) of this subsection may use alternative methods other than those described in that paragraph to address adverse selection as approved by the commissioner.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A health insurer offering individual health benefit plan coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth shall not impose any pre-existing conditions exclusions as to any eligible individual.

(2) Each health insurer offering individual health benefit plan coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth that chooses to impose a pre-existing conditions exclusion on individuals who do not meet the definition of eligible individual shall comply with the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, which establishes standards and requirements for pre-existing conditions exclusions for group health plans, including crediting previous coverage, and certification of coverage; except the period of creditable coverage shall only reduce the period of a pre-existing condition exclusion in a policy that has benefits substantially similar to the benefits provided in the creditable coverage. Pregnancy may be considered to be a pre-existing condition.

(3) Genetic information shall not be treated as a pre-existing condition in the absence of a diagnosis of the condition related to the information.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in this section, an insurer shall renew or continue in force a health benefit plan at the option of the insured.

(2) An insurer may nonrenew or discontinue a health benefit plan based only on one (1) or more of the following:

(a) The insured has failed to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the plan or the insurer has not received timely premium payments;

(b) The insured has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of the coverage;

(c) The insured has engaged in intentional and abusive noncompliance with health benefit plan provisions;

(d) The insurer is ceasing to offer coverage in the individual or group market in accordance with subsection (3) of this section;

(e) In the case of an insurer that offers health benefit plans through a network plan, the individual no longer resides, lives, or works in the service area or in an area for which the insurer is authorized to do business, but only if the coverage is terminated under this paragraph uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of covered individuals, or there is no longer any enrollee in connection with the group plan who resides, lives, or works in the service area of the insurer; or

(f) In the case of a health benefit plan that is made available only through one (1) or more bona fide associations, the membership of the individual or employer in the association on the basis of which the coverage is provided ceases, but only if the coverage is terminated under this paragraph uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of covered individuals.

(3) (a) In any case in which an insurer decides to discontinue offering a particular type of health benefit plan, coverage of the type may be discontinued by the insurer upon approval by the commissioner only if:

1. The insurer provides notice to each insured provided coverage of this type in the market of the discontinuation at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of the discontinuation of the coverage;

2. The insurer offers, to each insured provided coverage of this type, the option to purchase any other health benefit plan currently of that type being offered by the insurer in that market; and

3. In exercising the option to discontinue coverage of this type and in offering the option of coverage under subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, the insurer acts uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of enrolled insureds or insureds who may become eligible for coverage.

(b) 1. Subject to paragraph (a)3. of this subsection, in any case in which an insurer elects to discontinue offering all health benefit plans in Kentucky, health benefit plans may be discontinued by the insurer only if:

a. The insurer provides notice to the commissioner and to each insured of the discontinuation at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the date of the expiration of the coverage; and

b. All health benefit plans issued or delivered for issuance in Kentucky are discontinued and coverage under the health benefit plans is not renewed.

2. In the case of a discontinuation under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, the insurer may not provide for the issuance of any health benefit plans in Kentucky during the five (5) year period beginning on the date of the discontinuation of the last health benefit plan not so renewed.

(4) At the time of coverage renewal, an insurer may modify, with approval of the commissioner, the health benefit plan for a policy form so long as the modification is consistent with this chapter and effective on a uniform basis among all individuals with that policy form.

(5) In applying this section in the case of a health benefit plan that is made available by an insurer only through one (1) or more associations, a reference to an individual is deemed to include a reference to an association of which the individual is a member, and a reference to an employer member is deemed to include a reference to the employer.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The commissioner shall, by administrative regulations promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, define one (1) standard health benefit plan that shall provide health insurance coverage in the individual and small group markets after June 30, 1998. As a condition of doing business in the individual or small group market in the Commonwealth, the health insurer shall offer the standard health benefit plan, but the extent to which the standard health benefit plan shall be offered on a guaranteed issue basis shall only be as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act. Except as may be necessary to coordinate with changes in federal law, the commissioner shall not alter, amend, or replace the standard health benefit plan more frequently than annually. Initially, the standard health benefit plan shall be the standard high plan in effect on the effective date of this Act.

(2) The standard health benefit plan shall be available in at least one (1) of these four (4) forms of coverage:

(a) A fee-for-service product type;

(b) A health maintenance organization type;

(c) A point of service type; and

(d) A preferred provider organization type.

(3) The standard health benefit plan shall be defined so that it meets the requirements of Section 18 of this Act for inclusion in calculating assessments and refunds under the guaranteed acceptance program.

(4) Any health insurer who elects to offer health insurance policies in the individual or small group markets in this state shall, as a condition of offering health benefit plans in this state after June 30, 1998, offer and issue the standard health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets in each and every form of coverage that the health insurer offers to sell.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To require a health insurer to offer a standard health benefit plan in a form of coverage that the health insurer has not selected;

(b) To prohibit a health insurer from offering other health benefit plans in the individual or small group markets in addition to the standard health benefit plan; or

(c) To require that a standard health benefit plan have guaranteed issue, renewability, or pre-existing condition exclusion rights or provisions that are more generous to the applicant than the health insurer would be required to provide under Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this Act.

(6) Insurance agents licensed under this chapter who present for sale any health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets to a prospective applicant shall also inform that person of the existence of the standard benefit plan in the same form of coverages offered by the same insurer.

(7) (a) A benefits comparison shall be delivered to a prospective applicant for any health insurance coverage in the individual or small group markets at the time of initial solicitation through means that prominently direct the attention of the prospective applicant to the document and its purpose.

1. The commissioner shall prescribe a standard format, including style, arrangement, and overall appearance, and the content of a benefits comparison.

2. In the case of agent solicitations, an agent shall deliver the benefits comparison to the prospective applicant prior to the presentation of an application or enrollment form.

3. In the case of direct response solicitations, the benefits comparison shall be presented in conjunction with any application or enrollment form.

(b) The benefits comparison given to a prospective applicant shall include:

1. A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant;

2. A statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit plan being offered to the prospective applicant; and

3. A chart providing a direct comparison of the insurer's premium rate for the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant.

(c) At the time of the execution of an application for any health benefit plan, the prospective applicant shall sign a statement contained in or accompanying the application, which shall remain on file with the health insurer for one (1) year, indicating that the insured has been provided with and understands the benefits comparison required by this subsection.

(d) As used in this subsection and in subsection (6) of this section, the term "prospective applicant" refers only to a natural person who is a resident of the Commonwealth and who is purchasing health insurance coverage in the individual market providing benefits to that person, that person's spouse, or that person's children. It does not include an employer or representative of an employer who is considering health insurance coverage that would provide benefits to employees and their families.

(8) All health benefit plans shall cover hospice care at least equal to the Medicare benefits.

(9) All health benefit plans shall coordinate benefits with other health benefit plans in accordance with the guidelines for coordination of benefits prescribed by the commissioner as provided in KRS 304.18-085.

(10) Every health insurer of any kind, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, dental and health service corporation, health maintenance organization, or provider-sponsored health delivery network that issues or delivers an insurance policy in this state that directs or gives any incentives to insureds to obtain health care services from certain health care providers shall not imply or otherwise represent that a health care provider is a participant in or an affiliate of an approved or selected provider network unless the health care provider has agreed in writing to the representation or there is a written contract between the health care provider and the insurer or an agreement by the provider to abide by the terms for participation established by the insurer. This requirement to have written contracts shall apply whenever an insurer includes a health care provider as a part of a preferred provider network or otherwise selects, lists, or approves certain health care providers for use by the insurer's insureds. The obligation set forth in this section for an insurer to have written contracts with providers selected for use by the insurer shall not apply to emergency or out-of-area services.

(11) A self-insured plan may select any third party administrator licensed under KRS 304.9-052 to adjust or settle claims for persons covered under the self-insured plan.

(12) Any health insurer that fails to issue a premium rate quote to an individual within thirty (30) days of receiving a completed application request for the quote shall be required to issue coverage to that individual and shall not impose any pre-existing conditions exclusion on that individual with respect to the coverage. Each health insurer offering individual health insurance coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth that refuses to issue a health benefit plan to an insured with a high-cost condition shall provide the individual with a denial letter within twenty (20) working days of the request for coverage. The letter shall include the name and title of the person making the decision, a statement setting forth the specific high cost condition that is the basis for refusing to issue a policy, a description of the Guaranteed Acceptance Program, and the name and the telephone number of a contact person who can provide additional information about the Guaranteed Acceptance Program.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An insurer that, on or after July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act, issued standard health benefit plans under KRS 304.17A-160 and then ceased doing business in Kentucky may apply to the commissioner on or after the effective date of this Act for approval to reenter Kentucky and engage in the health insurance business notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110(1)(d) as it existed on the date the insurer ceased doing business in Kentucky.

Section 9. KRS 304.17A-095 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, each insurer that issues, delivers, or renews any health benefit plan shall, before use thereof, file with the commissioner its rates, fees, dues, and other charges paid by insureds, members, enrollees, or subscribers, shall submit a copy of the filing to the Attorney General, and shall comply with the provisions of this section. The insurer shall adhere to its rates, fees, dues, and other charges as filed with the commissioner. The insurer may submit new filings from time to time as it deems proper~~[, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section]~~.

(2) (a) A rate filing under this section may be used by the insurer on and after the date of filing with the commissioner prior to approval by the commissioner. A rate filing must be approved or diapproved by the commissioner within sixty (60) days after the date of filing. Should sixty (60) days expire after the commissioner receives the filing before approval or disapproval of the filing, the filing shall be deemed approved. The commissioner may hold a hearing within sixty (60) days after receiving a filing containing a rate increase. Not less than thirty (30) days in advance of a hearing held under this section, the commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearings. The Attorney General may participate as a health insurance consumer intervenor and be considered a party to the hearing.

(b) The commissioner shall hold a hearing upon written request; including the reasons for the request, by the Attorney General, provided the request is in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(c) The commissioner shall hold a hearing, unless waived by the health insurer, before ordering a retroactive reduction of rates.

(d) The hearing shall be a public hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(e) In the circumstances of a filing that has been deemed approved under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the commissioner shall have the authority to order a retroactive reduction of rates to a reasonable rate if after applying the factors in subsection (3) of this section the commissioner determines that the rates were unreasonable. If the commissioner seeks to order a retroactive reduction of rates and more than one (1) year has passed since the date of the filing, the commissioner shall consider the reasonableness of the rate over the entire period during which the filing has been in effect.~~[Each filing under this section shall be on file for a waiting period of thirty (30) days before it becomes effective. The period may be extended by the commissioner for an additional period not to exceed thirty (30) days if the commissioner gives notice within the waiting period to the insurer that it needs the additional time for consideration of the filing. At the end of the thirty (30) day period, or any additional period if extended by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection, the filing shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been disapproved by order of the commissioner or the commissioner has directed that a hearing be held.~~

~~(b) The commissioner may hold a hearing, without request by others, within thirty (30) days after receiving a filing under this subtitle, or during an additional thirty (30) day period, and shall issue an order approving or disapproving the filing within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the hearing.~~

~~(c) If the filing contains an average premium rate increase which will result in a percentage increase over the~~

~~insurer's average existing rates that is greater than the percentage change in the medical care consumer price index for all urban consumers for the South region as published by the federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, plus three percent (3%), since the last filing of the insurer for any of the same policies or contracts, the commissioner shall hold a hearing, without request by others, within thirty (30) days after receiving a filing under this subtitle, or during an additional thirty (30) day period, and shall issue an order approving or disapproving the filing within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the hearing.~~]

(3) In approving or disapproving a filing under this section, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) Whether the benefits provided are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(b) Whether the fees paid to providers for the covered services are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(c) Previous premium rates or fees for the policies or contracts to which the filing applies;

(d) The effect of the rate or rate increase on policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers;

(e) Whether the rates, fees, dues, or other charges are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory; and

(f) The effect on the rates of any assessment made under Section 21 of this Act; and

(g) Other factors as deemed relevant by the commissioner.

(4) The rates for each policyholder shall be guaranteed for twelve (12) months at the rate in effect on the date of issue or date of renewal[~~Not less than ten (10) days in advance of a hearing held under this section, the commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearing. The Attorney General shall participate as a health insurance consumer intervenor and be considered a party to the hearing~~].

(5)[~~No insurer receiving the commissioner's approval of a filing under this section shall submit a new filing containing a rate or fee increase for any of the same policies or contracts until at least twelve (12) months have elapsed following the effective date of the approved increase.~~

~~(6)~~] At any time the commissioner, after a public hearing for which at least thirty (30) days' notice has been given, may withdraw approval of rates or fees previously approved under this section and may order an appropriate refund or future premium credit to policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers if the commissioner determines that the rates or fees previously approved are in violation of this chapter[~~benefits are no longer reasonable in relation to the premiums or fees charged~~].

(6) Each insurer paying a risk assessment under Section 21 of this Act may include the amount of the assessment in establishing premium rates filed with the commissioner under this section. The insurer shall identify any assessment allocated.

(7) The commissioner may by administrative regulation prescribe any additional information related to rates, fees, dues, and other charges as they relate to the factors set out in subsection (3) of this section that it deems necessary and relevant to be included in the filings and the form of the filings required by this section.

[~~(8) Because of the duties of the commissioner imposed under KRS 304.17A-090, the commissioner may, between July 15, 1996, and December 31, 1996, in addition to the thirty (30) day extension allowed under subsection (2) of this section, further extend the waiting period and the time for holding a hearing up to two (2) additional thirty (30) day periods upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the insurer of each extension that the additional periods are necessary due to proper fulfillment of the commissioner's duties under KRS 304.17A-090.~~]

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Premium rates for a health benefit plan issued or renewed to an individual, a small group, or an association on or after the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) The premium rates charged during a rating period to an individual with similar case characteristics for the same coverage, or the rates that could be charged to that individual under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from the index rate by more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the index rate.

(2) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to an individual for a new rating period shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(a) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the insurer is not issuing new policies, the insurer shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;

(b) Any adjustment, not to exceed ten percent (10%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one (1) year, due to the claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the individual and dependents as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business; and

(c) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the individual as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, at renewal the insurer may replace modified community rates with rates determined in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

(b) Within the limitations set out in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the premium rate for health benefit plans issued to high-risk individuals under modified community rating who at the time of issue had a high-cost condition during the period from July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act for a new rating period:

1. Shall not be increased by more than twenty-five percent (25%) on either of the first two (2) renewal dates after the effective date of this Act. The total increase shall not exceed a maximum of thirty-five percent (35%) of the index rate. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the program established under Section 15 of this Act shall reimburse the insurer for any premium loss incurred under this subsection to the extent that funds are available. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the premium loss incurred for each policy renewal period shall be determined as being the premium necessary to provide for the excess claims costs of the high-risk individuals. The excess claims costs equals the excess of the average claims costs for high-risk individuals, less the average claims cost of all other individuals with health benefit plans issued during the period from July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act, multiplied by the number of high-risk individuals;

2. May be increased without restriction to the applicable rate as determined by the insurer's rate manual on the third renewal date after the effective date of this Act; and

3. Shall be subject to subsection (2) of this section on the fourth renewal date after the effective date of this Act and thereafter.

(4) The premium rates charged during a rating period to a small group or to an association member with similar case characteristics for the same coverage, or the rates that could be charged to that small group or that association member under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from the index rate by more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the index rate.

(5) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small group or to an association member for a new rating period shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(a) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the insurer is not issuing new policies, the insurer shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;

(b) Any adjustment, not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one (1) year, due to the claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the employee, association member, or dependents as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business; and

(c) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the small group or association member as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business.

(6) In utilizing case characteristics, the ratio of the highest rate factor to the lowest rate factor within a class of business shall not exceed five to one (5:1). For purpose of this limitation, case characteristics include age, gender, occupation or industry, and geographic area.

(7) Adjustments in rates for claims experience, health status, and duration of coverage shall not be charged to an individual group member or the member's dependents. Any adjustment shall be applied uniformly to the rates charged for all individuals and dependents of the small group.

(8) The commissioner may approve establishment of additional classes of business upon application to the commissioner and a finding by the commissioner that the additional class would enhance the efficiency and fairness for the applicable market segment.

(a) The index rate for a rating period for any class of business shall not exceed the index rate for any other class of business in that market segment by more than ten percent (10%).

(b) An insurer may establish a separate class of business only to reflect substantial differences in expected claims experience or administrative cost related to the following reasons:

1. The insurer uses more than one (1) type of system for the marketing and sale of the health benefit plans; or

2. The insurer has acquired a class of business from another insurer.

(9) For the purpose of this section, a health benefit plan that utilizes a restricted provider network shall not be considered similar coverage to a health benefit plan that does not utilize a restricted provider network if utilization of the restricted provider network results in substantial differences in claims costs.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an insurer shall not be required to utilize the experience of those individuals with high-cost conditions who enrolled in its plans between July 15, 1995 and the effective date of this Act to develop the insurer's index rate for its individual policies.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent an insurer from offering incentives to participate in a program of disease prevention or health improvement.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Base premium rate" has the meaning provided in Section 1 of this Act;

(b) "Employer" means a person engaged in a trade or business who has two (2) or more employees within the state in each of twenty (20) or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year;

(c) "Employer-organized association" means any of the following:

1. Any entity which was qualified by the commissioner as an eligible association prior to the effective date of this Act, and which has actively marketed a health insurance program to its members after September 8, 1996, and which is not insurer-controlled;

2. An entity organized under KRS 247.240 to 247.370 that has actively marketed health insurance to its members and which is not insurer-controlled; or

3. Any entity which is a bona fide association as defined in 42 U.S.C. sec. 300gg-91(d)(3), whose members consist principally of employers, and for which the entity's health insurance decisions are made by a board or committee the majority of which are representatives of employer members of the entity who obtain group health insurance coverage through the entity or through a trust or other mechanism established by the entity, and whose health insurance decisions are reflected in written minutes or other written documentation;

(d) "Index rate" has the meaning provided in Section 1 of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the amount or rate of premiums for an employer-organized association health plan may be determined, subject to the restrictions of subsection (3) of this section, based upon the experience or projected experience of the employer-organized associations whose employers obtain group coverage under the plan. Without the written consent of the employer-organized association filed with the commissioner, the index rate for the employer-organized association shall be calculated solely with respect to that employer-organized association and shall not be tied to, linked to, or otherwise adversely affected by any other index rate used by the issuing insurer.

(3) The following restrictions shall be applied in calculating the permissible amount or rate of premiums for an employer-organized health insurance plan:

(a) The premium rates charged during a rating period to members of the employer-organized association with similar characteristics for the same or similar coverage, or the premium rates that could be charged to a member of the employer-organized association under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from its own index rate by more than twenty-five percent (25%) of its own index rate.

(b) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to an employer member of an employer-organized association for a new rating period may not exceed the sum of the following:

1. The percentage change in the new business premium rate for the employer-organized association measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period;

2. Any adjustment, not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating period of less than one (1) year, due to the claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the member as determined from the insurer's rate manual; and

3. Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the member as determined by the insurer's rate manual.

(4) In utilizing case characteristics, the ratio of the highest rate factor to the lowest rate factor within a class of business shall not exceed five to one (5:1). For purpose of this limitation, case characteristics include age, gender, occupation or industry, and geographic area.

(5) For the purpose of this section, a health insurance contract that utilizes a restricted provider network shall not be considered similar coverage to a health insurance contract that does not utilize a restricted provider network if utilization of the restricted provider network results in measurable differences in claims costs.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Health insurance coverage* provided to an individual in the group market or otherwise in connection with a group health plan does not satisfy this criteria even if the individual, or the individual's spouse or parent, pays some or all of the cost of the coverage unless the coverage is offered in connection with a group health plan that has fewer than two (2) participants as current employees on the first day of the plan year;

(b) An individual entitled to benefits under the health benefit plan either within the previous three (3) years has been diagnosed with or treated for a high-cost condition for which benefits are payable under the health benefit plan and the insurer is aware of the diagnosis or treatment or has had benefits paid under the health benefit plan for a high cost condition;

(c) The health benefit plan imposes the maximum pre-existing condition exclusion permitted under Section 2 of this Act;

(a) The policy shall not be considered to be a program plan thereafter until the first renewal of the policy after there are three (3) consecutive years in which the total claims paid under the policy have exceeded the total premiums paid for the policy and at the time of the renewal the policy also qualifies under subsection (1) as a program plan; and

(b) Within the last six (6) months of the third year, the insurer shall provide each person entitled to benefits under the policy who has a high cost condition with a written notice of insurability. The notice shall state that the recipient may be able to purchase a health benefit plan other that a program plan and shall also state that neither the notice nor the individual's actions to purchase a health benefit plan other than a program plan shall affect the individual's eligibility for plan coverage. The notice shall be valid for six (6) months.

SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

For a health benefit plan that is a program plan at the time of first issuance, an insurer may charge an annual premium of up to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the index rate charged to a person of identical or similar case characteristics but assuming no individual entitled to benefits under the health benefit plan had been diagnosed or treated with a high cost condition for which benefits are payable under the policy.

SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, program plans may contain cost containment features, including managed care and utilization management, to control the amount of high cost policy losses without creating excessive adverse health care outcomes.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) For each fiscal year that the program is operating, every insurer will report to the department, in a form and at the time as the department by administrative regulation may specify, the following information for that year:

(c) The total amount of program plan claims paid by all reporting insurers;

(d) The amount of total actual program plan losses;

(e) The amount of the insurer's assessment or refund; and

(4) The department may conduct such examinations of insurers participating in the plan as is reasonably necessary to determine if the information provided by the insurers is accurate. At the request of the department, the department shall conduct the examinations.

SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

All funds in the program account shall be held at interest, in a single depository designated in accordance with KRS 304.8-090(1) under a written trust agreement in accordance with KRS 304.8-095. All expense and revenue transactions of the fund shall be posted to the state accounting and reporting system (STARS) and its successors.

(3) The program account shall be funded from the following sources:

(a) Appropriations from the General Assembly;

(b) All premium taxes collected under KRS Chapter 136 from any insurer, and any retaliatory taxes collected under KRS 304.3-270 from any insurer, for accident and health premiums that are in excess of the amount of the premium taxes and retaliatory taxes collected for the calendar year 1997;

(c) Annual assessments from each reinsurer in an amount which is equal to two dollars ($2) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of reinsurance premiums;

(d) An assessment for each fiscal year on the total amount of all health benefit plan premiums written during the prior fiscal year and paid by all insurers who received any of the health benefit plan premiums on which the assessment is based. The first assessment shall be for the fiscal year of July 1, 1998, to June 30, 1999, shall be based on the amount of health benefit plan premiums written during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998, and the total amount of the assessment against all insurers shall equal seven million eight hundred thousand dollars ($7,800,000). The percentage rate used to determine the 1998-1999 assessment shall be the maximum percentage that may be used to determine the assessment in any subsequent fiscal year. Assessments in any subsequent fiscal year shall be paid on or before the last day of the fiscal year, and the first assessment shall be paid on or before June 30, 1999;

(e) Any special assessments under subsection 4(b) of this section;

(a) If the amount of total actual program plan losses is less than the amount in the program account, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to the amount of its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account.

(b) If the amount of total actual program plan losses is more than the amount in the program account, then the difference shall be considered a program account deficit, and there shall be a second assessment, in addition to the assessment under subsection 3(d) of this section, on all insurers who received any of the health benefit plan premiums on which the assessment under subsection 3(d) is based. The second assessment shall also be a percentage of the health benefit plan premiums except for the following limitations:

1. The percentage rate may not exceed the percentage rate used to determine the 1998-1999 assessment, and

2. The total amount generated from the additional assessment may not exceed the lesser of the program account deficit or seven million eight hundred thousand dollars ($7,800,000). If the second assessment fully eliminates the program account deficit, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to the amount of its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account. If the second assessment does not fully eliminate the program account deficit, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account in the same proportion that the insurer's program plan losses bears to the total program plan losses of all insurers.

(5) With respect to an insurer who reasonably will be expected to both pay assessments and receive payments from the program account, the department shall calculate the net amount owed to or to be received from the program account, and the department shall only collect assessments or make payments from the program account based upon net amounts.

(6) Insurers paying an assessment may include in any health insurance rate filing that amount of such assessments as provided in Section 21 of this Act.

(7) Any surpluses remaining in the program account after completion of the risk adjustment process for a fiscal year shall be maintained for use in the risk adjustment process for future fiscal years and such funds shall not lapse. The General Fund appropriations to the program account shall not lapse.

The report shall contain an evaluation of the program, an evaluation of issues concerning individuals with high-cost conditions, and recommendations for establishing alternative means of providing health benefit plans for those individuals in addition to, or as an alternative to, the risk adjustment mechanism of the program. In order to determine the effectiveness of the program in providing access and affordable insurance to individuals with high-cost conditions and in readjusting the risks of providing health benefit plans to such individuals, the department shall determine:

  (a) The number of individuals with high-cost conditions;

  (b) The number of program plans; and

  (c) The reasons that any program plans are terminated.

(2) Beginning no later than June 30, 1999, and annually thereafter, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall be responsible for an audit of the program, and the costs of the audit shall be born by the department. (8) (a) In the case of a group health plan that offers medical care through health insurance coverage offered by a health maintenance organization, the plan may provide for an affiliation period with respect to coverage through the organization only if:

1. No pre-existing condition exclusion is imposed with respect to coverage through the organization;

2. The period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status-related factors; and

3. The period does not exceed two (2) months, or three (3) months in the case of a late enrollee.

(b) 1. For purposes of this section, the term "affiliation period" means a period which, under the terms of the health insurance coverage offered by the health maintenance organization, must expire before the health insurance coverage becomes effective. The organization is not required to provide health care services or benefits during this period and no premium shall be charged to the participant or beneficiary for any coverage during the period.

2. This period shall begin on the enrollment date.

3. An affiliation period under a plan shall run concurrently with any waiting period under the plan.

(c) A health maintenance organization described in paragraph (a) of this subsection may use alternative methods other than those described in that paragraph to address adverse selection as approved by the commissioner.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A health insurer offering individual health benefit plan coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth shall not impose any pre-existing conditions exclusions as to any eligible individual.

(2) Each health insurer offering individual health benefit plan coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth that chooses to impose a pre-existing conditions exclusion on individuals who do not meet the definition of eligible individual shall comply with the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, which establishes standards and requirements for pre-existing conditions exclusions for group health plans, including crediting previous coverage, and certification of coverage; except the period of creditable coverage shall only reduce the period of a pre-existing condition exclusion in a policy that has benefits substantially similar to the benefits provided in the creditable coverage. Pregnancy may be considered to be a pre-existing condition.

(3) Genetic information shall not be treated as a pre-existing condition in the absence of a diagnosis of the condition related to the information.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in this section, an insurer shall renew or continue in force a health benefit plan at the option of the insured.

(2) An insurer may nonrenew or discontinue a health benefit plan based only on one (1) or more of the following:

(a) The insured has failed to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the plan or the insurer has not received timely premium payments;

(b) The insured has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of the coverage;

(c) The insured has engaged in intentional and abusive noncompliance with health benefit plan provisions;

(d) The insurer is ceasing to offer coverage in the individual or group market in accordance with subsection (3) of this section;

(e) In the case of an insurer that offers health benefit plans through a network plan, the individual no longer resides, lives, or works in the service area or in an area for which the insurer is authorized to do business, but only if the coverage is terminated under this paragraph uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of covered individuals, or there is no longer any enrollee in connection with the group plan who resides, lives, or works in the service area of the insurer; or

(f) In the case of a health benefit plan that is made available only through one (1) or more bona fide associations, the membership of the individual or employer in the association on the basis of which the coverage is provided ceases, but only if the coverage is terminated under this paragraph uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of covered individuals.

(3) (a) In any case in which an insurer decides to discontinue offering a particular type of health benefit plan, coverage of the type may be discontinued by the insurer upon approval by the commissioner only if:

1. The insurer provides notice to each insured provided coverage of this type in the market of the discontinuation at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of the discontinuation of the coverage;

2. The insurer offers, to each insured provided coverage of this type, the option to purchase any other health benefit plan currently of that type being offered by the insurer in that market; and

3. In exercising the option to discontinue coverage of this type and in offering the option of coverage under subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, the insurer acts uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of enrolled insureds or insureds who may become eligible for coverage.

(b) 1. Subject to paragraph (a)3. of this subsection, in any case in which an insurer elects to discontinue offering all health benefit plans in Kentucky, health benefit plans may be discontinued by the insurer only if:

a. The insurer provides notice to the commissioner and to each insured of the discontinuation at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the date of the expiration of the coverage; and

b. All health benefit plans issued or delivered for issuance in Kentucky are discontinued and coverage under the health benefit plans is not renewed.

2. In the case of a discontinuation under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, the insurer may not provide for the issuance of any health benefit plans in Kentucky during the five (5) year period beginning on the date of the discontinuation of the last health benefit plan not so renewed.

(4) At the time of coverage renewal, an insurer may modify, with approval of the commissioner, the health benefit plan for a policy form so long as the modification is consistent with this chapter and effective on a uniform basis among all individuals with that policy form.

(5) In applying this section in the case of a health benefit plan that is made available by an insurer only through one (1) or more associations, a reference to an individual is deemed to include a reference to an association of which the individual is a member, and a reference to an employer member is deemed to include a reference to the employer.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The commissioner shall, by administrative regulations promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, define one (1) standard health benefit plan that shall provide health insurance coverage in the individual and small group markets after June 30, 1998. As a condition of doing business in the individual or small group market in the Commonwealth, the health insurer shall offer the standard health benefit plan, but the extent to which the standard health benefit plan shall be offered on a guaranteed issue basis shall only be as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act. Except as may be necessary to coordinate with changes in federal law, the commissioner shall not alter, amend, or replace the standard health benefit plan more frequently than annually. Initially, the standard health benefit plan shall be the standard high plan in effect on the effective date of this Act.

(2) The standard health benefit plan shall be available in at least one (1) of these four (4) forms of coverage:

(a) A fee-for-service product type;

(b) A health maintenance organization type;

(c) A point of service type; and

(d) A preferred provider organization type.

(3) The standard health benefit plan shall be defined so that it meets the requirements of Section 18 of this Act for inclusion in calculating assessments and refunds under the guaranteed acceptance program.

(4) Any health insurer who elects to offer health insurance policies in the individual or small group markets in this state shall, as a condition of offering health benefit plans in this state after June 30, 1998, offer and issue the standard health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets in each and every form of coverage that the health insurer offers to sell.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To require a health insurer to offer a standard health benefit plan in a form of coverage that the health insurer has not selected;

(b) To prohibit a health insurer from offering other health benefit plans in the individual or small group markets in addition to the standard health benefit plan; or

(c) To require that a standard health benefit plan have guaranteed issue, renewability, or pre-existing condition

exclusion rights or provisions that are more generous to the applicant than the health insurer would be required to provide under Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this Act.

(6) Insurance agents licensed under this chapter who present for sale any health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets to a prospective applicant shall also inform that person of the existence of the standard benefit plan in the same form of coverages offered by the same insurer.

(7) (a) A benefits comparison shall be delivered to a prospective applicant for any health insurance coverage in the individual or small group markets at the time of initial solicitation through means that prominently direct the attention of the prospective applicant to the document and its purpose.

1. The commissioner shall prescribe a standard format, including style, arrangement, and overall appearance, and the content of a benefits comparison.

2. In the case of agent solicitations, an agent shall deliver the benefits comparison to the prospective applicant prior to the presentation of an application or enrollment form.

3. In the case of direct response solicitations, the benefits comparison shall be presented in conjunction with any application or enrollment form.

(b) The benefits comparison given to a prospective applicant shall include:

1. A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant;

2. A statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit plan being offered to the prospective applicant; and

3. A chart providing a direct comparison of the insurer's premium rate for the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant.

(c) At the time of the execution of an application for any health benefit plan, the prospective applicant shall sign a statement contained in or accompanying the application, which shall remain on file with the health insurer for one (1) year, indicating that the insured has been provided with and understands the benefits comparison required by this subsection.

(d) As used in this subsection and in subsection (6) of this section, the term "prospective applicant" refers only to a natural person who is a resident of the Commonwealth and who is purchasing health insurance coverage in the individual market providing benefits to that person, that person's spouse, or that person's children. It does not include an employer or representative of an employer who is considering health insurance coverage that would provide benefits to employees and their families.

(8) All health benefit plans shall cover hospice care at least equal to the Medicare benefits.

(9) All health benefit plans shall coordinate benefits with other health benefit plans in accordance with the guidelines for coordination of benefits prescribed by the commissioner as provided in KRS 304.18-085.

(10) Every health insurer of any kind, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, dental and health service corporation, health maintenance organization, or provider-sponsored health delivery network that issues or delivers an insurance policy in this state that directs or gives any incentives to insureds to obtain health care services from certain health care providers shall not imply or otherwise represent that a health care provider is a participant in or an affiliate of an approved or selected provider network unless the health care provider has agreed in writing to the representation or there is a written contract between the health care provider and the insurer or an agreement by the provider to abide by the terms for participation established by the insurer. This requirement to have written contracts shall apply whenever an insurer includes a health care provider as a part of a preferred provider network or otherwise selects, lists, or approves certain health care providers for use by the insurer's insureds. The obligation set forth in this section for an insurer to have written contracts with providers selected for use by the insurer shall not apply to emergency or out-of-area services.

(11) A self-insured plan may select any third party administrator licensed under KRS 304.9-052 to adjust or settle claims for persons covered under the self-insured plan.

(12) Any health insurer that fails to issue a premium rate quote to an individual within thirty (30) days of receiving a completed application request for the quote shall be required to issue coverage to that individual and shall not impose any pre-existing conditions exclusion on that individual with respect to the coverage. Each health insurer offering individual health insurance coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth that refuses to issue a health benefit plan to an insured with a high-cost condition shall provide the individual with a denial letter within twenty (20) working days of the request for coverage. The letter shall include the name and title of the person making the decision, a statement setting forth the specific high-cost condition that is the basis for refusing to issue a policy, a description of the Guaranteed Acceptance Program, and the name and the telephone number of a contact person who can provide additional information about the Guaranteed Acceptance Program.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An insurer that, on or after July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act, issued standard health benefit plans under KRS 304.17A-160 and then ceased doing business in Kentucky may apply to the commissioner on or after the effective date of this Act for approval to reenter Kentucky and engage in the health insurance business notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110(1)(d) as it existed on the date the insurer ceased doing business in Kentucky.

Section 9. KRS 304.17A-095 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, each insurer that issues, delivers, or renews any health benefit plan shall, before use thereof, file with the commissioner its rates, fees, dues, and other charges paid by insureds, members, enrollees, or subscribers, shall submit a copy of the filing to the Attorney General, and shall comply with the provisions of this section. The insurer shall adhere to its rates, fees, dues, and other charges as filed with the commissioner. The insurer may submit new filings from time to time as it deems proper[~~, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section~~].

(2) (a) A rate filing under this section may be used by the insurer on and after the date of filing with the commissioner prior to approval by the commissioner. A rate filing must be approved or diapproved by the commissioner within sixty (60) days after the date of filing. Should sixty (60) days expire after the commissioner receives the filing before approval or disapproval of the filing, the filing shall be deemed approved. The commissioner may hold a hearing within sixty (60) days after receiving a filing containing a rate increase. Not less than thirty (30) days in advance of a hearing held under this section, the commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearings. The Attorney General may participate as a health insurance consumer intervenor and be considered a party to the hearing.

(b) The commissioner shall hold a hearing upon written request, including the reasons for the request, by the Attorney General, provided the request is in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(c) The commissioner shall hold a hearing, unless waived by the health insurer, before ordering a retroactive reduction of rates.

(d) The hearing shall be a public hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(e) In the circumstances of a filing that has been deemed approved under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the commissioner shall have the authority to order a retroactive reduction of rates to a reasonable rate if after applying the factors in subsection (3) of this section the commissioner determines that the rates were unreasonable. If the commissioner seeks to order a retroactive reduction of rates and more than one (1) year has passed since the date of the filing, the commissioner shall consider the reasonableness of the rate over the entire period during which the filing has been in effect.[~~Each filing under this section shall be on file for a waiting period of thirty (30) days before it becomes effective. The period may be extended by the commissioner for an additional period not to exceed thirty (30) days if the commissioner gives notice within the waiting period to the insurer that it needs the additional time for consideration of the filing. At the end of the thirty (30) day period, or any additional period if extended by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection, the filing shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been disapproved by order of the commissioner or the commissioner has directed that a hearing be held.~~

~~(b) The commissioner may hold a hearing, without request by others, within thirty (30) days after receiving a filing under this subtitle, or during an additional thirty (30) day period, and shall issue an order approving or disapproving the filing within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the hearing.~~

~~(c) If the filing contains an average premium rate increase which will result in a percentage increase over the insurer's average existing rates that is greater than the percentage change in the medical care consumer price index for all urban consumers for the South region as published by the federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, plus three percent (3%), since the last filing of the insurer for any of the same policies or contracts, the commissioner shall hold a hearing, without request by others, within thirty (30) days after receiving a filing under this subtitle, or during an additional thirty (30) day period, and shall issue an order approving or disapproving the filing within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the hearing.~~]

(3) In approving or disapproving a filing under this section, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) Whether the benefits provided are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(b) Whether the fees paid to providers for the covered services are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(c) Previous premium rates or fees for the policies or contracts to which the filing applies;

(d) The effect of the rate or rate increase on policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers;

(e) Whether the rates, fees, dues, or other charges are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory; and

(f) The effect on the rates of any assessment made under Section 21 of this Act; and

(g) Other factors as deemed relevant by the commissioner.

(4) The rates for each policyholder shall be guaranteed for twelve (12) months at the rate in effect on the date of issue or date of renewal[~~Not less than ten (10) days in advance of a hearing held under this section, the commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearing. The Attorney General shall participate as a health insurance consumer intervenor and be considered a party to the hearing~~].

(5)[~~No insurer receiving the commissioner's approval of a filing under this section shall submit a new filing containing a rate or fee increase for any of the same policies or contracts until at least twelve (12) months have elapsed following the effective date of the approved increase.~~

~~(6)~~] At any time the commissioner, after a public hearing for which at least thirty (30) days' notice has been given, may withdraw approval of rates or fees previously approved under this section and may order an appropriate refund or future premium credit to policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers if the commissioner determines that the rates or fees previously approved are in violation of this chapter[~~benefits are no longer reasonable in relation to the premiums or fees charged~~].

(6) Each insurer paying a risk assessment under Section 21 of this Act may include the amount of the assessment in establishing premium rates filed with the commissioner under this section. The insurer shall identify any assessment allocated.

(7) The commissioner may by administrative regulation prescribe any additional information related to rates, fees, dues, and other charges as they relate to the factors set out in subsection (3) of this section that it deems necessary and relevant to be included in the filings and the form of the filings required by this section.

[~~(8) Because of the duties of the commissioner imposed under KRS 304.17A-090, the commissioner may, between July 15, 1996, and December 31, 1996, in addition to the thirty (30) day extension allowed under subsection (2) of this section, further extend the waiting period and the time for holding a hearing up to two (2) additional thirty (30) day periods upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the insurer of each extension that the additional periods are necessary due to proper fulfillment of the commissioner's duties under KRS 304.17A-090.~~]

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Premium rates for a health benefit plan issued or renewed to an individual, a small group, or an association on or after the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) The premium rates charged during a rating period to an individual with similar case characteristics for the same coverage, or the rates that could be charged to that individual under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from the index rate by more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the index rate.

(2) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to an individual for a new rating period shall not exceed the sum of the following:

- (a) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the insurer is not issuing new policies, the insurer shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;
- (b) Any adjustment, not to exceed ten percent (10%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one (1) year, due to the claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the individual and dependents as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business; and
- (c) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the individual as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, at renewal the insurer may replace modified community rates with rates determined in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

(b) Within the limitations set out in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the premium rate for health benefit plans issued to high-risk individuals under modified community rating who at the time of issue had a high-cost condition during the period from July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act for a new rating period:

1. Shall not be increased by more than twenty-five percent (25%) on either of the first two (2) renewal dates after the effective date of this Act. The total increase shall not exceed a maximum of thirty-five percent (35%) of the index rate. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the program established under Section 15 of this Act shall reimburse the insurer for any premium loss incurred under this subsection to the extent that funds are available. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the premium loss incurred for each policy renewal period shall be determined as being the premium necessary to provide for the excess claims costs of the high-risk individuals. The excess claims costs equals the excess of the average claims costs for high-risk individuals, less the average claims cost of all other individuals with health benefit plans issued during the period from July 15, 1995, until the effective date of this Act, multiplied by the number of high-risk individuals;

2. May be increased without restriction to the applicable rate as determined by the insurer's rate manual on the third renewal date after the effective date of this Act; and

3. Shall be subject to subsection (2) of this section on the fourth renewal date after the effective date of this Act and thereafter.

(4) The premium rates charged during a rating period to a small group or to an association member with similar case characteristics for the same coverage, or the rates that could be charged to that small group or that association member under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from the index rate by more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the index rate.

(5) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small group or to an association member for a new rating period shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(a) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the insurer is not issuing new policies, the insurer shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;

(b) Any adjustment, not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one (1) year, due to the claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the employee, association member, or dependents as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business; and

(c) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the small group or association member as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business.

(6) In utilizing case characteristics, the ratio of the highest rate factor to the lowest rate factor within a class of business shall not exceed five to one (5:1). For purpose of this limitation, case characteristics include age, gender, occupation or industry, and geographic area.

(7) Adjustments in rates for claims experience, health status, and duration of coverage shall not be charged to an individual group member or the member's dependents. Any adjustment shall be applied uniformly to the rates charged for all individuals and dependents of the small group.

(8) The commissioner may approve establishment of additional classes of business upon application to the commissioner and a finding by the commissioner that the additional class would enhance the efficiency and fairness for the applicable market segment.

(a) The index rate for a rating period for any class of business shall not exceed the index rate for any other class of business in that market segment by more than ten percent (10%).

(b) An insurer may establish a separate class of business only to reflect substantial differences in expected claims experience or administrative cost related to the following reasons:

1. The insurer uses more than one (1) type of system for the marketing and sale of the health benefit plans; or

2. The insurer has acquired a class of business from another insurer.

(9) For the purpose of this section, a health benefit plan that utilizes a restricted provider network shall not be considered similar coverage to a health benefit plan that does not utilize a restricted provider network if utilization of the restricted provider network results in substantial differences in claims costs.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an insurer shall not be required to utilize the experience of those individuals with high-cost conditions who enrolled in its plans between July 15, 1995 and the effective date of this Act to develop the insurer's index rate for its individual policies.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent an insurer from offering incentives to participate in a program of disease prevention or health improvement.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Base premium rate" has the meaning provided in Section 1 of this Act;

(b) "Employer" means a person engaged in a trade or business who has two (2) or more employees within the state in each of twenty (20) or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year;

(c) "Employer-organized association" means any of the following:

1. Any entity which was qualified by the commissioner as an eligible association prior to the effective date of this Act, and which has actively marketed a health insurance program to its members after September 8, 1996, and which is not insurer-controlled;

2. An entity organized under KRS 247.240 to 247.370 that has actively marketed health insurance to its members and which is not insurer-controlled; or

3. Any entity which is a bona fide association as defined in 42 U.S.C. sec. 300gg-91(d)(3), whose members consist principally of employers, and for which the entity's health insurance decisions are made by a board or committee the majority of which are representatives of employer members of the entity who obtain group health insurance coverage through the entity or through a trust or other mechanism established by the entity, and whose health insurance decisions are reflected in written minutes or other written documentation;

(d) "Index rate" has the meaning provided in Section 1 of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the amount or rate of premiums for an employer-organized association health plan may be determined, subject to the restrictions of subsection (3) of this section, based upon the experience or projected experience of the employer-organized associations whose employers obtain group coverage under the plan. Without the written consent of the employer-organized association filed with the commissioner, the index rate for the employer-organized association shall be calculated solely with respect to that employer-organized association and shall not be tied to, linked to, or otherwise adversely affected by any other index rate used by the issuing insurer.

(3) The following restrictions shall be applied in calculating the permissible amount or rate of premiums for an employer-organized health insurance plan:

(a) The premium rates charged during a rating period to members of the employer-organized association with similar characteristics for the same or similar coverage, or the premium rates that could be charged to a member of the employer-organized association under the rating system for that class of business, shall not vary from its own index rate by more than twenty-five percent (25%) of its own index rate.

(b) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to an employer member of an employer-organized association for a new rating period may not exceed the sum of the following:

1. The percentage change in the new business premium rate for the employer-organized association measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period;

2. Any adjustment, not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) annually and adjusted pro rata for rating period of less than one (1) year, due to the claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the member as determined from the insurer's rate manual; and

3. Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the member as determined by the insurer's rate manual.

(4) In utilizing case characteristics, the ratio of the highest rate factor to the lowest rate factor within a class of business shall not exceed five to one (5:1). For purpose of this limitation, case characteristics include age, gender, occupation or industry, and geographic area.

(5) For the purpose of this section, a health insurance contract that utilizes a restricted provider network shall not be considered similar coverage to a health insurance contract that does not utilize a restricted provider network if utilization of the restricted provider network result in measurable differences in claims costs.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The Kentucky Health Purchasing Alliance created under this subtitle shall not issue or renew any business after the effective date of this Act. The commissioner shall take necessary and appropriate actions to terminate all activities of the alliance no later than June 30, 1999, and shall provide assistance to persons who are members of the alliance in obtaining health insurance coverage in the private market. KRS 304.17A-010 to 304.17A-070 shall become null and void on July 1, 1999.

(2) No health benefit plans shall be issued, delivered, or renewed under the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110, 304.17A-120, and 304.17A-160 on or after the effective date of this Act. Health benefit plans in effect on the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110, 304.17A-120, and 304.17A-160 until the end of the contract or policy period. The provisions of KRS 304.17A-110, 304.17A-120, and 304.17A-160 shall become null and void on July 1, 1999.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A health insurer shall not discriminate against any provider who is located within the geographic coverage area of the health benefit plan and who is willing to meet the terms and conditions for participation established by the health insurer.

SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The commissioner may, by administrative regulation, add to the list of high-cost conditions provided in Section 1 of this Act other high-cost conditions based on diagnosis and severity. At the request of an insurer, the commissioner shall hold a hearing to determine whether or not a condition should be listed.

SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Sections 15 to 23 of this Act shall be referred to as the Kentucky Guaranteed Acceptance Program.

(2) The Kentucky Guaranteed Acceptance Program is designed for the purpose of implementing an acceptable alternative mechanism within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. sec. 300gg-44(a)(1) so that Kentucky may preserve the flexibility over the regulation of health insurance coverage allowed by federal law.

(3) Payment to providers of services under program plans shall not be discriminatory. Guaranteed acceptance program insurers shall reimburse providers at rates that are no less favorable than the rates paid to the comparable providers for services delivered to enrollees who do not have a high-cost condition.

(4) All insurers, reinsurers, and self-insured employer-controlled or bona fide associations, as a condition of doing business in Kentucky, shall participate in the Kentucky Guaranteed Acceptance Program either as a guaranteed acceptance program supporting insurer or a guaranteed acceptance program participating insurer.

(a) A guaranteed acceptance program insurer participates in the program by both issuing guaranteed acceptance program plans to guaranteed acceptance program qualified individuals in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle and by being subject to assessments and payments through the risk assessment process.

(b) A guaranteed acceptance program supporting insurer participates in the program only by being subject to assessments and payments through the program risk assessment process.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in Sections 15 to 23 of this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Actual guaranteed acceptance program plan losses" means a dollar amount calculated by subtracting an insurer's guaranteed acceptance program plan claims from that insurer's guaranteed acceptance program plan premiums;

(2) On or before July 1, 1998, each insurer issuing health benefit plans in Kentucky, other than the insurers required by subsection (1) of this section to be a program participating insurer, shall advise the commissioner in writing whether it will participate in the program as a program participating insurer or a program supporting insurer. After July 1, 1998, no insurer shall issue health benefit plans in Kentucky without first advising the commissioner in writing that it will participate in the program as a program participating insurer or a program supporting insurer. Any insurer issuing health benefit plans in Kentucky that fails to advise the commissioner of the nature of its participation in the program shall be deemed a program supporting insurer unless it is required by subsection (1) of this section to be a program participating insurer.

(3) An insurer who elects to be a program participating insurer may elect to participate under the following conditions:

(a) Network-based insurers may limit coverage to the benefit plans offered to persons residing in the geographic area covered by the providers network; and

(b) A group insurer may elect to be a program participating insurer without otherwise operating in the individual market.

(4) The department shall publicize a monthly list of program participating insurers.

(5) The provisions of Sections 15 to 23 of this Act shall not apply to an insurer that provides coverage solely to Medicaid recipients, Medicare beneficiaries, or CHAMPUS insureds.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A health benefit plan shall be considered a program plan and is eligible for inclusion in calculating assessments and refunds under the program risk adjustment process if it meets all of the following criteria:

(a) The health benefit plan was purchased by an individual to provide benefits for only one (1) or more of the following: the individual, the individual's spouse, or the individual's children. Health insurance coverage provided to an individual in the group market or otherwise in connection with a group health plan does not satisfy this criteria even if the individual, or the individual's spouse or parent, pays some or all of the cost of the coverage unless the coverage is offered in connection with a group health plan that has fewer than two (2) participants as current employees on the first day of the plan year;

(b) An individual entitled to benefits under the health benefit plan either within the previous three (3) years has been diagnosed with or treated for a high-cost condition for which benefits are payable under the health benefit plan and the insurer is aware of the diagnosis or treatment or has had benefits paid under the health benefit plan for a high-cost condition;

(c) The health benefit plan imposes the maximum pre-existing condition exclusion permitted under Section 2 of this Act;

(d) The individual purchasing the health benefit plan is not eligible for or covered by other coverage; and

(e) The individual is not a state employee eligible for or covered by the state employee health insurance plan under KRS Chapter 18A.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, if the total claims paid for the high-cost condition under a program plan for any three (3) consecutive years are less than the premiums paid under the program plan for those three (3) consecutive years, then the following shall occur:

(a) The policy shall not be considered to be a program plan thereafter until the first renewal of the policy after there are three (3) consecutive years in which the total claims paid under the policy have exceeded the total premiums paid for the policy and at the time of the renewal the policy also qualifies under subsection (1) as a program plan; and

(b) Within the last six (6) months of the third year, the insurer shall provide each person entitled to benefits under the policy who has a high-cost condition with a written notice of insurability. The notice shall state that the recipient may be able to purchase a health benefit plan other than a program plan and shall also state that neither the notice nor the individual's actions to purchase a health benefit plan other that program plan shall affect the individual's eligibility for plan coverage. The notice shall be valid for six (6) months.

SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

For a health benefit plan that is a program plan at the time of first issuance, an insurer may charge an annual premium of up to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the index rate charged to a person of identical or similar case characteristics but assuming no individual entitled to benefits under the health benefit plan had been diagnosed or treated with a high-cost condition for which benefits are payable under the policy.

SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, program plans may contain cost containment features, including managed care and utilization management, to control the amount of high-cost policy losses without creating excessive adverse health care outcomes.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(c) The total amount of program plan claims paid by all reporting insurers;

(d) The amount of total actual program plan losses;

(4) The department may conduct such examinations of insurers participating in the plan as is reasonably necessary to determine if the information provided by the insurers is accurate. At the request of the department, the department shall conduct the examinations.

SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The department shall establish a risk adjustment process to be used in collecting and distributing funds from all insurers doing health insurance business in Kentucky for the purpose of allocating program plan losses among such insurers.

(2) As part of the risk adjustment process, the department shall establish and maintain a program account. All funds in the program account shall be held at interest, in a single depository designated in accordance with KRS 304.8-090(1) under a written trust agreement in accordance with KRS 304.8-095. All expense and revenue transactions of the fund shall be posted to the state accounting and reporting system (STARS) and its successors.

(3) The program account shall be funded from the following sources:

(b) All premium taxes collected under KRS Chapter 136 from any insurer, and any retaliatory taxes collected under KRS 304.3-270 from any insurer, for accident and health premiums that are in excess of the amount of the premium taxes and retaliatory taxes collected for the calendar year 1997;

(c) Annual assessments from each reinsurer in an amount which is equal to two dollars ($2) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of reinsurance premiums;

(d) An assessment for each fiscal year on the total amount of all health benefit plan premiums written during the prior fiscal year and paid by all insurers who received any of the health benefit plan premiums on which the assessment is based. The first assessment shall be for the fiscal year of July 1, 1998, to June 30, 1999, shall be based on the amount of health benefit plan premiums written during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998, and the total amount of the assessment against all insurers shall equal seven million eight hundred thousand dollars ($7,800,000). The percentage rate used to determine the 1998-1999 assessment shall be the maximum percentage that may be used to determine the assessment in any subsequent fiscal year. Assessments in any subsequent fiscal year shall be paid on or before the last day of the fiscal year, and the first assessment shall be paid on or before June 30, 1999;

(e) Any special assessments under subsection 4(b) of this section;

(a) If the amount of total actual program plan losses is less than the amount in the program account, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to the amount of its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account.

(b) If the amount of total actual program plan losses is more than the amount in the program account, then the difference shall be considered a program account deficit, and there shall be a second assessment, in addition to the assessment under subsection 3(d) of this section, on all insurers who received any of the health benefit plan premiums on which the assessment under subsection 3(d) is based. The second assessment shall also be a percentage of the health benefit plan premiums except for the following limitations:

1. The percentage rate may not exceed the percentage rate used to determine the 1998-1999 assessment, and

2. The total amount generated from the additional assessment may not exceed the lesser of the program account deficit or seven million eight hundred thousand dollars ($7,800,000). If the second assessment fully eliminates the program account deficit, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to the amount of its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account. If the second assessment does not fully eliminate the program account deficit, each insurer shall be reimbursed up to its proportional share of program plan losses from the program account in the same proportion that the insurer's program plan losses bears to the total program plan losses of all insurers.

(5) With respect to an insurer who reasonably will be expected to both pay assessments and receive payments from the program account, the department shall calculate the net amount owed to or to be received from the program account, and the department shall only collect assessment or make payments from the program account based upon net amounts.

(6) Insurers paying an assessment may include in any health insurance rate filing that amount of such assessments as provided in Section 21 of this Act.

(7) Any surpluses remaining in the program account after completion of the risk adjustment process for a fiscal year shall be maintained for use in the risk adjustment process for future fiscal years and such funds shall not lapse. The General Fund appropriations to the program account shall not lapse.

The report shall contain an evaluation of the program, an evaluation of issues concerning individuals with high-cost conditions, and recommendations for establishing alternative means of providing health benefit plans for those individuals in addition to, or as an alternative to, the risk adjustment mechanism of the program. In order to determine the effectiveness of the program in providing access and affordable insurance to individuals with high-cost conditions and in readjusting the risks of providing health benefit plans to such individuals, the department shall determine:

- (a) The number of individuals with high-cost conditions;

HCR 14, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION creating the Tobacco Program Issues Group.

WHEREAS, the federal tobacco price support program is an effective, very low cost, government program that enables Kentucky's small farm operators to remain economically stable and self-sustaining; and

WHEREAS, an informal survey conducted in 1994 revealed that over 50% of tobacco experts believe there is a "moderate" to "high" probability that the federal tobacco price support program will be abolished within 10 years; and

WHEREAS, there is now before the U. S. Senate a proposal to end the federal tobacco price support program which has been introduced, in part, as a response to the Attorneys General/Tobacco Industry Settlement, Proposed Resolution of June 20, 1997; and

WHEREAS, persuasive arguments may be made that the movement to end the program is not based upon any shortcomings of the program but rather is based partly upon a desire to disrupt the market for tobacco in the belief that the disruption will accomplish through indirect action what has not been achieved through direct action – to persuade individuals to end their use of tobacco products; and

WHEREAS, ending the tobacco price support program for this reason unfairly penalizes small farmers because it is estimated that more than 50% will no longer be able to grow tobacco without the price support program, yet many small farmers will not have the opportunity to replace that income in many areas of the state, and most notably in eastern Kentucky, where off-farm jobs are not widely available; and

WHEREAS, ending tobacco price supports for this reason also places 38 Kentucky counties at severe economic risk, because they are particularly dependent on the growing of tobacco for economic stability due to high unemployment in those counties; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky must protect against the economic disruption that would follow from an end to the federal tobacco price support program and prepare to substitute an equally effective program to provide tobacco price stability to small farmers and the communities in which they live;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The Legislative Research Commission is directed to create a Tobacco Program Issues Group. The group shall develop a strategy for the state to enter into a tobacco price support program with other tobacco producing states. The strategy shall include but not be limited to: structuring a states' program similar to the federal program; determining the legal requirements for establishing a states' tobacco price support program; and preparing the initial steps that Kentucky may need to take to enter into a states' program.

Section 2. The Tobacco Program Issues Group shall have fifteen (15) members which shall include five (5) legislative members, three (3) chosen from the House of Representatives and two (2) from the Senate and one (1) member from each of the following: the Kentucky Farm Bureau, the Community Farm Alliance, the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, the Council for Burley Tobacco, the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, Ag Project 2000, the Governor's Office, the Department of Agriculture, and the Economic Development Cabinet.

Section 3. Co-chairs shall be appointed by the Legislative Research Commission from the legislative members of the group.

Section 4. The Tobacco Program Issues Group shall report to the LRC no later than September 15, 1999. In the event that the U. S. Congress moves to end the federal tobacco price support program before the report is due, the group shall immediately advise the Legislative Research Commission and the Governor's Office on the steps to take to best protect the interests of the state and the state's tobacco producers.

Section 5. Staff services to be utilized in completing this study are estimated to cost twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). These staff services shall be provided from the regular Commission budget and are subject to the limitations and other research responsibilities of the Commission.

The Committee on Committees assigned Rep. Miller to the following Standing Committees: Education, Licensing and Occupations, and Counties and Special Districts.

If, following the execution of an advance directive under KRS 311.623, a court of the grantor's principal domicile appoints a fiduciary charged with the care and protection of the grantor's person, the fiduciary shall be bound by the terms of the grantor's advance directive. If the advance directive designates a surrogate to make health care decisions for the grantor, the surrogate may continue to act.

Section 2. KRS 386.093 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "durable power of attorney" means a power of attorney by which a principal designates another as the principal's attorney in fact in writing and the writing contains the words, "This power of attorney shall not be affected by subsequent disability or incapacity of the principal, or lapse of time", or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability or incapacity of the principal", or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's subsequent disability or incapacity, and, unless it states a time of termination, notwithstanding the lapse of time since the execution of the instrument.

(2) All acts done by an attorney in fact under a durable power of attorney during any period of disability or incapacity of the principal have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal and the principal's successors in interest as if the principal were competent and not disabled. Unless the instrument states a time of termination, the power is exercisable notwithstanding the lapse of time since the execution of the instrument.

(3) If, following execution of a durable power of attorney, a court of the principal's domicile appoints a fiduciary charged with the management of all of the principal's property or all of the principal's property except specified exclusions, the attorney in fact is accountable to the fiduciary as well as to the principal. The fiduciary has the same power to revoke or amend the power of attorney that the principal would have had if the principal were not disabled or incapacitated.

(4) A principal may nominate, by a durable power of attorney, a limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator, or conservator for consideration by the court if a fiduciary is to be appointed under KRS 387.500 to 387.770 and KRS 387.990.

(5) The death of a principal who has executed a written power of attorney, durable or otherwise, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact or other person, who, without actual knowledge of the death of the principal, acts in good faith under the power. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds successors in interest of the principal.

(6) The disability or incapacity of the principal who has previously executed a written power of attorney that is not a durable power does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact or other person, who, without actual knowledge of the disability or incapacity of the principal, acts in good faith under the power. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the principal's successors in interest.

(7) If the power of attorney is to become effective upon the disability or incapacity of the principal, the principal may specify the conditions under which the power is to become effective and may designate the person, persons, or institution responsible for making the determination of disability or incapacity. If the principal fails to so specify, the power shall become effective upon a written determination by two (2) physicians that the principal is unable, by reason of physical or mental disability, to prudently manage or care for the principal's person or property, which written determination shall be conclusive proof of the attorney in fact's power to act pursuant to the power of attorney. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent, pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive, have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his heirs, devisees and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent and not disabled. The court shall appoint the person or entity best qualified and willing to serve.

(2) A certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purporting to be issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred shall be prima facie evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

(3) A certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that an individual is missing, detained, dead, or alive shall be prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report.

(4) In the absence of prima facie evidence of death under subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the fact of death shall be established by clear and convincing evidence, including circumstantial evidence.

(5) An individual whose death is not established under subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section and who is absent for a continuous period of seven (7) years, during which the individual has not been heard from, and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search or inquiry, shall be presumed dead. His or her death shall be presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is sufficient evidence for determining that death occurred earlier.

(6) In the absence of evidence disputing the time of death stipulated on a document described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section, a document described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section that stipulates a time of death one hundred and twenty (120) hours or more after the time of death of another individual, however the time of death of the other individual is determined, establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the individual survived the other individual by one hundred and twenty (120) hours.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 397 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Survival by one hundred and twenty (120) hours is not required if:

(1) The governing instrument contains language dealing explicitly with simultaneous deaths or deaths in a common disaster and that language is operable under the facts of the case;

(2) The governing instrument expressly indicates that an individual is not required to survive an event, including the death of another individual, by any specified period or expressly requires the individual to survive the event for a stated period, but survival of the event or the specified period shall be established by clear and convincing evidence;

(3) The imposition of a one hundred and twenty (120) hour requirement of survival would cause a nonvested property interest or a power of appointment to be invalid under the Rule Against Perpetuities, but survival shall be established by clear and convincing evidence; or

(4) The application of a one hundred and twenty (120) hour requirement to multiple governing instruments would result in an unintentional failure or duplication of a disposition, but survival shall be established by clear and convincing evidence.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 397 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) (a) A payor or other third party shall not be liable for having made a payment or transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument who, under this chapter, is not entitled to the payment or item of property, or for having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the beneficiary's apparent entitlement under the terms of the governing instrument, before the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this chapter. A payor or other third party shall be liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this chapter.

(b) Written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this chapter, a payor or other third party shall pay any amount owed, or transfer or deposit any item of property held by it, to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings related to the decedent's estate, or if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate located in the county of the decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its determination under this chapter, shall order disbursement in accordance with the determination. Payments, transfers, or deposits made to or with the court shall discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with the court.

(2) A person who purchases property for value and without notice, or who receives a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, shall not be obligated under this chapter to return the payment, item of property, or benefit and shall not be liable under this chapter for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit. But a person who, not for value, receives a payment, item of property, or any other benefit to which the person is not entitled under this chapter shall be obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit or shall be personally liable for the amount of the payment of the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who is entitled to it under this chapter.

(3) If this chapter, or any part of this chapter, is preempted by federal law with respect to a payment, an item of property, or any other benefit covered by this chapter, a person who, not for value, receives the payment, item of property, or any other benefit to which the person is not entitled under this chapter shall be obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit or shall be personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who would have been entitled to it were this chapter, or part of this chapter, not preempted.

This chapter shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 397 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act (1991).

(a) Established during the testator's lifetime by the testator, by the testator and one (1) or more other persons, or by one (1) or more other persons, including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although one (1) or more persons other than the trustee have reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts; or

(b) Established at the testator's death by the testator's transfer to the trustee, if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument, other than a will, executed before, concurrently with, or after the execution of the testator's will or in another individual's will if that other individual has predeceased the testator, regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust.

(2) A transfer referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or the testator's death.

(3) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, property transferred to a trust in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall not be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become a part of the trust to which it is transferred. The property shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the governing instrument setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments to it made before or after the testator's death.

(4) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, a revocation or termination of the trust before the testator's death shall cause the devise or bequest to lapse.

(5) This section shall be effective for any devise or bequest made by wills of decedents dying on or after the effective date of this Act.

(6) This section shall be construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it.

(7) This section may be cited as the Uniform Testamentary Additions to Trusts Act.

(8) "Registering entity" means a person who originates or transfers a security title by registration, and includes a broker maintaining security accounts for customers and a transfer agent or other person acting for or as an issuer of securities.

(11) "State" includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory or possession subject to the legislative authority of the United States.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Only individuals whose registration of a security shows sole ownership by one (1) individual or multiple ownership by two (2) or more with right of survivorship, rather than as tenants in common, may obtain registration in beneficiary form. Multiple owners of a security registered in beneficiary form hold as joint tenants with right of survivorship, as tenants by the entireties, or as owners of community property held in survivorship form, and not as tenants in common.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A security may be registered in beneficiary form if the form is authorized by this or a similar statute of the state of organization of the issuer or registering entity, the location of the registering entity's principal office, the office of its transfer agent, or its office making registration, or by this or a similar statute of the law of the state listed as the owner's address at the time of the registration. A registration governed by the law of a jurisdiction in which this or similar legislation is not in force or was not in force when a registration in beneficiary form was made is nevertheless presumed to be valid and authorized as a matter of contract law.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A security, whether evidenced by certificate or account, is registered in beneficiary form when the registration includes a designation of a beneficiary to take the ownership at the death of the owner or the deaths of all multiple owners.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Registration in beneficiary form may be shown by the words "transfer on death" or the abbreviation "TOD," or by the words "pay on death" or the abbreviation "POD," after the name of the registered owner and before the name of a beneficiary.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The designation of a TOD beneficiary on a registration in beneficiary form has no effect on ownership until the owner's death. A registration of a security in beneficiary form may be canceled or changed at any time by the sole owner or all then-surviving owners without the consent of the beneficiary.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

On death of a sole owner or the last to die of all multiple owners, ownership of securities registered in beneficiary form passes to the beneficiary or beneficiaries who survive all owners. On proof of death of all owners and compliance with any applicable requirements of the registering entity, a security registered in beneficiary form may be reregistered in the name of the beneficiary or beneficiaries who survived the death of all owners. Until division of the security after the death of all owners, multiple beneficiaries surviving the death of all owners hold their interests as tenants in common. If no beneficiary survives the death of all owners, the security belongs to the estate of the deceased sole owner or the estate of the last to die of all multiple owners.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A registering entity is not required to offer or to accept a request for security registration in beneficiary form. If a registration in beneficiary form is offered by a registering entity, the owner requesting registration in beneficiary form assents to the protections given to the registering entity by Sections 1 to 12 of this Act.

(2) By accepting a request for registration of a security in beneficiary form, the registering entity agrees that the registration will be implemented on death of the deceased owner as provided in Sections 1 to 12 of this Act.

(3) A registering entity is discharged from all claims to a security by the estate, creditors, heirs, or devisees of a deceased owner if it registers a transfer of the security in accordance with Section 7 of this Act and does so in good faith reliance:

   (a) On the registration;

   (b) On Sections 1 to 12 of this Act; and

   (c) On information provided to it by affidavit of the personal representative of the deceased owner, or by the surviving beneficiary or by the surviving beneficiary's representatives, or other information available to the registering entity.

The protections of Sections 1 to 12 of this Act do not extend to a reregistration or payment made after a registering entity has received written notice from any claimant to any interest in the security objecting to implementation of a registration in beneficiary form. No other notice or other information available to the registering entity affects its right to protection under Sections 1 to 12 of this Act.

(4) The protection provided by Sections 1 to 12 of this Act to the registering entity of a security does not affect the rights of the beneficiaries in disputes between themselves and other claimants to ownership of the security transferred or its value or proceeds.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A transfer on death resulting from a registration in beneficiary form is effective by reason of the contract regarding the registration between the owner and the registering entity and Sections 1 to 12 of this Act and is not testamentary.

(2) Sections 1 to 12 of this Act does not limit the rights of creditors of security owners against beneficiaries and other transferees under other laws of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A registering entity offering to accept registrations in beneficiary form may establish the terms and conditions under which it will receive requests for registrations in beneficiary form, and for implementation of registrations in beneficiary form, including requests for cancellation of previously-registered TOD beneficiary designations and requests for reregistration to effect a change of beneficiary. The terms and conditions so established may provide for proving death, avoiding or resolving any problems concerning fractional shares, designating primary and contingent beneficiaries, and substituting a named beneficiary's descendants to take in the place of a named beneficiary in the event of the beneficiary's death. Substitution may be indicated by appending to the name of the primary beneficiary the letters LDPS, standing for "lineal descendants per stirpes." This designation substitutes a deceased beneficiary's descendants who survive the owner for a beneficiary who fails to so survive, the descendants to be identified and to share in accordance with the law of the beneficiary's domicile at the owner's death governing inheritance by descendants of an intestate. Other forms of identifying beneficiaries who are to take on one (1) or more contingencies, and rules for providing proofs and assurances needed to satisfy reasonable concerns by registering entities regarding conditions and identities relevant to accurate implementation of registrations in beneficiary form, may be contained in a registering entity's terms and conditions.

(2) The following are illustrations of registrations in beneficiary form which a registering entity may authorize:

(a) Sole owner-sole beneficiary: John S Brown TOD (or POD) John S Brown Jr.;

(b) Multiple owners-sole beneficiary: John S Brown Mary B Brown JT TEN TOD John S Brown Jr.; and

(c) Multiple owners-primary and secondary (substituted) beneficiaries: John S Brown Mary B Brown JT TEN TOD John S Brown Jr SUB BENE Peter Q Brown; or John S Brown Mary B Brown JT TEN TOD John S Brown Jr LDPS.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Sections 1 to 12 of this Act shall be known as and may be cited as the Uniform TOD Security Registration Act.

(2) Sections 1 to 12 of this Act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policy and to make the uniform the laws with respect to the subject of Sections 1 to 12 of this Act among states enacting it.

(3) Unless displaced by the particular provisions of Sections 1 to 12 of this Act, the principles of law and equity supplement its provisions.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 292 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Upon receipt of a report alleging abuse or neglect by a parent, guardian, or person exercising custodial control or supervision, pursuant to KRS 620.030(1) or (2), the recipient of the report shall forthwith notify the cabinet or its designated representative, the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky State Police, and the Commonwealth's or county attorney of the receipt of the report unless they are the reporting source. The cabinet shall investigate the matter immediately and within seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, make a written report to the Commonwealth's or county attorney and the local enforcement agency or Kentucky State Police concerning the action which has been taken on the matter. If the report alleges abuse or neglect by someone other than a parent, guardian, or person exercising custodial control or supervision, the cabinet shall forthwith notify the Commonwealth's or county attorney and the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky State Police.

(2) Upon receipt of a report alleging dependency pursuant to KRS 620.030(1) and (2), the recipient shall forthwith notify the cabinet or its designated representative. The cabinet shall investigate reports of alleged dependency not later than forty-eight (48) hours after receipt of the report but need not notify the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky State Police or county attorney or Commonwealth's attorney of such reports. If the cabinet or its designated representative receives a report of abuse by other than a parent, guardian, or other person exercising custodial control or supervision of a child, it shall forthwith notify the local law enforcement agency or Kentucky State Police and the Commonwealth's or county attorney of the receipt of the report and its contents and they shall investigate the matter. The cabinet or its designated representative may participate in an investigation of noncustodial abuse at the request of the local law enforcement agency or the Kentucky State Police.

(3) School personnel or other persons listed in KRS 620.030(2) do not have the authority to conduct internal investigations in lieu of the official investigations outlined in this section.

(4) (a) If, after receiving the report, the law enforcement officer, the cabinet, or its designated representative cannot gain admission to the location of the child, a search warrant shall be issued by the judge to the appropriate law enforcement official upon probable cause that the child is dependent, neglected, or abused. If, pursuant to a search under a warrant a child is discovered and appears to be in imminent danger, the child may be removed by the law enforcement officer.

(b) If a child who is in a hospital or under the immediate care of a physician appears to be in imminent danger if he is returned to the persons having custody of him, the physician or hospital administrator may hold the child without court order, provided that a request is made to the court for an emergency custody order at the earliest practicable time, not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours.

(c) Any appropriate law enforcement officer may take a child into protective custody and may hold that child in protective custody without the consent of the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision if there exists reasonable grounds for the officer to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents or other person exercising custodial control or supervision are unable or unwilling to protect the child. The officer or the person to whom the officer entrusts the child shall, within twelve (12) hours of taking the child into protective custody, request the court to issue an emergency custody order.

Failure of the parent or other person to receive notice shall not, by itself, be cause for civil or criminal liability.

(5) (a) One (1) or more multidisciplinary teams may be established in every county or group of contiguous counties.

(b) Membership of the multidisciplinary team shall include, but is not limited to, family service workers employed by the Cabinet for Human Resources and law enforcement officers. The purpose of the multidisciplinary team shall be to review investigations, assess service delivery, and to facilitate efficient and appropriate disposition of cases through the criminal justice system.

(d) The team shall hold regularly scheduled meetings if new reports of sexual abuse are received or if active cases exist. At each meeting, each active case shall be presented and the agencies' responses assessed.

(e) The multidisciplinary team shall provide an annual report to the public of nonidentifying case information to allow assessment of the processing and disposition of child sexual abuse cases.

(f) Multidisciplinary team members, and anyone invited by the multidisciplinary team to participate in a meeting, shall not divulge case information, including information regarding the identity of the victim or source of the report. Team members, and others attending meetings, shall sign a confidentiality statement that is consistent with statutory prohibitions on disclosure of this information.

(h) The multidisciplinary team review of a case may include information from reports generated by agencies, organizations, or individuals that are responsible for investigation, prosecution, or treatment in the case, KRS 610.320 to KRS 610.340 notwithstanding.

(6) Any person found to have abused or neglected a child under this section shall have the right to appeal that finding, and if upon appeal the finding is changed to "unfounded" or "unsubstantiated", the name of the person shall be totally expunged from the child abuse and adult central registry maintained by the cabinet. The right to appeal shall extend to a positive determination made by the cabinet or any predecessor that may have had jurisdiction over the registry since its inception, and shall include any positive determination made before or after the effective date of this Act.

Section 20. KRS 620.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Anyone acting upon reasonable cause in the making of a report or acting under KRS 620.030 to 620.050 in good faith shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. Any such participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report or action.

(2) Neither the husband-wife nor any professional-client/patient privilege, except the attorney-client and clergy-penitent privilege, shall be a ground for refusing to report under this section or for excluding evidence regarding a dependent, neglected, or abused child or the cause thereof, in any judicial proceedings resulting from a report pursuant to this section. This subsection shall also apply in any criminal proceeding in District or Circuit Court regarding a dependent, neglected, or abused child.

(3) Upon receipt of a report of an abused, neglected, or dependent child pursuant to this chapter, the cabinet as the designated agency or its delegated representative shall initiate a prompt investigation, take necessary action, and shall offer protective services toward safeguarding the welfare of the child. The cabinet shall work toward preventing further dependency, neglect, or abuse of the child or any other child under the same care, and preserve and strengthen family life, where possible, by enhancing parental capacity for adequate child care.

(4) All information obtained by the cabinet or its delegated representative, as a result of an investigation made pursuant to this chapter, shall not be divulged to anyone except:

(f) Members of multidisciplinary teams as defined by KRS 620.020 and which operate pursuant to KRS 431.600; or

(g) Those persons so authorized by court order.

(5) As a result of any report of suspected child abuse or neglect, photographs and X-rays or other appropriate medical diagnostic procedures may be taken or caused to be taken, without the consent of the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision of the child, as a part of the medical evaluation or investigation of such reports. Such photographs and X-rays or results of other medical diagnostic procedures may be introduced into evidence in any subsequent judicial proceedings. The person performing the diagnostic procedures or taking such photographs or X-rays shall be immune from criminal or civil liability for having performed the act. Nothing herein shall limit liability for negligence.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, any family member served by the cabinet who believes that his or her civil rights have been violated and the administrative appeals process has been unsatisfactory shall have the opportunity to waive confidentiality requirements of this section and file a grievance with the cabinet which shall be made available to any member of the General Assembly requesting a copy of the grievance.";

(4) The Department of State Police shall deny, suspend, or revoke a license to carry a concealed deadly weapon upon written notice from the Cabinet for Human Resources that the person has a child support arrearage that equals or exceeds the cumulative amount that would be owed after one (1) year of nonpayment, or for failure, after receiving appropriate notice to comply with a subpoena or warrant relating to paternity or child support proceedings.

(5) The application for a permit, or renewal of a permit, to carry a concealed deadly weapon shall be obtained from the office of the sheriff in the county in which the person resides. The completed application and all accompanying material plus an application fee or renewal fee, as appropriate, of sixty dollars ($60) shall be presented to the office of the sheriff of the county in which the applicant resides. A retired peace officer who is a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System, or County Employees Retirement System shall be exempt from paying the application or renewal fees following the date of his retirement. The sheriff shall transmit the application and accompanying material to the Department of State Police within five (5) working days. Twenty dollars ($20) of the application fee shall be retained by the office of the sheriff for official expenses of the office. Twenty dollars ($20) shall be sent to the Department of State Police with the application. Ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted by the sheriff to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for youth leaders, and ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for applicants for concealed weapons. (b) A statement that, to the best of his knowledge, the applicant is in compliance with criteria contained within subsections (2) and (3) of this section;

(c) A statement that the applicant has been furnished a copy of this section and is knowledgeable about its provisions;

(d) A statement that the applicant has been furnished a copy of, has read, and understands KRS Chapter 503 as it pertains to the use of deadly force for self-defense in Kentucky; and

(e) A conspicuous warning that the application is executed under oath and that a materially false answer to any question, or the submission of any materially false document by the applicant, subjects the applicant to criminal prosecution under KRS 523.030.

(6)[~~(5)~~] The applicant, if a resident of the Commonwealth, shall submit to the sheriff of the applicant's county of residence:

(a) A completed application as described in subsection (5)[~~(4)~~] of this section;

(b) A recent color photograph of the applicant, as prescribed by administrative regulation; and

(c) A photocopy of a certificate or an affidavit or document as described in subsection (2)(f) of this section.

(7)[~~(6)~~] The Department of State Police shall, within ninety (90) days after the date of receipt of the items listed in subsection (6)[~~(5)~~] of this section, either:

(a) Issue the license; or

(b) Deny the application based solely on the grounds that the applicant fails to qualify under the criteria listed in subsection (2) or (3) of this section. If the Department of State Police denies the application, it shall notify the applicant in writing, stating the grounds for denial and informing the applicant of a right to submit, within thirty (30) days, any additional documentation relating to the grounds of denial. Upon receiving any additional documentation, the Department of State Police shall reconsider its decision and inform the applicant within twenty (20) days of the result of the reconsideration. The applicant shall further be informed of the right to seek de novo review of the denial in the District Court of his place of residence.

(8)[~~(7)~~] The Department of State Police shall maintain an automated listing of licenseholders and pertinent information, and this information shall be available on-line, upon request, at all times to all Kentucky law enforcement agencies.

Except as provided in this subsection, information on applications for licenses, names and addresses, or other identifying information relating to license holders shall be confidential and shall not be made available except to law enforcement agencies. Requests for information to be provided to any requester other than a bona fide law enforcement agency which has direct access to the Law Enforcement Information Network of Kentucky shall be made, in writing, directly to the commissioner of the Department of State Police, together with the fee required for the providing of the information. The Department of State Police shall, upon proper application and the payment of the required fee, provide to the requester in hard copy form only, a list of names of all holders in the Commonwealth of a license to carry a concealed deadly weapon. No identifying information other than the name shall be provided, and information for geographic areas or other subdivisions of any type from the list shall not be provided and shall be confidential. The fee to be charged shall be the same as for other public records provided by the Department of State Police. No request for lists of local or statewide permit holders shall be made to any state or local law enforcement agency, peace officer, or other agency of government other than the Department of State Police, and no state or local law enforcement agency, peace officer, or agency of government, other than the Department of State Police, shall provide any information not entitled to it by law. The names of all persons, other than law enforcement agencies and peace officers, requesting information under this section shall be a public record.

(9)[~~(8)~~] Within thirty (30) days after the changing of a permanent address, or within thirty (30) days after the loss or destruction of a license, the licensee shall notify the Department of State Police of the loss or destruction. Failure to notify the Department of State Police shall constitute a noncriminal violation with a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) payable to the clerk of the district court.

(10)[~~(9)~~] If a license is lost or destroyed, the license shall be automatically invalid, and the person to whom the same was issued may, upon payment of fifteen dollars ($15) to the Department of State Police, obtain a duplicate, upon furnishing a notarized statement to the Department of State Police that the license has been lost or destroyed.

(11)[~~(10)~~] A license issued under this section shall be suspended or revoked if the licensee becomes ineligible to be issued a license under the criteria set forth in subsection (2)(a), (c), (d), (e), (f), or (h) of this section. When a domestic violence order or emergency protective order is issued pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 403 against a person holding a license issued under this section, the holder of the permit shall surrender the license to the court or to the officer serving the order. The officer to whom the license is surrendered shall forthwith transmit the license to the court issuing the order. The license shall be suspended until the order is terminated, or until the judge who issued the order terminates the suspension prior to the termination of the underlying domestic violence order or emergency protective order, in writing and by return of the license, upon proper motion by the license holder. Subject to the same conditions as above, a peace officer against whom an emergency protective order or domestic violence order has been issued shall not be permitted to carry a concealed deadly weapon when not on duty, the provisions of KRS 527.020 to the contrary notwithstanding.

(12)[~~(11)~~] Not less than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration date of the license, the Department of State Police shall mail to each licensee a written notice of the expiration and a renewal form prescribed by the Department of State Police. The licensee may renew his license on or before the expiration date by filing with the sheriff of his county of residence the renewal form, a notarized affidavit stating that the licensee remains qualified pursuant to the criteria specified in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and the required renewal fee. The license shall be renewed to a qualified applicant upon receipt of the completed renewal application and appropriate payment of fees. A licensee who fails to file a renewal application on or before its expiration date may renew his license by paying, in addition to the license fees, a late fee of fifteen dollars ($15). No license shall be renewed six (6) months or more after its expiration date, and the license shall be deemed to be permanently expired six (6) months after its expiration date. A person whose license has permanently expired may reapply for licensure pursuant to subsections (5), (6), and (7)[~~(4), (5), and (6)~~] of this section.

(13)[~~(12)~~] No license issued pursuant to this section shall authorize any person to carry a concealed firearm into:

(a) Any police station or sheriff's office;

(b) Any detention facility, prison, or jail;

(c) Any courthouse, solely occupied by the Court of Justice courtroom, or court proceeding, except that nothing in this section shall preclude a judge from carrying a concealed weapon;

(d) Any meeting of the governing body of a county, municipality, or special district; or any meeting of the General Assembly or a committee of the General Assembly, except that nothing in this section shall preclude a member of the body, holding a concealed deadly weapon license, from carrying a concealed deadly weapon at a meeting of the body of which he is a member;

(e) Any portion of an establishment licensed to dispense beer or alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, which portion of the establishment is primarily devoted to that purpose;

(f) Any elementary or secondary school facility without the consent of school authorities as provided in KRS 527.070, any child-caring facility as defined in KRS 199.011, any day-care center as defined in KRS 199.894, or any certified family child-care home as defined in KRS 199.8982, except however, any owner of a certified child-care home may carry a concealed firearm into the owner's residence used as a certified child-care home;

(g) An area of an airport to which access is controlled by the inspection of persons and property;

(h) Any church, synagogue, house of worship, or other property owned, leased, or otherwise used and operated by a religious organization in the furtherance of a religious purpose; or

(i) Any place where the carrying of firearms is prohibited by federal law.

(14)[~~(13)~~] The owner, business or commercial lessee, or manager of a private business enterprise, day-care center as defined in KRS 199.894 or certified or licensed family child-care home as defined in KRS 199.8982, or a health-care facility licensed under KRS Chapter 216B, except facilities renting or leasing housing, may prohibit persons holding concealed deadly weapon licenses from carrying concealed deadly weapons on the premises and may prohibit employees, not authorized by the employer, holding concealed deadly weapons licenses from carrying concealed deadly weapons on the property of the employer. If the building or the premises are open to the public, the employer or business enterprise shall post signs on or about the premises if carrying concealed weapons is prohibited. Possession of weapons in a vehicle on the premises shall not be a criminal offense so long as the weapons are not removed from the vehicle or brandished while the vehicle is on the premises. An employer may prohibit employees or other persons holding a concealed deadly weapons license from carrying concealed deadly weapons in vehicles owned by the employer, but may not prohibit employees or other persons holding a concealed deadly weapons license from carrying concealed deadly weapons in vehicles owned by the employee. Carrying of a concealed weapon in a location specified in this subsection by a license holder shall not be a criminal act but may subject the person to denial from the premises or removal from the premises, and, if an employee of an employer, disciplinary measures by the employer.

(15)[~~(14)~~] All moneys collected by the Department of State Police pursuant to this section shall be used to administer the provisions of this section. By March 1 of each year, the Department of State Police and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit reports to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, indicating the amounts of money collected and the expenditures related to this section and KRS 237.115, 244.125, 527.020, and 527.070, and the administration of the provisions of this section and KRS 237.115, 244.125, 527.020, and 527.070.

(16)[~~(15)~~] The General Assembly finds as a matter of public policy that it is necessary to provide statewide uniform standards for issuing licenses to carry concealed firearms and to occupy the field of regulation of the bearing of concealed firearms to ensure that no person who qualifies under the provisions of this section is denied his rights. The General Assembly does not delegate to the Department of State Police the authority to regulate or restrict the issuing of licenses provided for in this section beyond those provisions contained in this section. This section shall be liberally construed to carry out the constitutional right to bear arms for self-defense.

(17)[~~(16)~~] (a) A person who has a valid license issued by another state of the United States to carry a concealed deadly weapon in that state and whose state grants to Kentucky residents the right to carry a concealed deadly weapon in the state of the licensee without requiring a separate license to carry a concealed deadly weapon issued by that state, may, subject to provisions of Kentucky law, carry a concealed deadly weapon in Kentucky, and his license shall be considered as valid in Kentucky.

(b) A person who holds a valid license issued by another state of the United States whose home state permits Kentucky residents to obtain a license to carry a concealed deadly weapon in that state may apply directly to the Department of State Police for a license to carry concealed deadly weapons in Kentucky. The Department of State Police shall take whatever steps are necessary to verify that the person applying has a valid license to carry a concealed deadly weapon issued by his home state.

(18)[~~(17)~~] By March 1 of each year, the Department of State Police shall submit a statistical report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, indicating the number of licenses issued, revoked, suspended, and denied since the previous report and in total and also the number of licenses currently valid. The report shall also include the number of arrests, convictions, and types of crimes committed since the previous report by individuals licensed to carry concealed weapons.

Section 17. KRS 403.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal court of any county may, by resolution, authorize the appointment of a "friend of the court." If the Circuit Court of the county has but one (1) judge, the appointment shall be made by the judge. If the court has two (2) or more judges, the appointment shall be made by joint action of the judges, at the general term. The person appointed to the office of friend of the court shall serve at the pleasure of, and subject to removal by, the appointing authority. The person appointed shall be a licensed practicing attorney. The appointed person shall take the constitutional oath of office and shall give bond in such sum as may be fixed by the appointing judge or judges.

(2) Except for those cases administered pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq., it shall be the duty of the friend of the court to supervise and enforce the payment of sums ordered or adjudged by the Circuit Court in divorce actions to be paid for the care and maintenance of minor children. All persons who have been ordered or adjudged by the court, in connection with divorce actions, to make payments for the care and maintenance of children, shall, if so ordered by the court, make such payments to the friend of the court.[~~, and~~] The friend of the court shall see that the payments, except for those cases administered pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq., are properly applied in accordance with the order or judgment. However, if the court so directs, the payments may be made through the juvenile session of District Court of the county; in such case the friend of the court shall render such assistance as may be required in keeping records concerning such payments and in the enforcement of delinquent payments, and the Circuit Court may direct that a designated amount or portion of the funds appropriated by the fiscal court for expenses of the friend of the court be paid to the juvenile session of District Court as reimbursement for the expenses incurred by the juvenile session of District Court in connection with the handling of such payments. The friend of the court shall promptly investigate all cases where payments have become delinquent, and when necessary shall cause the delinquent person to be brought before the court for the purpose of compelling payment. The friend of the court shall ascertain the facts concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of children for whom payments are being made, and shall report to the court all cases in which the children are not receiving proper care or maintenance, or in which the person having custody is failing to furnish proper custody. He shall make such other reports to the court as the court may require.

(3) In any action for divorce where the parties have minor children, the friend of the court, if requested by the trial judge, shall make such investigation as will enable the friend of the court to ascertain all facts and circumstances that will affect the rights and interests of the children and will enable the court to enter just and proper orders and judgment concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of the children. The friend of the court shall make a report to the trial judge, at a time fixed by the judge, setting forth recommendations as to the care, custody, and maintenance of the children. The friend of the court may request the court to postpone the final submission of any case to give the friend of the court a reasonable time in which to complete the investigation.

(4) The friend of the court shall have authority to secure the issuance by the court of any order, rule, or citation necessary for the proper enforcement of orders and judgments in divorce actions concerning the custody, care and maintenance of children. In performing duties under subsection (3) of this section the friend of the court shall attend the taking of depositions within the county, and shall have authority to cross-examine the witnesses. In the case of depositions taken on interrogatories, the friend of the court may file cross interrogatories. The friend of the court shall be duly notified of the time and place of the taking of depositions in all divorce actions where the parties have minor children, and shall attend the taking of all such depositions when the friend of the court deems it necessary for the protection of the minor children, or when the friend of the court may be directed by the court to attend.

(5) The friend of the court shall not directly or indirectly represent any party to a divorce action except as herein authorized to represent the minor children of parties to a divorce action, but if an allowance is made for the support of a spouse and an infant child or children, may proceed to enforce the payment of the allowance made to the spouse also.

(6) Where a friend of the court is acting as a designee of the cabinet pursuant to KRS 205.712 and an applicant for Title IV-D services pursuant to KRS 205.721 has requested a modification of an existing child support order pursuant to a divorce or other judicial order, the friend of the court shall seek the modification, providing all jurisdictional requirements are met. The friend of the court's representation shall extend only for the limited purpose of seeking a modification of an existing child support order consistent with the provisions of KRS 403.212.

(7) The fiscal court of any county which has authorized the appointment of a friend of the court under this section shall, by resolution, fix a reasonable compensation for the friend of the court and make a reasonable allowance for necessary expenses, equipment and supplies, payable out of the general fund of the county, upon approval of the appointing judge or judges.

Section 18. KRS 403.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All proceedings under this chapter are commenced in the manner provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) The verified petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall allege the marriage is irretrievably broken and shall set forth:

- (a) The age, occupation, social security number, and residence of each party and his length of residence in this state. If domestic violence and abuse, as defined in KRS 403.720, is alleged by either party, the party filing the petition shall certify the existence and status of any domestic violence protective orders. The party filing the petition and alleging the abuse may substitute the party's attorney's address as the address of the party and any minor children;
- (b) The date of the marriage and the place at which it was registered;
- (c) That the parties are separated and the date on which the parties separated;
- (d) The names, ages, social security numbers, and addresses of any living infant children of the marriage, and whether the wife is pregnant;
- (e) Any arrangements as to custody, visitation, and support of the children and the maintenance of a spouse; and
- (f) The relief sought.

(3) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding.

(4) If a proceeding is commenced by one of the parties, the other party must be served in the manner provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure and may file a verified response.

(5) Previously existing defenses to divorce and legal separation, including but not limited to condonation, connivance, collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are abolished.

(6) The court may join additional parties proper for the exercise of its authority to implement this chapter.

(7) When the wife is pregnant at the time the petition is filed, the court may continue the case until the pregnancy is terminated.

Section 19. KRS 403.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or for legal separation, or in a proceeding for disposition of property or for maintenance or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, either party may move for temporary maintenance. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) (a) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or child support, either party, with notice to the opposing party, may move for temporary child support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the number of children of the marriage and the information required to calculate the combined adjusted parental gross income set forth in KRS 403.212(2)(g), and the social security numbers of all parties subject to the motion. The court shall, within fourteen (14) days from the filing of said motion, order an amount of temporary child support based upon the child support guidelines as provided by law, and the ordered child support shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(b) Upon a showing of good cause, either party may move the court to enter an order for temporary child support without written or oral notice to the adverse party. After reviewing the affidavit required by paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may issue a temporary child support order based upon the child support guidelines. The order shall provide that the order becomes effective seven (7) days following service of the order and movant's affidavit upon the adverse party unless the adverse party, within the seven (7) day period, files a motion for a hearing before the court. The motion for hearing shall be accompanied by the affidavit required by paragraph (a) of this subsection. Pending the hearing, the adverse party shall pay child support in an amount based upon the guidelines and the adverse party's affidavit. The child support order entered following the hearing shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion for temporary support unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) As part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary injunction or restraining order pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) If the court or agent of the court is made aware that there is reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse, the court shall determine whether disclosure to any other person of the information could be harmful to the parent or child, and if the court determines that disclosure to any person could be harmful, the court and its agents shall not make the disclosure.

(5) On the basis of the showing made and in conformity with KRS 403.200, the court may issue a temporary injunction or restraining order and an order for temporary maintenance in amounts and on terms just and proper in the circumstances.

(6)[~~(5)~~] A temporary order or temporary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of the parties or the child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified before final decree on a showing of the facts necessary to revocation or modification under the circumstances; and

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution or legal separation is voluntarily dismissed.

Section 20. KRS 403.211 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An action to establish or enforce child support may be initiated by the parent, custodian, or agency substantially contributing to the support of the child. The action may be brought in the county in which the child resides or where the defendant resides.

(2) At the time of initial establishment of a child support order, whether temporary or permanent, or in any proceeding to modify a support order, the child support guidelines in KRS 403.212 shall serve as a rebuttable presumption for the establishment or modification of the amount of child support. Courts may deviate from the guidelines where their application would be unjust or inappropriate. Any deviation shall be accompanied by a written finding or specific finding on the record by the court, specifying the reason for the deviation.

(3) A written finding or specific finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case shall be sufficient to rebut the presumption and allow for an appropriate adjustment of the guideline award if based upon one (1) or more of the following criteria:

(a) A child's extraordinary medical or dental needs;

(b) A child's extraordinary educational, job training, or special needs;

(c) Either parent's own extraordinary needs, such as medical expenses;

(d) The independent financial resources, if any, of the child or children;

(e) Combined parental income in excess of the Kentucky child support guidelines;

(f) The parents of the child, having demonstrated knowledge of the amount of child support established by the Kentucky child support guidelines, have agreed to child support different from the guideline amount. However, no such agreement shall be the basis of any deviation if public assistance is being paid on behalf of a child under the provisions of Part D of Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act; and

(g) Any similar factor of an extraordinary nature specifically identified by the court which would make application of the guidelines inappropriate.

(4) "Extraordinary" as used in this section shall be determined by the court in its discretion.

(5) When a party has defaulted or the court is otherwise presented with insufficient evidence to determine gross income, the court shall order child support based upon the needs of the child or the previous standard of living of the child, whichever is greater. An order entered by default or due to insufficient evidence to determine gross income may be modified upward and arrearages awarded from the date of the original order if evidence of gross income is presented within two (2) years which would have established a higher amount of child support pursuant to the child support guidelines set forth in KRS 403.212.

(6) The court shall allocate between the parents, in proportion to their adjusted gross income, reasonable and necessary child care costs incurred due to employment, job search, or education leading to employment, in addition to the amount ordered under the child support guidelines.

(7) (a) The court shall order the cost of health care of the child to be paid by either or both parents of the child regardless of who has physical custody. The court order shall include:

1. A judicial directive designating which parent shall have financial responsibility for providing health care for the dependent child, which shall include, but not be limited to, insurance coverage, payments of necessary health care deductibles or copayments; and

2. A statement providing that if the designated parent's health care coverage provides for covered services for dependent children beyond the age of majority, then any unmarried children up to twenty-five (25) years of age who are full-time students enrolled in and attending an accredited educational institution and who are primarily dependent on the insured parent for maintenance and support shall be covered.

(b) If health care insurance coverage is not reasonable and available at the time the request for the coverage is made, the court order shall provide for health care insurance coverage at the time it becomes reasonable and available.

(8) The cost of extraordinary medical expenses shall be allocated between the parties in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. "Extraordinary medical expenses" means uninsured expenses in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) per child per calendar year. "Extraordinary medical expenses" includes, but is not limited to, the costs that are reasonably necessary for medical, surgical, dental, orthodontal, optometric, nursing, and hospital services; for professional counseling or psychiatric therapy for diagnosed medical disorders; and for drugs and medical supplies, appliances, laboratory, diagnostic, and therapeutic services.

(9) The court order shall include the social security number of all parties subject to a support order.

(10)In any case administered by the Cabinet for Human Resources, if the parent ordered to provide health care coverage is enrolled through an insurer but fails to enroll the child under family coverage, the other parent or the Cabinet for Human Resources may, upon application, enroll the child.

(11) In any case administered by the cabinet, information received or transmitted shall not be published or be open for public inspection, including reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse if the disclosure of the information could be harmful to the custodial parent or the child of the parent. Necessary information and records may be furnished as specified by Section 2 of this Act.

(12) In the case in which a noncustodial parent provides health care coverage, and changes employment, and the new employer provides health care coverage, the Cabinet for Human Resources shall transfer notice of the provision for coverage for the child to the employer which shall operate to enroll this child in the noncustodial parent's health plan, unless the noncustodial parent contests the notice as specified by KRS Chapter 13B.

(1) The following provisions and child support table shall be the child support guidelines established for the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) For the purposes of the child support guidelines:

(a) "Income" means actual gross income of the parent if employed to full capacity or potential income if unemployed or underemployed.

(b) "Gross income" includes income from any source, except as excluded in this subsection, and includes but is not limited to income from salaries, wages, retirement and pension funds, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), gifts, prizes, and alimony or maintenance received. Specifically excluded are benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs, including but not limited to public assistance as defined under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act~~[Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC)]~~, and food stamps.

(c) For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, "gross income" means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation. Straight line depreciation, using Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines, shall be the only allowable method of calculating depreciation expense in determining gross income. Specifically excluded from ordinary and necessary expenses for purposes of this guideline shall be investment tax credits or any other business expenses inappropriate for determining gross income for purposes of calculating child support. Income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be carefully reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child support obligation. In most cases, this amount will differ from a determination of business income for tax purposes. Expense reimbursement or in-kind payments received by a parent in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business or personal use of business property or payments of expenses by a business, shall be counted as income if they are significant and reduce personal living expenses such as a company or business car, free housing, reimbursed meals, or club dues.

(d) If a parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, child support shall be calculated based on a determination of potential income, except that a determination of potential income shall not be made for a parent who is physically or mentally incapacitated or is caring for a very young child, age three (3) or younger, for whom the parents owe a joint legal responsibility. Potential income shall be determined based upon employment potential and probable earnings level based on the obligor's or obligee's recent work history, occupational qualifications, and prevailing job opportunities and earnings levels in the community. A court may find a parent to be voluntarily unemployed or underemployed without finding that the parent intended to avoid or reduce the child support obligation.

(e) "Imputed child support obligation" means the amount of child support the parent would be required to pay from application of the child support guidelines.

(f) Income statements of the parents shall be verified by documentation of both current and past income. Suitable documentation shall include but shall not be limited to, income tax returns, paystubs, employer statements, or receipts and expenses if self-employed.

(g) "Combined adjusted parental gross income" means the combined gross incomes of both parents, less any of the following payments made by the parent:

1. The cost of health insurance coverage for the child;
2. The amount of pre-existing orders for current maintenance for prior spouses to the extent payment is actually made and the amount of current maintenance, if any, ordered paid in the proceeding before the court;
3. The amount of pre-existing orders of current child support for prior-born children to the extent payment is actually made under those orders; and
4. A deduction for the support to the extent payment is made, if a parent is legally responsible for and is actually providing support for other prior-born children who are not the subject of a particular proceeding. If the prior-born children reside with that parent, an "imputed child support obligation" shall be allowed in the amount which would result from application of the guidelines for the support of the prior-born children.

(3) The child support obligation set forth in the child support guidelines table shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their adjusted gross income.

(4) The child support obligation shall be the appropriate amount for the number of children in the table for whom the parents share a joint legal responsibility. The minimum amount of child support shall be sixty dollars ($60) per month.

(5) The court may use its judicial discretion in determining child support in circumstances where combined adjusted parental gross income exceeds the uppermost levels of the guideline table.

(6) The child support guidelines table is as follows:

Section 22. KRS 405.465 is amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply only to those child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance orders that are established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Human Resources or those court orders obtained in administering Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act.

(2) All child support orders and medical support insurance orders being established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Human Resources, or those orders obtained pursuant to the administration of Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for income withholding which shall begin immediately.

(3) The court shall order either or both parents who are obligated to pay child support, medical support, or maintenance under this section to assign to the Cabinet for Human Resources[~~ or the domestic relations clerk of the court or other officer designated by the court to receive the payment,~~] that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered by the court.

(4) The order shall be binding upon the employer or any subsequent employer upon the service by certified mail of a copy of the order upon the employer and until further order of the court. The employer may deduct the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order.

(5) The employer shall notify the cabinet when an employee, for whom a wage withholding is in effect, terminates employment and provide the terminated employee's last known address and the name and address of the terminated employee's new employer, if known.

(6) Any assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(7) No assignment under this section by an employee shall constitute grounds for dismissal of the obligor, refusal to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

Section 23. KRS 405.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a parent presents himself to the cabinet for the voluntary establishment of paternity and clear evidence of parentage is not present, the cabinet shall pay when administratively ordered the cost of genetic testing to establish paternity, subject to recoupment from the alleged father when paternity is established.

(2) The cabinet shall obtain additional testing in any case if an original test is contested, upon request and advance payment by the contestant.

(3) In a contested paternity case, the child, the mother, and the putative father shall submit to genetic testing upon a request of any of the parties, except for good cause. The request shall be supported by a sworn statement of the party.

(4) When a parent who fails to support a child is not obligated to provide child support by court order, the cabinet may administratively establish a child support obligation based upon a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity as set forth in KRS Chapter 406, the parent's minimum monthly child support obligation and proportionate share of child care costs incurred due to employment or job search of either parent, or incurred while receiving elementary or secondary education, or higher education or vocational training which will lead to employment. The monthly child support obligation shall be determined pursuant to the Kentucky child support guidelines set forth in KRS 403.212. The actual cost of child care shall be reasonable and shall be allocated between the parents in the same proportion as each parent's gross income, as determined under the guidelines, bears to the total family gross income.

(5)[~~(2)~~] The cabinet shall recognize a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity as a basis for seeking a support order, irrespective of the alleged father's willingness to consent to a support order.

(6)[~~(3)~~] When in the best interest of the child, the cabinet may review and adjust[~~modify~~] a parent's child support obligation or child care obligation as established by the cabinet, upon a request of the cabinet when an assignment has been made,[~~ on its own~~] or upon either[~~a~~] parent's petition if the amount of the child support awarded under the order differs from the amount that would be awarded in accordance with Section 21 of this Act. The cabinet shall notify parents at least once every three (3) years of the right to a review[~~, but only upon a finding of the conditions described for judicial modification of a support order~~].

(7)[~~(4)~~] In establishing or modifying a parent's monthly child support obligation, the cabinet may use automated methods to identify orders eligible for review, conduct the review, identify orders eligible for adjustment, and apply the adjustment to eligible orders in accordance with Section 21 of this Act. The cabinet shall utilize information, including financial records, about the parent and child which it has good reason to believe is reliable and may require the parents to provide income verification.

(8) In cases in which past due support is owed for a child receiving public assistance under Title IV-A of the Federal Social Security Act, the cabinet shall issue an administrative order, or seek a judicial order, requiring the obligated parent to participate in work activities, unless the parent is incapacitated as defined by 42 U.S.C. sec. 607.

(9) The cabinet may disclose financial records only for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing a child support obligation of an individual. A financial institution shall not be liable to any individual for disclosing any financial record of the individual to the cabinet attempting to establish, modify, or enforce a child support obligation.

(10) The cabinet may issue both intrastate and interstate administrative subpoenas to any individual or entity for financial or other information or documents which are needed to establish, modify or enforce a child support obligation pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq. An administrative subpoena lawfully issued in another state to an individual or entity residing in this state shall be honored and enforced in the Circuit Court of the county in which the individual or entity resides.

(11) In any case where a person or entity fails to respond to a subpoena within the specified time frame, the cabinet shall impose a penalty.

(12)[~~(5)~~] No person shall knowingly make, present, or cause to be made or presented to an employee or officer of the cabinet any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement, representation, or entry in any application, report,[~~ or~~] document, or financial record used in determining child support or child care obligations.

(13) If a person knowingly or by reason of negligence discloses a financial record of an individual, that individual may pursue civil action for damages in a federal district court. No liability shall arise with respect to any disclosure which results from a good faith, but erroneous, interpretation. In any civil action brought for reason of negligence of disclosure of financial records, upon finding of liability on the part of the defendant, the defendant shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to:

- (a) The sum of the greater of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each act of unauthorized disclosure of financial records; or
- (b) The sum of the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff resulting from the unauthorized disclosure; plus
- (c) If willful disclosure or disclosure was a result of gross negligence, punitive damages, plus the costs, including attorney fees, of the action.

(1) Any sale or conveyance made to a purchaser with notice or for the benefit of any religious society, if made in fraud or hindrance of the right of wife or child to maintenance, shall be void as against the wife or child.

(2) In any case where an obligor transfers income or property to avoid payment to a child support creditor, the transfer shall be indicia of fraud. Indicia of fraud creates a prima facie case that the transfer of income or property was to avoid payment of child support. Indicia of fraud shall be set forth by administrative regulation.

(3) In any case in which the cabinet knows of a transfer by a child support obligor with respect to which a prima facie case is established, the cabinet shall:

- (a) Seek to void the transfer; or
- (b) Obtain a settlement in the best interests of the child support creditor.

The dispute hearing proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(2) The parent's obligation to pay minimum monthly support shall be stayed until his receipt of the final order.

(3) Except for the denial, revocation, or suspension of a driver's license, professional license, occupational, sporting, or recreational license upon one (1) year's child support arrearage, the parent or the cabinet may file an appeal in the Circuit Court in the county of the parent's or the child's residence in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(4) The parent shall, during the pendency of his appeal from the final order, absent a showing of indigency or need exceeding the child's need, pay the minimum monthly support obligation to the cabinet, which shall, if the parent's appeal is successful, return his money together with interest at the legal rate for judgments.

(5) If the cabinet elects to conduct the modification review as specified in subsection (6) of Section 23 of this Act, either party may contest the adjustment to the obligation amount within thirty (30) days after the date of the notice of the adjustment by requesting a review, and if appropriate, a request for adjustment of the order as permitted by this chapter.

Section 26. KRS 405.467 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All support orders issued by the Cabinet for Human Resources, including those issued pursuant to Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for immediate withholding of earnings of the parent or parents obligated to pay child support and medical support as is necessary to pay the child support obligation, except where one (1) of the parties demonstrates, and the court or administrative order finds that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding, or a written agreement is reached by both parties which provides for an alternative arrangement.

(2) In any case in which a support order was issued in the state prior to October 1, 1994, and in which a parent is required to pay court ordered or administratively determined child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance, and wage withholding is not in effect, and an arrearage accrues that is equal to the amount of support payment for one (1) month, upon request of the absent parent, request of the custodial parent, or upon administrative determination, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of earnings of the parent as is necessary to comply with the order plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.

(3) In any case in which a parent is required either by court order or administrative order to provide medical insurance coverage for the child and the parent has failed to make application to obtain coverage for the child, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of the employee's share, if any, of premiums for health coverage and to pay the share of premiums to the insurer, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.

(4) The cabinet shall advise the obligated parent that a wage withholding has commenced within fourteen (14) days of the issuance[~~Advance notice shall be sent to the obligor prior to the issuance of the order to withhold earnings~~]. The only basis for contesting the withholding shall be a mistake of fact or law. If the parent contests the withholding, the cabinet shall give the obligor an opportunity to present his or her case at an administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and decide if the withholding will continue[~~occur, based on an evaluation of the facts within forty-five (45) days from the date of the advance notice. The cabinet shall notify the obligor of the decision of whether the withholding is to occur, the date on which it will begin, and shall furnish the obligor with the information contained in any order served on the employer with respect to the withholding~~].

(5) The cabinet shall combine any administrative or judicial wage withholding order, or multiple administrative or judicial orders for child support and medical support into a single wage withholding order when payable through the cabinet to a single family or to multiple family units.

(6) The cabinet shall serve the order to withhold earnings or notice of multiple wage withholding orders specifying wage withholding requirements on the employer of an obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested. The order shall state the amount to be withheld, or the requirement to enroll the child under the health insurance coverage, including amounts to be applied to arrearages, plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, and the date the withholding is to begin. The total amount to be withheld, including current support and payment on arrearages plus interest, and medical insurance coverage may not exceed the limit permitted under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b).

(7) If there is more than one (1) notice for child support withholding against a single absent parent, the cabinet shall allocate amounts available for withholding, giving priority to current child support, up to the limits imposed under Section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b). The allocation by the cabinet shall not result in a withholding for one (1) of the support obligations not being implemented. Amounts resulting from wage withholding shall be allocated on a proportionate basis between multiple family units. Any custodial parent adversely affected by the provisions of this subsection shall have standing to challenge any proportionate allocations and, for good cause shown, a District Court, Circuit Court, or Family Court of competent jurisdiction may set aside the cabinet's proportional allocations as to the custodial parent.

(8) If the amounts to be withheld preclude collection of the total amount of combined child support and medical support due to the limits of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b), the actual amount received shall be applied first to the current monthly child support obligation amount. Any payment exceeding the current monthly child support obligation shall then be applied by the cabinet to the administratively-ordered or judicially-ordered medical support obligation.

(9) The employer shall forward to the Cabinet for Human Resources that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered.

(10) The employer shall be held liable to the cabinet for any amount which the employer fails to withhold from earnings due an obligor following receipt of an order to withhold earnings.

(11)[~~(10)~~] Any order to withhold earnings under this section shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, notwithstanding any state statute or administrative regulation to the contrary.

(12)[~~(11)~~] No withholding under this section shall be grounds for discharging from employment, refusing to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

(13)[~~(12)~~] The remedies provided for in this section shall also be available for applicable support orders issued in other states.

(14)[~~(13)~~] Interstate requests for withholding of earnings shall be processed by the cabinet.

(4) The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(5) The court shall, within fourteen (14) days from the filing of the motion, order an amount of temporary child support based upon the child support guidelines as provided by Section 21 of this Act. (4)[~~(3)~~] Any objection to genetic testing results shall be made in writing to the court within twenty (20) days of receipt of genetic test results[~~before a hearing at which the results may be introduced into evidence~~]. If the results of genetic tests or the expert's analysis of inherited characteristics is disputed, the court, upon reasonable request of a party, shall order that an additional test be made by the same laboratory or independent laboratory at the expense of the party requesting additional testing. (2) The cabinet shall deny any person a license or shall suspend the license of an operator of a motor vehicle upon receiving written notification from the Cabinet for Human Resources that the person has a child support arrearage which equals or exceeds the cumulative amount which would be owed after one (1) year of nonpayment or failure, after receiving appropriate notice, to comply with a subpoena or warrant relating to paternity or child support proceedings, as provided by 42 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq.; except that any child support arrearage which exists prior to January 1, 1994, shall not be included in the calculation to determine whether the license of an operator of a motor vehicle shall be denied or suspended. The denial or suspension shall continue until the arrearage has been eliminated,[~~ or~~] payments on the child support arrearage are being made in accordance with a court or administrative order, or the person complies with the subpoena or warrant relating to paternity or child support. The cabinet may, upon receiving a record of the conviction in this state of a nonresident driver of a motor vehicle of any offense under the motor vehicle laws, forward a notice of that person's conviction to the proper officer in the state of which the convicted person is a resident.

(4) In any action for divorce where the parties have minor children, the friend of the court, if requested by the trial judge, shall make such investigation as will enable the friend of the court to ascertain all facts and circumstances that will affect the rights and interests of the children and will enable the court to enter just and proper orders and judgment concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of the children. The friend of the court shall make a report to the trial judge, at a time fixed by the judge, setting forth recommendations as to the care, custody, and maintenance of the children. The friend of the court may request the court to postpone the final submission of any case to give the friend of the court a reasonable time in which to complete the investigation.

(5)[~~(4)~~] The friend of the court shall have authority to secure the issuance by the court of any order, rule, or citation necessary for the proper enforcement of orders and judgments in divorce actions concerning the custody, care and maintenance of children. In performing duties under subsection (4)[~~(3)~~] of this section the friend of the court shall attend the taking of depositions within the county, and shall have authority to cross-examine the witnesses. In the case of depositions taken on interrogatories, the friend of the court may file cross interrogatories. The friend of the court shall be duly notified of the time and place of the taking of depositions in all divorce actions where the parties have minor children, and shall attend the taking of all such depositions when the friend of the court deems it necessary for the protection of the minor children, or when the friend of the court may be directed by the court to attend.

(6)[~~(5)~~] The friend of the court shall not directly or indirectly represent any party to a divorce action except as herein authorized to represent the minor children of parties to a divorce action, but if an allowance is made for the support of a spouse and an infant child or children, may proceed to enforce the payment of the allowance made to the spouse also.

(7)[~~(6)~~] Where a friend of the court is acting as a designee of the cabinet pursuant to KRS 205.712 and an applicant for Title IV-D services pursuant to KRS 205.721 has requested a modification of an existing child support order pursuant to a divorce or other judicial order, the friend of the court shall seek the modification, providing all jurisdictional requirements are met. The friend of the court's representation shall extend only for the limited purpose of seeking a modification of an existing child support order consistent with the provisions of KRS 403.212.

(8)[~~(7)~~] The fiscal court of any county which has authorized the appointment of a friend of the court under this section shall, by resolution, fix a reasonable compensation for the friend of the court and make a reasonable allowance for necessary expenses, equipment and supplies, payable out of the general fund of the county, upon approval of the appointing judge or judges.

Section 17. KRS 403.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All proceedings under this chapter are commenced in the manner provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) The verified petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall allege the marriage is irretrievably broken and shall set forth:

(a) The age, occupation, social security number, and residence of each party and his length of residence in this state. If domestic violence and abuse, as defined in KRS 403.720, is alleged by either party, the party filing the petition shall certify the existence and status of any domestic violence protective orders. The party filing the petition and alleging the abuse may substitute the party's attorney's address as the address of the party and any minor children;

(b) The date of the marriage and the place at which it was registered;

(c) That the parties are separated and the date on which the parties separated;

(d) The names, ages, social security numbers, and addresses of any living infant children of the marriage, and whether the wife is pregnant;

(e) Any arrangements as to custody, visitation, and support of the children and the maintenance of a spouse; and

(f) The relief sought.

(3) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding.

(4) If a proceeding is commenced by one of the parties, the other party must be served in the manner provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure and may file a verified response.

(5) Previously existing defenses to divorce and legal separation, including but not limited to condonation, connivance, collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are abolished.

(6) The court may join additional parties proper for the exercise of its authority to implement this chapter.

(7) When the wife is pregnant at the time the petition is filed, the court may continue the case until the pregnancy is terminated.

Section 18. KRS 403.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or for legal separation, or in a proceeding for disposition of property or for maintenance or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, either party may move for temporary maintenance. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) (a) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or child support, either party, with notice to the opposing party, may move for temporary child support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the number of children of the marriage and the information required to calculate the combined adjusted parental gross income set forth in KRS 403.212(2)(g), and the social security numbers of all parties subject to the motion. The court shall, within fourteen (14) days from the filing of said motion, order an amount of temporary child support based upon the child support guidelines as provided by law, and the ordered child support shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(b) Upon a showing of good cause, either party may move the court to enter an order for temporary child support without written or oral notice to the adverse party. After reviewing the affidavit required by paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may issue a temporary child support order based upon the child support guidelines. The order shall provide that the order becomes effective seven (7) days following service of the order and movant's affidavit upon the adverse party unless the adverse party, within the seven (7) day period, files a motion for a hearing before the court. The motion for hearing shall be accompanied by the affidavit required by paragraph (a) of this subsection. Pending the hearing, the adverse party shall pay child support in an amount based upon the guidelines and the adverse party's affidavit. The child support order entered following the hearing shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion for temporary support unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) As part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary injunction or restraining order pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) If the court or agent of the court is made aware that there is reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse, the court shall determine whether disclosure to any other person of the information could be harmful to the parent or child, and if the court determines that disclosure to any person could be harmful, the court and its agents shall not make the disclosure.

(5) On the basis of the showing made and in conformity with KRS 403.200, the court may issue a temporary injunction or restraining order and an order for temporary maintenance in amounts and on terms just and proper in the circumstances.

(6)[~~(5)~~] A temporary order or temporary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of the parties or the child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified before final decree on a showing of the facts necessary to revocation or modification under the circumstances; and

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution or legal separation is voluntarily dismissed.

Section 19. KRS 403.211 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An action to establish or enforce child support may be initiated by the parent, custodian, or agency substantially contributing to the support of the child. The action may be brought in the county in which the child resides or where the defendant resides.

(2) At the time of initial establishment of a child support order, whether temporary or permanent, or in any proceeding to modify a support order, the child support guidelines in KRS 403.212 shall serve as a rebuttable presumption for the establishment or modification of the amount of child support. Courts may deviate from the guidelines where their application would be unjust or inappropriate. Any deviation shall be accompanied by a written finding or specific finding on the record by the court, specifying the reason for the deviation.

(3) A written finding or specific finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case shall be sufficient to rebut the presumption and allow for an appropriate adjustment of the guideline award if based upon one (1) or more of the following criteria:

(a) A child's extraordinary medical or dental needs;

(b) A child's extraordinary educational, job training, or special needs;

(c) Either parent's own extraordinary needs, such as medical expenses;

(d) The independent financial resources, if any, of the child or children;

(e) Combined parental income in excess of the Kentucky child support guidelines;

(f) The parents of the child, having demonstrated knowledge of the amount of child support established by the Kentucky child support guidelines, have agreed to child support different from the guideline amount. However, no such agreement shall be the basis of any deviation if public assistance is being paid on behalf of a child under the provisions of Part D of Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act; and

(g) Any similar factor of an extraordinary nature specifically identified by the court which would make application of the guidelines inappropriate.

(4) "Extraordinary" as used in this section shall be determined by the court in its discretion.

(5) When a party has defaulted or the court is otherwise presented with insufficient evidence to determine gross income, the court shall order child support based upon the needs of the child or the previous standard of living of the child, whichever is greater. An order entered by default or due to insufficient evidence to determine gross income may be modified upward and arrearages awarded from the date of the original order if evidence of gross income is presented within two (2) years which would have established a higher amount of child support pursuant to the child support guidelines set forth in KRS 403.212.

(6) The court shall allocate between the parents, in proportion to their adjusted gross income, reasonable and necessary child care costs incurred due to employment, job search, or education leading to employment, in addition to the amount ordered under the child support guidelines.

(7) (a) The court shall order the cost of health care of the child to be paid by either or both parents of the child regardless of who has physical custody. The court order shall include:

1. A judicial directive designating which parent shall have financial responsibility for providing health care for the dependent child, which shall include, but not be limited to, insurance coverage, payments of necessary health care deductibles or copayments; and

2. A statement providing that if the designated parent's health care coverage provides for covered services for dependent children beyond the age of majority, then any unmarried children up to twenty-five (25) years of age who are full-time students enrolled in and attending an accredited educational institution and who are primarily dependent on the insured parent for maintenance and support shall be covered.

(b) If health care insurance coverage is not reasonable and available at the time the request for the coverage is made, the court order shall provide for health care insurance coverage at the time it becomes reasonable and available.

(8) The cost of extraordinary medical expenses shall be allocated between the parties in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. "Extraordinary medical expenses" means uninsured expenses in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) per child per calendar year. "Extraordinary medical expenses" includes, but is not limited to, the costs that are reasonably necessary for medical, surgical, dental, orthodontal, optometric, nursing, and hospital services; for professional counseling or psychiatric therapy for diagnosed medical disorders; and for drugs and medical supplies, appliances, laboratory, diagnostic, and therapeutic services.

(9) The court order shall include the social security numbers of all parties subject to a support order.

(10)In any case administered by the Cabinet for Human Resources, if the parent ordered to provide health care coverage is enrolled through an insurer but fails to enroll the child under family coverage, the other parent or the Cabinet for Human Resources may, upon application, enroll the child.

(11) In any case administered by the cabinet, information received or transmitted shall not be published or be open for public inspection, including reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse if the disclosure of the information could be harmful to the custodial parent or the child of the parent. Necessary information and records may be furnished as specified by Section 2 of this Act.

(12) In the case in which a noncustodial parent provides health care coverage, and changes employment, and the new employer provides health care coverage, the Cabinet for Human Resources shall transfer notice of the provision for coverage for the child to the employer which shall operate to enroll this child in the noncustodial parent's health plan, unless the noncustodial parent contests the notice as specified by KRS Chapter 13B.

(13) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any wage or income shall not be exempt for attachment or assignment for the payment of current child support or owed or to be owed child support.

(1) The following provisions and child support table shall be the child support guidelines established for the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) For the purposes of the child support guidelines:

(a) "Income" means actual gross income of the parent if employed to full capacity or potential income if unemployed or underemployed.

(b) "Gross income" includes income from any source, except as excluded in this subsection, and includes but is not limited to income from salaries, wages, retirement and pension funds, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), gifts, prizes, and alimony or maintenance received. Specifically excluded are benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs, including but not limited to public assistance as defined under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act[~~Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC)~~], and food stamps.

(c) For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, "gross income" means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation. Straight line depreciation, using Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines, shall be the only allowable method of calculating depreciation expense in determining gross income. Specifically excluded from ordinary and necessary expenses for purposes of this guideline shall be investment tax credits or any other business expenses inappropriate for determining gross income for purposes of calculating child support. Income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be carefully reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child support obligation. In most cases, this amount will differ from a determination of business income for tax purposes. Expense reimbursement or in-kind payments received by a parent in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business or personal use of business property or payments of expenses by a business, shall be counted as income if they are significant and reduce personal living expenses such as a company or business car, free housing, reimbursed meals, or club dues.

(d) If a parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, child support shall be calculated based on a determination of potential income, except that a determination of potential income shall not be made for a parent who is physically or mentally incapacitated or is caring for a very young child, age three (3) or younger, for whom the parents owe a joint legal responsibility. Potential income shall be determined based upon employment potential and probable earnings level based on the obligor's or obligee's recent work history, occupational qualifications, and prevailing job opportunities and earnings levels in the community. A court may find a parent to be voluntarily unemployed or underemployed without finding that the parent intended to avoid or reduce the child support obligation.

(e) "Imputed child support obligation" means the amount of child support the parent would be required to pay from application of the child support guidelines.

(f) Income statements of the parents shall be verified by documentation of both current and past income. Suitable documentation shall include but shall not be limited to, income tax returns, paystubs, employer statements, or receipts and expenses if self-employed.

(g) "Combined adjusted parental gross income" means the combined gross incomes of both parents, less any of the following payments made by the parent:

1. The cost of health insurance coverage for the child;
2. The amount of pre-existing orders for current maintenance for prior spouses to the extent payment is actually made and the amount of current maintenance, if any, ordered paid in the proceeding before the court;
3. The amount of pre-existing orders of current child support for prior-born children to the extent payment is actually made under those orders; and
4. A deduction for the support to the extent payment is made, if a parent is legally responsible for and is actually providing support for other prior-born children who are not the subject of a particular proceeding. If the prior-born children reside with that parent, an "imputed child support obligation" shall be allowed in the amount which would result from application of the guidelines for the support of the prior-born children.

(3) The child support obligation set forth in the child support guidelines table shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their adjusted gross income.

(4) The child support obligation shall be the appropriate amount for the number of children in the table for whom the parents share a joint legal responsibility. The minimum amount of child support shall be sixty dollars ($60) per month.

(5) The court may use its judicial discretion in determining child support in circumstances where combined adjusted parental gross income exceeds the uppermost levels of the guideline table.

(6) The child support guidelines table is as follows:

Section 21. KRS 405.465 is amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply only to those child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance orders that are established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Human Resources or those court orders obtained in administering Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act.

(2) All child support orders and medical support insurance orders being established, modified, or enforced by the Cabinet for Human Resources, or those orders obtained pursuant to the administration of Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for income withholding which shall begin immediately.

(3) The court shall order either or both parents who are obligated to pay child support, medical support, or maintenance under this section to assign to the Cabinet for Human Resources[~~ or the domestic relations clerk of the court or other officer designated by the court to receive the payment,~~] that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered by the court.

(4) The order shall be binding upon the employer or any subsequent employer upon the service by certified mail of a copy of the order upon the employer and until further order of the court. The employer may deduct the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order.

(5) The employer shall notify the cabinet when an employee, for whom a wage withholding is in effect, terminates employment and provide the terminated employee's last known address and the name and address of the terminated employee's new employer, if known.

(6) Any assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(7) No assignment under this section by an employee shall constitute grounds for dismissal of the obligor, refusal to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

Section 22. KRS 405.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a parent presents himself to the cabinet for the voluntary establishment of paternity and clear evidence of parentage is not present, the cabinet shall pay when administratively ordered the cost of genetic testing to establish paternity, subject to recoupment from the alleged father when paternity is established.

(2) The cabinet shall obtain additional testing in any case if an original test is contested, upon request and advance payment by the contestant.

(3) In a contested paternity case, the child, the mother, and the putative father shall submit to genetic testing upon a request of any of the parties, except for good cause. The request shall be supported by a sworn statement of the party.

(4) When a parent who fails to support a child is not obligated to provide child support by court order, the cabinet may administratively establish a child support obligation based upon a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity as set forth in KRS Chapter 406, the parent's minimum monthly child support obligation and proportionate share of child care costs incurred due to employment or job search of either parent, or incurred while receiving elementary or secondary education, or higher education or vocational training which will lead to employment. The monthly child support obligation shall be determined pursuant to the Kentucky child support guidelines set forth in KRS 403.212. The actual cost of child care shall be reasonable and shall be allocated between the parents in the same proportion as each parent's gross income, as determined under the guidelines, bears to the total family gross income.

(5)[~~(2)~~] The cabinet shall recognize a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity as a basis for seeking a support order, irrespective of the alleged father's willingness to consent to a support order.

(6)[~~(3)~~] When in the best interest of the child, the cabinet may review and adjust[~~modify~~] a parent's child support obligation or child care obligation as established by the cabinet, upon a request of the cabinet when an assignment has been made,[~~ on its own~~] or upon either[~~a~~] parent's petition if the amount of the child support awarded under the order differs from the amount that would be awarded in accordance with Section 20 of this Act. The cabinet shall notify parents at least once every three (3) years of the right to a review[~~, but only upon a finding of the conditions described for judicial modification of a support order~~].

(7)[~~(4)~~] In establishing or modifying a parent's monthly child support obligation, the cabinet may use automated methods to identify orders eligible for review, conduct the review, identify orders eligible for adjustment, and apply the adjustment to eligible orders in accordance with Section 20 of this Act. The cabinet shall utilize information, including financial records, about the parent and child which it has good reason to believe is reliable and may require the parents to provide income verification.

(8) In cases in which past due support is owed for a child receiving public assistance under Title IV-A of the Federal Social Security Act, the cabinet shall issue an administrative order, or seek a judicial order, requiring the obligated parent to participate in work activities, unless the parent is incapacitated as defined by 42 U.S.C. sec. 607.

(9) The cabinet may disclose financial records only for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing a child support obligation of an individual. A financial institution shall not be liable to any individual for disclosing any financial record of the individual to the cabinet attempting to establish, modify, or enforce a child support obligation.

(10) The cabinet may issue both intrastate and interstate administrative subpoenas to any individual or entity for financial or other information or documents which are needed to establish, modify or enforce a child support obligation pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq. An administrative subpoena lawfully issued in another state to an individual or entity residing in this state shall be honored and enforced in the Circuit Court of the county in which the individual or entity resides.

(11) In any case where a person or entity fails to respond to a subpoena within the specified time frame, the cabinet shall impose a penalty.

(12)[~~(5)~~] No person shall knowingly make, present, or cause to be made or presented to an employee or officer of the cabinet any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement, representation, or entry in any application, report,[~~ or~~] document*, or financial record* used in determining child support or child care obligations.

(13) If a person knowingly or by reason of negligence discloses a financial record of an individual, that individual may pursue civil action for damages in a federal district court. No liability shall arise with respect to any disclosure which results from a good faith, but erroneous, interpretation. In any civil action brought for reason of negligence of disclosure of financial records, upon finding of liability on the part of the defendant, the defendant shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to:

(a) The sum of the greater of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each act of unauthorized disclosure of financial records; or

(b) The sum of the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff resulting from the unauthorized disclosure; plus

(c) If willful disclosure or disclosure was a result of gross negligence, punitive damages, plus the costs, including attorney fees, of the action.

Section 23. KRS 405.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any sale or conveyance made to a purchaser with notice or for the benefit of any religious society, if made in fraud or hindrance of the right of wife or child to maintenance, shall be void as against the wife or child.

(2) In any case where an obligor transfers income or property to avoid payment to a child support creditor, the transfer shall be indicia of fraud. Indicia of fraud creates a prima facie case that the transfer of income or property was to avoid payment of child support. Indicia of fraud shall be set forth by administrative regulation.

(3) In any case in which the cabinet knows of a transfer by a child support obligor with respect to which a prima facie case is established, the cabinet shall:

(a) Seek to void the transfer; or

(b) Obtain a settlement in the best interests of the child support creditor.

Section 24. KRS 405.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A hearing officer appointed by the secretary shall conduct dispute hearings in the county of the child or parent's residence or any other location acceptable to the parent, which shall be scheduled within sixty (60) days of the parent's request for a hearing. The dispute hearing proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(2) The parent's obligation to pay minimum monthly support shall be stayed until his receipt of the final order.

(3) The parent or the cabinet may file an appeal in the Circuit Court in the county of the parent's or the child's residence in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(4) The parent shall, during the pendency of his appeal from the final order, absent a showing of indigency or need exceeding the child's need, pay the minimum monthly support obligation to the cabinet, which shall, if the parent's appeal is successful, return his money together with interest at the legal rate for judgments.

(5) If the cabinet elects to conduct the modification review as specified in subsection (6) of Section 22 of this Act, either party may contest the adjustment to the obligation amount within thirty (30) days after the date of the notice of the adjustment by requesting a review, and if appropriate, a request for adjustment of the order as permitted by this chapter.

(1) All support orders issued by the Cabinet for Human Resources, including those issued pursuant to Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for immediate withholding of earnings of the parent or parents obligated to pay child support and medical support as is necessary to pay the child support obligation, except where one (1) of the parties demonstrates, and the court or administrative order finds that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding, or a written agreement is reached by both parties which provides for an alternative arrangement.

(2) In any case in which a support order was issued in the state prior to October 1, 1994, and in which a parent is required to pay court ordered or administratively determined child support, medical support, maintenance, and medical support insurance, and wage withholding is not in effect, and an arrearage accrues that is equal to the amount of support payment for one (1) month, upon request of the absent parent, request of the custodial parent, or upon administrative determination, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of earnings of the parent as is necessary to comply with the order plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.

(3) In any case in which a parent is required either by court order or administrative order to provide medical insurance coverage for the child and the parent has failed to make application to obtain coverage for the child, the secretary shall issue an order for withholding of the employee's share, if any, of premiums for health coverage and to pay the share of premiums to the insurer, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.

(4) The cabinet shall advise the obligated parent that a wage withholding has commenced within fourteen (14) days of the issuance[~~Advance notice shall be sent to the obligor prior to the issuance of the order to withhold earnings~~]. The only basis for contesting the withholding shall be a mistake of fact or law. If the parent contests the withholding, the cabinet shall give the obligor an opportunity to present his or her case at an administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and decide if the withholding will continue[~~occur, based on an evaluation of the facts within forty-five (45) days from the date of the advance notice. The cabinet shall notify the obligor of the decision of whether the withholding is to occur, the date on which it will begin, and shall furnish the obligor with the information contained in any order served on the employer with respect to the withholding~~].

(5) The cabinet shall combine any administrative or judicial wage withholding order, or multiple administrative or judicial orders for child support and medical support into a single wage withholding order when payable through the cabinet to a single family or to multiple family units.

(6) The cabinet shall serve the order to withhold earnings or notice of multiple wage withholding orders specifying wage withholding requirements on the employer of an obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested. The order shall state the amount to be withheld, or the requirement to enroll the child under the health insurance coverage, including amounts to be applied to arrearages, plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, and the date the withholding is to begin. The total amount to be withheld, including current support and payment on arrearages plus interest, and medical insurance coverage may not exceed the limit permitted under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b).

(7) If there is more than one (1) notice for child support withholding against a single absent parent, the cabinet shall allocate amounts available for withholding, giving priority to current child support, up to the limits imposed under Section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b). The allocation by the cabinet shall not result in a withholding for one (1) of the support obligations not being implemented. Amounts resulting from wage withholding shall be allocated on a proportionate basis between multiple family units. Any custodial parent adversely affected by the provisions of this subsection shall have standing to challenge any proportionate allocations and, for good cause shown, a District Court, Circuit Court, or Family Court of competent jurisdiction may set aside the cabinet's proportional allocations as to the custodial parent.

(8) If the amounts to be withheld preclude collection of the total amount of combined child support and medical support due to the limits of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b), the actual amount received shall be applied first to the current monthly child support obligation amount. Any payment exceeding the current monthly child support obligation shall then be applied by the cabinet to the administratively-ordered or judicially-ordered medical support obligation.

(9) The employer shall forward to the Cabinet for Human Resources that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered.

(10) The employer shall be held liable to the cabinet for any amount which the employer fails to withhold from earnings due an obligor following receipt of an order to withhold earnings.

(11)[~~(10)~~] Any order to withhold earnings under this section shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, notwithstanding any state statute or administrative regulation to the contrary.

(12)[~~(11)~~] No withholding under this section shall be grounds for discharging from employment, refusing to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

(13)[~~(12)~~] The remedies provided for in this section shall also be available for applicable support orders issued in other states.

(14)[~~(13)~~] Interstate requests for withholding of earnings shall be processed by the cabinet.

Section 26. KRS 406.021 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Paternity may be determined upon the complaint of the mother, putative father, child, person, or agency substantially contributing to the support of the child. The action shall be brought by the county attorney or by the Cabinet for Human Resources or its designee upon the request of complainant authorized by this section.

(2) Paternity may be determined by the District Court when the mother and father of the child, either:

(a) Submit affidavits in which the mother states the name and social security number of the child's father and the father admits paternity of the child; or

(b) Give testimony before the District Court in which the mother states the name and social security number of the child's father and the father admits paternity of the child.

(3) If paternity has been determined or has been acknowledged according to the laws of this state, the liabilities of the father may be enforced in the same or other proceedings by the mother, child, person, or agency substantially contributing to the cost of pregnancy, confinement, education, necessary support or funeral expenses. Bills for testing, pregnancy, and childbirth without requiring third party foundation testimony shall be regarded as prima facie evidence of the amount incurred. An action to enforce the liabilities shall be brought by the county attorney upon the request of such complainant herein authorized. An action to enforce the liabilities of the cost of pregnancy, birthing costs, child support, and medical support shall be brought by the county attorney or by the Cabinet for Human Resources or its designee.

(4) Voluntary acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to KRS 213.046 shall create a rebuttable presumption of paternity.

(5) Upon a showing of service of process on the defendant and if the defendant has made no pleading to the court or has not moved to enter evidence pursuant to KRS 406.091, the court shall order paternity to be established by default.

Section 27. KRS 406.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon completion of a signed, notarized, voluntary acknowledgment of paternity affidavit by the mother and alleged father, obtained through the hospital-based paternity program, and submitted to the state registrar of vital statistics, paternity shall be rebuttably presumed for the earlier of sixty (60) days or the date of an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the child, including a proceeding to establish a child support order[~~one (1) year following the child's birth~~].

(2) Upon completion of a signed, notarized, voluntary acknowledgment of paternity affidavit by the mother and alleged father obtained outside of the hospital and submitted to the state registrar of vital statistics, paternity shall be rebuttably presumed for the earlier of sixty (60) days or the date of an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the child, including a proceeding to establish a child support order[~~one (1) year~~] following the date of signatures on the notarized affidavit.

(3) Pending an administrative or judicial determination of parentage, or upon a signed, notarized, voluntary acknowledgment of paternity form having been transmitted by the local registrar and received by the Office of Vital Statistics, a temporary support order shall be issued upon motion of any party if paternity is indicated by genetic testing or other clear and convincing evidence.

(4) The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(5) The court shall, within fourteen (14) days from the filing of the motion, order an amount of temporary child support based upon the child support guidelines as provided by Section 20 of this Act. The ordered child support shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion to move the court to enter an order for temporary child support without written or oral notice to the adverse party. The order shall provide that the order becomes effective seven (7) days following service of the order and movant's affidavit upon the adverse party unless the adverse party, within the seven (7) day period, files a motion for a hearing before the court. The motion for hearing shall be accompanied by the affidavit required by subsection (2)(a) of Section 18 of this Act. Pending the hearing, the adverse party shall pay child support in an amount based upon the guidelines and the adverse party's affidavit. The child support order entered following the hearing shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the motion for temporary support unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(6) Unless good cause is shown, court or administratively ordered child support shall continue until final judicial or administrative determination of paternity.

Section 28. KRS 406.035 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If paternity has been determined under the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) of KRS 406.021, the court shall make a written order of paternity.

(2) Information concerning this action received or transmitted shall not be published or be open for public inspection, including where the cabinet determines reasonable evidence of domestic violence or child abuse, if the disclosure of the information could be harmful to the custodial parent or the child of the parent.

(3) Such orders are to be kept separately and shall not be open for public inspection except that they may be inspected by employees of governmental agencies in the performance of their duties, all law enforcement agencies including county attorneys, Commonwealth's attorneys, District and Circuit Court Judges, and anyone else under order of the court expressly permitting inspection. Either party to an action under this chapter or attorneys of a party to an action under this chapter shall be permitted to inspect the order entered in the action to which he is a party.

Section 29. KRS 406.061 is amended to read as follows:

To the extent necessary to conform to federal law, 42 U.S.C. sec. 666(a)(5)(I), no party shall be entitled to a trial by a jury in a paternity action[~~Either party to an action commenced under the provisions of this chapter may demand a jury trial of the facts in issue, or the court upon its own motion may grant a jury trial, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of Civil Procedure~~].

Section 30. KRS 406.091 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An unchallenged acknowledgment of paternity shall be ratified without the requirement for judicial or administrative proceedings. If a genetic test is required, the court shall direct that inherited characteristics be determined by appropriate testing procedures, and shall appoint an expert qualified as an examiner of genetic markers to analyze and interpret results and to report to the court.

(2) In a contested paternity case, the child and all other parties shall submit to genetic testing upon a request of any such party which shall be supported by a sworn statement of the party, except for good cause.

(3) Genetic test results are admissible and shall be weighed along with other evidence of the alleged father's paternity.

(4)[~~(3)~~] Any objection to genetic testing results shall be made in writing to the court within twenty (20) days of receipt of genetic test results[~~before a hearing at which the results may be introduced into evidence~~]. If the results of genetic tests or the expert's analysis of inherited characteristics is disputed, the court, upon reasonable request of a party, shall order that an additional test be made by the same laboratory or independent laboratory at the expense of the party requesting additional testing. If no objection is made, the test results are admissible as evidence of paternity without the need for foundation testimony or other proof of authenticity or accuracy.

(5)[~~(4)~~] Verified documentation of the chain of custody in transmitting the blood specimens is competent evidence to establish the chain of custody.

(6)[~~(5)~~] A verified expert's report shall be admitted at trial unless the expert is called by a party or the court as a witness to testify to his findings.

(7)[~~(6)~~] Except where the Cabinet for Human Resources administratively orders genetic testing, all costs associated with genetic testing shall be paid by the parties in proportions determined by the court.

(8) When administratively ordered, the cabinet shall pay the cost of genetic testing to establish paternity, subject to recoupment from the alleged father when paternity is established. The cabinet shall obtain additional testing in any case if an original test is contested, upon request and advance payment by the contestant.

Any such annuity, benefit, or refund shall not answer for debts contracted by the person receiving the same, and it is the intention of this section that they shall not be attached or affected by any judicial proceeding, except for court or administratively ordered current child support, or owed child support, or to be owed child support.

Other impairments, including skin impairments, epilepsy, visual sensory impairments, postural and manipulative limitations, and environmental restrictions, shall be considered in conjunction with the person's physical and mental impairments to determine residual functional capacity.

(c) The person's physical exertion requirements shall be determined based on the following standards:

1. Sedentary work shall be work that involves lifting no more than ten (10) pounds at a time and occasionally lifting or carrying articles such as large files, ledgers, and small tools. Although a sedentary job primarily involves sitting, occasional walking and standing may also be required in the performance of duties.

A job shall be in this category if lifting is infrequently required but walking and standing are frequently required, or if the job primarily requires sitting with pushing and pulling of arm or leg controls. If the person has the ability to perform substantially all of these activities, the person shall be deemed capable of light work. A person deemed capable of light work shall be deemed capable of sedentary work unless the person has additional limitations such as the loss of fine dexterity or inability to sit for long periods.

3. Medium work shall be work that involves lifting no more than fifty (50) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to twenty-five (25) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of medium work, the person shall be deemed capable of light and sedentary work.

(b) If the member's total service credit on his last day of paid employment is twenty (20) or more years, then his total service credit shall be used.

(a) For the disabled member, benefits as provided in subsection (5) of this section except that the monthly retirement allowance payable shall not be less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the member's monthly final rate of pay; and

(b) For each dependent child of the member on his disability retirement date, who is alive at the time any particular payment is due, a monthly payment equal to ten percent (10%) of the disabled member's monthly final rate of pay; however, total maximum dependent children's benefit shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the member's monthly final rate of pay. The payments shall be payable to each dependent child, or to a legally-appointed guardian, or as directed by the system.

(7) No benefit provided in this section shall be reduced as a result of any change in the extent of disability of any retired member who is age fifty-five (55) or older.

(8) If a regular full-time officer or hazardous position member has been approved for benefits under a hazardous disability, the board shall, upon request of the member, permit the member to receive the hazardous disability allowance while accruing benefits in a nonhazardous position, subject to proper medical review of the nonhazardous position's job description by the system's medical examiner.

(9) For a member of the State Police Retirement System, in lieu of the allowance provided in subsection (5) or (6) of this section, the member may be retained on the regular payroll and receive the compensation authorized by KRS 16.165, if he is qualified.

Section 4. KRS 16.596 is amended to read as follows:

Once each year following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, or less frequently as determined by the board's medical examiner but not less than once every five (5) years, the system may require the member, prior to his normal retirement date, to undergo a medical examination and financial review. If the member refuses to submit to the medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of refusal, and if he continues to refuse for one (1) year, all his rights to any further disability allowance shall cease.

(c) Cost of the service credit purchased under this subsection shall be determined by computing the discounted value of the additional service credit based on an actuarial formula recommended by the board's consulting actuary and approved by the board. A department shall make payment for the service credit within the same fiscal year in which the option is elected. The county shall establish a payment schedule subject to approval by the board for payment of the service credit. The maximum period allowed in a payment schedule shall be ten (10) years with interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board; however, a shorter period is desirable and the board may approve any schedule provided it is not longer than a ten (10) year period;

(d) If a county or department elects the provisions of this subsection, any present employee who would be eligible to receive service credit under the provisions of this subsection and has purchased service credit under subsection (4) or (5) of this section shall have his payment for the service credit refunded with interest at the rate paid under KRS 61.575 or 78.640;

(12) Effective August 1, 1988, any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems may purchase service credit for seasonal, emergency, or temporary employment or part-time employment averaging one hundred (100) or more hours of work per month on a calendar or fiscal year basis. If the average number of hours of work is less than one hundred (100) per month, the member shall be allowed credit only for those months he receives creditable compensation for one hundred hours of work. The cost will be determined by computing the member and employer contributions for the period of time involved plus interest compounded annually at the current actuarial rate, which shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 61.560(4). Any noncertified employee of a school board may purchase service credit for part-time employment prior to the 1990-91 school year which averaged eighty (80) or more hours of work per month on a calendar or fiscal year basis by paying to the County Employees Retirement System a delayed contribution payment. (13) A retired member, who is contributing to one (1) of the state-administered retirement programs and purchases service credit under this section in the system or systems from which he is retired, shall have his retirement allowance recomputed:

The employee may also obtain credit for agency-approved leave to work for a work-related labor organization if the agency subsequently participated in the County Employees Retirement System, but only if the Kentucky Retirement Systems receives a favorable private letter ruling from the United States Internal Revenue Service or a favorable opinion letter from the United States Department of Labor. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4), by the employer, and shall be deposited to the individual member's account.

(15) Any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems may obtain credit for prior or current service for any period of approved maternity leave granted prior to January 1, 1972, or for any period of approved sick leave without pay, by paying to the respective retirement system a delayed contribution payment. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4), by the employer, and shall be deposited to

(a) The cost of the service shall be computed in the same manner as for a lump-sum payment which shall be the principal; and interest, at the actuarial rate in effect at the time the member elects to make the purchase compounded annually, shall be added for the period that the installments are to be made. Multiple service purchases may be combined under a single installment purchase; however, no employee may make more than one (1) installment purchase at the same time. The employee may elect to stop the installment payments by notifying the retirement system; may have the installment purchase recalculated to add one (1) or more additional service purchases; or may pay by lump sum the remaining principal.

(b) Twelve (12) consecutive monthly installment payments shall be made for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) or any part thereof of the total cost, except that the total number of installments shall not be less than twelve (12) and shall not exceed sixty (60).

(c) The employee shall pay the installments by payroll deduction each pay period. Upon notification by the retirement system, the employer shall report the installment payments separate from regular employee contributions on the forms or by the computer format specified by the board. The payments made under this subsection shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member and shall not be picked up by the employer pursuant to KRS 61.560(4) and no employer contributions shall be paid on the installments.

The first service credited shall represent the first calendar month of the service to be purchased and each succeeding month of service credit shall represent the succeeding months of that service.

(e) If the employee dies, retires, or does not continue employment in a position required to participate in the retirement system, the member, or in the case of death, the beneficiary, shall have sixty (60) days to pay the remaining principal of the purchase by lump sum. If the member or beneficiary does not pay the remaining cost, the retirement system shall refund to the member or the beneficiary the payment, payments, or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(f) If the employer does not report installment payments on an employee for sixty (60) days, the installment purchase shall cease and the retirement system shall refund to the employee the payment, payments, or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(g) If payments have ceased under subsection (16)(e) or (f) of this section and the member later becomes a participating employee in one (1) of the three (3) systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems, the employee may complete the adjusted original installment purchase by lump sum or installment payments. If the employee elects to renew the installment purchase, the cost of the remaining service shall be recalculated in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection. If the original installment purchase was for multiple service purchases, the employee may not separate those purchases under a new installment purchase.

(h) Any employee participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems may purchase service credit under any of the provisions of KRS 16.510 to 16.652, KRS 61.515 to 61.705, or KRS 78.520 to 78.852 by transferring funds directly from a retirement plan maintained by his employer which is a qualified plan pursuant to Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a rollover of funds from the plan pursuant to the rules specified in Section 402(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and the Kentucky Retirement Systems shall accept the transfer or rollover to the extent permitted under the rules specified in Section 402 (c) and Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code. (2) After August 1, 1998, any member of the system who, prior to the date he first participated in the system, terminated his employment in order to enter the Armed Forces of the United States and who returns to work with an employer participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems~~[was or is reemployed]~~ within two (2) years after his honorable discharge therefrom, or upon the subsequent termination of any total disability which existed at the expiration of the two (2) years after discharge, shall be entitled to have credited as prior service his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces, not to exceed six (6) years.

(3) Any National Guard technician involuntarily serving on active military duty during the period between January 26, 1968, and January 1, 1970, who completes his eight (8) years service while on military duty during this period, shall have that portion of his active military duty, necessary to the completion of eight (8) years current service, credited to his account, as current service without having to meet the reemployment criteria.

(4) Any employee eligible for retirement as prescribed in KRS 61.559 or any employee upon completion of five (5) years of service shall receive current service credit for a maximum of four (4) years for his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, if his discharge therefrom is honorable and he has not been credited with the service under subsections (1) to (3) of this section if he pays thirty-five percent (35%) of the cost of the service based on the formula adopted by the board. (5) A member eligible to purchase military service credit under subsection (4) of this section shall receive current service credit for active military duty as provided under subsection (4) of this section without payment of the current employee contribution ratio if the member was taken prisoner by a hostile power at any time during active military service.

years for his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, if his discharge therefrom is honorable and he has not been credited with the service under subsections (1) to (4) of this section, by paying the retirement system a delayed contribution payment as defined in subsection (22) of KRS 61.510. Payment shall be by lump sum, except that members may pay by increments. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in subsection (4) of KRS 61.560, by the employer and shall be deposited to the individual member's account.

(7) Effective July 1, 1978, no veteran shall be eligible to purchase military service credit under this section if he is receiving a military pension or is eligible for such pension in the future; but nothing in this section shall prohibit the purchase of credit if the military pension results from service primarily on inactive duty in a reserve component of the Armed Forces, or if the military pension is a disability pension, or is for a veteran sixty-five (65) years of age or older who is considered permanently and totally disabled. Any veteran receiving a military disability pension who retired prior to July 15, 1986, who was unable to purchase military service credit pursuant to subsection (4) or subsection (6) of this section, may make the payment required by subsection (4) or subsection (6), and his retirement benefits shall be recalculated to apply to all retirement allowances and insurance benefits received after the date of the payment. (d) The person shall receive a satisfactory determination pursuant to KRS 61.665; and

(e) No disability application based on the same claim of incapacity shall be accepted and considered for disability for any person who has previously applied for and been denied disability benefits unless it[~~an application based on the same claim of incapacity~~] is accompanied by evidence of a substantial change in the person's condition which shall satisfy subsection (4) of this section. The application shall be on file in the retirement office no later than twenty-four (24) months after the person's last day of paid employment in a regular full-time position.

(2) Upon the examination of the objective medical evidence by licensed physicians pursuant to KRS 61.665, it shall be determined that:

(a) The person, since his last day of paid employment, has been mentally or physically incapacitated to perform the job, or jobs of like duties, from which he received his last paid employment. In determining whether the person may return to a job of like duties, any reasonable accommodation by the employer as provided in 42 U.S.C. sec. 12111(9) and 29 C. F. R. Part 1630 shall be considered;

(c) The incapacity is deemed to be permanent; and

(d) The incapacity does not result directly or indirectly from bodily injury, mental illness, disease, or condition which pre-existed membership in the system or reemployment, whichever is most recent. For purposes of this subsection, reemployment shall not mean a change of employment between employers participating in the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems with no loss of service credit.

(3) Paragraph (d) of subsection (2) shall not apply if:

(a) The incapacity is a result of bodily injury, mental illness, disease, or condition which has been substantially aggravated by an injury or accident arising out of or in the course of employment; or

(b) The person has at least sixteen (16) years current or prior service for employment with employers participating in the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems.

(4) (a) 1. An incapacity shall be deemed to be permanent if it is expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months from the person's last day of paid employment in a regular full-time position.

2. The determination of a permanent incapacity shall be based on the medical evidence contained in the member's file and the member's residual functional capacity and physical exertion requirements.

(b) The person's residual functional capacity shall be the person's capacity for work activity on a regular and continuing basis. The person's physical ability shall be assessed in light of the severity of the person's physical, mental, and other impairments. The person's ability to walk, stand, carry, push, pull, reach, handle, and other physical functions shall be considered with regard to physical impairments. The person's ability to understand, remember, and carry out instructions and respond appropriately to supervision, coworkers, and work pressures in a work setting shall be considered with regard to mental impairments. Other impairments, including skin impairments, epilepsy, visual sensory impairments, postural and manipulative limitations, and environmental restrictions, shall be considered in conjunction with the person's physical and mental impairments to determine residual functional capacity.

(c) The person's physical exertion requirements shall be determined based on the following standards:

1. Sedentary work shall be work that involves lifting no more than ten (10) pounds at a time and occasionally lifting or carrying articles such as large files, ledgers, and small tools. Although a sedentary job primarily involves sitting, occasional walking and standing may also be required in the performance of duties.

2. Light work shall be work that involves lifting no more than twenty (20) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to ten (10) pounds. A job shall be in this category if lifting is infrequently required but walking and standing are frequently required, or if the job primarily requires sitting with pushing and pulling of arm or leg controls. If the person has the ability to perform substantially all of these activities, the person shall be deemed capable of light work. A person deemed capable of light work shall be deemed capable of sedentary work unless the person has additional limitations such as the loss of fine dexterity or inability to sit for long periods.

3. Medium work shall be work that involves lifting no more than fifty (50) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to twenty-five (25) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of medium work, the person shall be deemed capable of light and sedentary work.

4. Heavy work shall be work that involves lifting no more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to fifty (50) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of heavy work, the person shall also be deemed capable of medium, light, and sedentary work.

5. Very heavy work shall be work that involves lifting objects weighing more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing fifty (50) or more pounds. If the person is deemed capable of very heavy work, the person shall be deemed capable of heavy, medium, light, and sedentary work.

If, however, an employee has accumulated twenty-five (25) or more years of total service, he shall receive added service necessary to bring his combined service credit, including total and added service, to thirty (30) years. When the employee has accumulated total service of thirty (30) or more years, his total service shall be used in computing disability benefits. For employees hired on or after the effective date of this Act, the total service and added service for determining disability benefits shall not exceed twenty-seven (27) years.

Section 13. KRS 61.610 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Once each year following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, or less frequently as determined by the board's medical examiner but not less than once every five (5) years, the system may require the person, prior to his normal retirement date, to undergo a financial and medical staff review and, if necessary, be required to submit current medical information. If he refuses to submit to a medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of refusal, and if the refusal continues for one (1) year, all his rights to any further disability allowance shall cease.

(2) Disability retirees whose effective retirement date is August 1, 1988, or thereafter shall undergo an annual financial and medical staff review and, if necessary, be required to submit current medical information.

(1) The board shall employ at least three (3) physicians, practicing in the state and not members of the system, upon terms and conditions it prescribes to serve as medical examiners, whose duty it shall be to pass upon all medical examinations required under KRS 61.510 to 61.705, KRS 16.505 to 16.652, and KRS 78.510 to 78.852, to investigate all health or medical statements and certificates made by or in behalf of any person in connection with the payment of money to the person under KRS 61.510 to 61.705, KRS 16.505 to 16.652, and KRS 78.510 to 78.852, and who shall report in writing to the system the conclusions and recommendations upon all matters referred to them.

(2) (a) Each employee requesting disability retirement shall furnish the retirement office with the names and addresses of two (2) or more physicians who have the necessary information to report the employee's physical and mental condition. The employee shall also file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] a complete description of the job and duties from which he received his last pay as well as evidence that the employee has made a request for reasonable accommodation as provided for in 42 U.S.C. sec. 12111(9) and 29 C.F.R. Part 1630.

(b) The employer shall file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] a complete description of the job and duties for which the employee was last paid and shall submit a detailed description of reasonable accommodations attempted.

(c) The board shall prescribe forms upon which medical evidence shall be recorded. The forms shall be sent to the employee's physicians with the request that the documents be completed and filed at the retirement office.

(d) The cost of a medical examination shall be paid by the employee. The physicians shall be paid a reasonable amount by the retirement system for the filing of the medical report with the retirement office, pursuant to an administrative regulation promulgated by the board.

(e) The system shall select a medical examiner to evaluate the medical evidence submitted by the employee's physician. The examiner shall recommend that disability retirement be approved, or that disability retirement be denied. If the medical examiner recommends denial of disability benefits, the system shall submit the member's application to two (2) additional medical examiners. Both of the additional medical examiners shall recommend approval of disability benefits to overturn the original recommendation. Recommendations by the examiners shall be submitted to the board for approval.

(f) If the medical examiners recommend that the employee be approved for disability retirement, the general manager shall make retirement payments in accordance with the retirement plan selected by the employee.

(g) If the medical examiners recommend that the employee be denied disability retirement, the general manager shall notify the employee of this recommendation. The employee shall have sixty (60) days to file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] additional medical information[~~ to the retirement office~~] or to appeal his denial for disability benefits by filing at the retirement office a request for[~~requesting~~] a formal hearing. An extension of time may be granted by the system for a medical examiner to evaluate additional medical information. The extensions of time shall not be for more than sixty (60) days for any one (1) extension, and no more than three (3) extensions shall be granted. The cumulative extension of time shall not exceed one hundred twenty (120) days. The extension of time shall end upon request of a formal hearing.

(h) The medical examiners shall be paid a reasonable amount by the retirement system for each case evaluated.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the system may pay for one (1) or more medical examinations requested by the examiners for the purpose of providing medical information deemed necessary by the examiners. The system may direct that a specialist be sought.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a final order or determination of the system may file at the retirement office a request that a hearing be conducted by the system in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The right to demand a hearing shall be limited to a period of sixty (60) days after the requester has had notice, as described in subsection (6) of this section, of the system's determination. If any extensions of time are granted by the system, they shall be as provided for in subsection (2)(g) of this section.

(a) Any person whose disability benefits have been reduced, discontinued, or denied pursuant to subsection (2)(g) of this section or KRS 61.615(1) may file at the retirement office a request for an administrative hearing with the system. The right to demand a hearing shall be limited to a period of sixty (60) days after the requester has had notice, as described in subsection (6) of this section, of the system's determination. The request shall be filed with the general manager, at the system's central office in Frankfort. The request for a hearing shall include a short and plain statement of the reasons the reduction, discontinuance, or denial of disability benefits is being contested. The request shall not operate as a stay of any reduction, discontinuance, or denial of benefits.

(b) Failure of the member to request a formal hearing within the period of time specified shall preclude the member from proceeding any further with his cause of action, except as provided in KRS 61.600(1)(e). This paragraph shall not limit the member's right to appeal to a court.

(c) The system may require the member requesting the formal hearing to submit to one (1) or more medical or psychological examinations. Notice of the time and place of the examination shall be mailed to the member or his legal representative. The system shall be responsible for the cost of the examination.

(d) A final order of the board shall be based on substantial evidence appearing in the record as a whole and shall set forth the decision of the board and the facts and law upon which the decision is based.

(e) A final order of the board which alters or amends the decision recommended pursuant to subsection (2)(g) of this section shall relate back and take effect on the date of the recommendation.

(f) All requests for a hearing pursuant to this section shall be made in writing.

(4) The board may establish an appeals committee whose members shall be appointed by the chairman and who shall have the authority to act upon the recommendations and reports of the hearing officer pursuant to this section on behalf of the board.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the board may seek judicial review after all administrative appeals have been exhausted by filing a petition for judicial review in the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(6) The system, pursuant to regulations, may refer an employee determined by it to be disabled to the Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation for evaluation and, if appropriate, retraining.

(a) The cost of the evaluation and retraining shall be paid by the system in accordance with the regulations established by the board.

(b) The member shall perform all acts that are necessary to enroll in and satisfy the requirements of Vocational Rehabilitation as prescribed by the board. This shall include the exchange of confidential information between Kentucky Retirement Systems and the Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation as necessary to conduct the rehabilitation process. Failure of the member to cooperate with the system or Vocational Rehabilitation may result in his disability allowance being discontinued, reduced, or denied until the member complies with the agency requests. If the refusal continues for one (1) year, all his rights to any further disability allowance shall cease.

Section 18. KRS 61.675 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The employer shall prepare the records and, from time to time, shall furnish the information the system may require in the discharge of its duties. Upon employment of an employee, the employer shall inform him of his duties and obligations in connection with the system as a condition of employment.

(2) The system may at any time conduct an audit of the employer in order to determine if the employer is complying with the provisions of KRS 16.505 to 16.652, 61.610 to 61.705, or 78.510 to 78.852. The system shall have access to and may examine all books, accounts, reports, correspondence files, and records of any employer. Every employer, employee, or agency reporting official of a department or county, as defined in KRS 78.510(3), having records in his possession or under his control, shall permit access to and examination of the records upon the request of the system.

(3) Any agency participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System which is not an integral part of the executive branch of state government shall forward the employer and employee contributions required under KRS 61.560 and 61.565 to the retirement office within twenty (20) days of the tenth day of the month following the period being reported. If the agency fails to forward all contributions within the twenty (20) days, interest at the actuarial rate adopted by the board compounded annually on the delinquent contributions, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100), shall be added to the amount due the system.

Section 19. KRS 61.680 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Prior to August 1, 1982, every employee shall be deemed to consent and agree to any deduction from his compensation required by KRS 6.500 to 6.535, 16.510 to 16.652, 61.510 to 61.692, 78.510 to 78.852, and to all other provisions thereof. Thereafter, employee contributions shall be picked up by the employer pursuant to KRS 61.560(4).

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS 6.500 to 6.535, 16.510 to 16.652, 61.510 to 61.692, 78.510 to 78.852 and 161.220 to 161.714, upon death, disability, or service retirement, a member's accounts under the Legislators' Retirement Plan, State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System and Teachers' Retirement System shall be consolidated for the purpose of determining eligibility and amount of benefits. Vested service credit in a retirement system, other than the Teachers' Retirement System, sponsored by a Kentucky institution of higher education and accepted by the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System, may be used to determine eligibility for thirty (30) year retirement but not the amount of benefits. The computation of benefits shall be based on the applicable formula in each system and service credit in each system, but the final compensation shall be determined as if all service were in one (1) system. If the member has prior service in more than one (1) system, he shall obtain at least twelve (12) months' current service in each system in which he has prior service in order to validate the prior service in each system for purposes of determining consolidated benefits under this section. Upon the determination of benefits, each system shall pay the applicable percentage of total benefits.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be waived if the member notifies the system of his desire to maintain separate retirement accounts in the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System, or if he is a member of the State Police Retirement System or is working in a hazardous position under the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System and as a result of an act in line of duty, becomes disabled or deceased.

(c) If the member has not contributed at least one (1) year in a system in which he has prior service, his current service in the system shall be valid for purposes of determining eligibility and in computation of benefits on a consolidated basis.

(3) A member with service credit in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System who becomes the holder of an office entitling him to membership in the Judicial Retirement Plan or the Legislators' Retirement Plan, but who does not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office in such service to participate in the plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505 or 21.360, shall be deemed to have elected to retain membership in the system in which he is a member, either the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System. In that event, the agency employing the member shall withhold employee contributions, or picked-up employee contributions after August 2, 1982, make employer contributions and remit these contributions to the system in which the member retained his membership. Any person entitled to membership in the Judicial Retirement Plan or the Legislators' Retirement Plan, who does-not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office to participate in the plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505 or 21.360, and who at the time of taking office is not a contributing member of, or does not have service credit in, any of the retirement systems mentioned in this section, or the Teachers' Retirement System, shall participate in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System.

(4) (a) Prior to July 1, 1976, a person entering the service of an employer participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System with service credit in the Teachers' Retirement System and who desires to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System, and who is permitted by that system to continue, shall be exempt from participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System.

(b) Any person who has elected to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection may cancel his election and participate in the system under which his position would normally participate, if he elects to cancel his option prior to January 1, 1977.

(c) Any member of the General Assembly who upon election is a contributing member of the Teachers' Retirement System and who does not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office to participate in the Legislators' Retirement Plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505, shall during his term of office participate in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System unless an election to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System is filed in writing within ninety (90) days after his term of office begins. No contributions may be made to the Teachers' Retirement System for the same period of service under the Legislators' Retirement Plan or the Kentucky Employees Retirement System as a member of the General Assembly, but contributions made to the Teachers' Retirement System while a member of the General Assembly shall be transferred to the Legislators' Retirement Plan, as provided for in KRS 6.535, when the member elects to join the Legislators' Retirement Plan, and service credit in the Legislators' Retirement Plan shall be granted as provided for in KRS 6.505(3).

(5) Effective July 1, 1974, any member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System who is working in a position covered by one (1) of these retirement systems and his employee contributions, service credit and employer contributions made on his behalf are being transferred to the other retirement system shall contribute to the system in which his employer participates, or after August 1, 1982, the employer shall pick up the employee contributions, and no further contributions or service credit shall be transferred to the system in which he elected to retain membership, as subsection (2) of this section eliminates the necessity of the transfers.

(6) Any member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System who is working in more than one (1) position covered by the same retirement system, shall have his wages and contributions consolidated and his retirement account administered as a single account. If part-time positions are involved, an accumulation of all hours worked within the same retirement system shall be used to determine eligibility under KRS 61.510(21).

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a person who does not have the amount of service required for service retirement in the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, Legislators' Retirement Plan, or Teachers' Retirement System, but who is a member of one (1) of the systems or is a former member of one (1) or more of the systems with valid service credit therein, shall become eligible for service retirement benefits attributable to the amount of his actual service credit in each system in which he has service credit when his combined service credit in all the systems, plus any service credit he has in the Judicial Retirement Plan~~[or Legislators' Retirement Plan]~~, is equal to that required for service retirement in each respective system. The computation of benefits shall be based on the applicable formula in each system and service credit in each system.~~[, but]~~ The final compensation shall be determined by using the creditable compensation reported to the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, Legislators' Retirement Plan, or Teachers' Retirement System and only as much of the compensation earned in the Judicial Retirement Plan as is needed to satisfy the final compensation requirement applicable in the respective retirement systems~~[as if all service were in one (1) system]~~.

Section 20. KRS 61.702 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of trustees of Kentucky Retirement Systems shall arrange by appropriate contract or on a self-insured basis to provide a group hospital and medical insurance plan for present and future recipients of a retirement allowance from the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, and State Police Retirement System. The board shall also arrange to provide health care coverage by health maintenance organizations, as defined in KRS 18A.225, as an alternative to group hospital and medical insurance for any person eligible for hospital and medical benefits under this section. Any person who chooses coverage by a health maintenance organization shall pay, by payroll deduction from the retirement allowance or by another method, the difference in premium between the cost of health maintenance organization coverage and the benefits to which he would be entitled under this section. The board may authorize present and future recipients of a retirement allowance from any of the three (3) retirement systems, who are under age sixty-five (65), to be included in the state employees' group for hospital and medical insurance and shall provide benefits for recipients equal to those provided to state employees having the same Medicare hospital and medical insurance eligibility status.

(2) Each employer participating in the State Police Retirement System as provided for in KRS 16.510 to 16.652, each employer participating in the County Employees Retirement System as provided in KRS 78.510 to 78.852, and each employer participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided for in KRS 61.510 to 61.705 shall contribute to the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund the amount necessary to provide hospital and medical insurance as provided for under this section. Such employer contribution rate shall be developed by appropriate actuarial method as a part of the determination of each respective employer contribution rate to each respective retirement system determined under KRS 61.565.

(3) (a) The premium required to provide hospital and medical benefits under this section shall be paid:

1. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by the recipient of a retirement allowance, by payroll deduction, or otherwise;

2. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund;

3. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by another state-administered retirement system under a reciprocal arrangement, except that any portion of the premium paid from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund under a reciprocal agreement shall not exceed the amount that would be payable under this section if all the member's service were in one (1) of the systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems; or

4. Partly from subparagraphs 1., 2., or 3., except that any premium for hospital and medical insurance over the amount contributed by the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund or another state-administered retirement system under a reciprocal agreement shall be paid by the recipient.

(b) The board shall determine the amount of the monthly contribution from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund for a recipient to provide benefits equal to those provided to state employees, which may include cross-referencing with employed members or spouses participating in the same group insurance plan. If the board provides for cross-referencing of insurance premiums, the employer's contribution for the working member or spouse shall be applied toward the premium, and the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund shall pay the balance, not to exceed the monthly contribution. Where the recipient is retired from the State Police Retirement System or retired from a hazardous position as defined in KRS 61.592, the board shall determine the monthly contributions to be paid for a recipient with one (1) or more dependents.

(c) 1. The monthly contribution from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund as determined by the board shall be paid in full from the insurance fund for all recipients of a retirement allowance from any of the three (3) retirement systems where such recipient is a retired former member of one (1) or more of the three (3) retirement systems (not a beneficiary or dependent child receiving benefits) and had two hundred and forty (240) months or more of service upon retirement.

2. If the[~~Should such~~] recipient has[~~have~~] less than two hundred forty (240) months of service but[~~ have~~] at least one hundred eighty (180) months of service, seventy-five percent (75%) of the monthly contribution[~~such premium~~] shall be paid from the insurance fund provided the[~~such~~] recipient agrees to pay the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) by payroll deduction from his retirement allowance or by another method.

3. If the[~~Should such~~] recipient has[~~have~~] less than one hundred eighty (180) months of service but have at least one hundred twenty (120) months of service, fifty percent (50%) of the monthly contribution[~~such premium~~] shall be paid from the insurance fund provided the[~~such~~] recipient agrees to pay the remaining fifty percent (50%) by payroll deduction from his retirement allowance or by another method.

4. If the[~~Should such~~] recipient has[~~have~~] less than one hundred twenty (120) months of service but have at least forty-eight (48) months of service, twenty-five percent (25%) of the monthly contribution[~~such premium~~] shall be paid from the insurance fund provided the[~~such~~] recipient agrees to pay the remaining seventy-five percent (75%) by payroll deduction from his retirement allowance or by another method.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, a State Police Retirement System member or a hazardous position employee, as defined in KRS 61.592, who becomes disabled in the line of duty, as defined in KRS 16.505(19), shall have the monthly contribution[~~his premium~~] paid in full as if he had two hundred forty (240) months or more of service. Further, a State Police Retirement System member or a hazardous position employee as defined in KRS 61.592, who is killed in the line of duty, as defined in KRS 16.505(19), shall have the premium for the beneficiary, if the beneficiary is the member's spouse, and for each dependent child paid so long as they individually remain eligible for a monthly retirement benefit.

6. "Months of service" as used in this section shall mean the total months of combined service used to determine benefits under any or all of the three (3) retirement systems, except service added to determine disability benefits shall not be counted as "months of service."

(d)[~~(b)~~] For a member of the County Employees Retirement System, "months of service" shall include, in addition to service as described in paragraph (c)[~~(a)~~] of this subsection, service for which benefits are eligible under KRS 21.345 to 21.510.

1. Upon request by a member, the Kentucky Retirement Systems shall compute the member's combined service, including service credit in the Judicial Retirement System, and calculate the portion of the member's premium to be paid by the County Employees Retirement System, according to the criteria established in paragraph (c)[~~(a)~~] of this subsection. The Judicial Retirement Fund annually shall pay to the County Employees Retirement System the percentage of the system's cost of the retiree's hospital and medical premium which shall be equal to the percentage of the member's number of months of service in the Judicial Retirement System divided by his total combined service. The amounts paid by the Judicial Retirement Fund and the County Employees Retirement System shall not be more than one hundred percent (100%) of the monthly contribution[~~single premium amount~~] adopted by the respective boards of trustees or more than the maximum percentage payable under the program established under this section or KRS 21.427.

2. A member who elects hospital and medical benefits under this subsection shall lose any claim to insurance benefits under the Judicial Retirement Plan as described in KRS 21.427, and the election shall be irrevocable.

(4) (a) Group rates under the hospital and medical insurance plan shall be made available to the spouse, dependents, and disabled children, regardless of the disabled child's age, of a recipient who is a former member or the beneficiary, if the premium for the spouse, dependent, disabled child, or beneficiary hospital and medical insurance is paid by payroll deduction from the retirement allowance or by another method. A child shall be considered disabled if he has been determined to be eligible for federal Social Security disability benefits.

(b) The other provisions of this section notwithstanding, the insurance fund shall pay a[~~the same~~] percentage of the monthly contribution[~~premium~~] for the spouse and dependents of a recipient who was a member of the General Assembly and is receiving a retirement allowance based on General Assembly service, of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System and determined to be in a hazardous position, of the County Employees Retirement System, and determined to be in a hazardous position or of the State Police Retirement System, or the beneficiary of the member, if the member designated only one (1) person as beneficiary[~~, as the fund pays or paid for the member~~]. The percentage of the monthly contribution paid for the spouse and dependents shall be based solely on the member's service with the State Police Retirement System or service in a hazardous position using the formula in subsection (3)(c) of this section.

(c) The insurance fund shall continue the same level of coverage for a recipient who was a member of the County Employees Retirement System after the age of sixty-five (65) as before the age of sixty-five (65), if the recipient is not eligible for Medicare coverage. If the insurance fund provides coverage for the spouse or dependents or beneficiary of a former member of the County Employees Retirement System, the insurance fund shall continue the same level of coverage for the spouse or dependent or beneficiary after the age of sixty-five (65) as before the age of sixty-five (65), if the spouse or dependent or beneficiary is not eligible for Medicare coverage.

(5) Premiums paid for hospital and medical insurance coverage procured under authority of this section shall be exempt from any premium tax which might otherwise be required under KRS Chapter 136. The payment of premiums by the insurance fund shall not constitute taxable income to an insured recipient. No commission shall be paid for hospital and medical insurance procured under authority of this section.

(b) For noncertified employees of school boards, service credit shall be allowed for each month contributions are deducted or picked up under the employee's employment contract during a school year determined by dividing the actual number of contracted days worked by twenty (20) and rounded to the nearest whole month if the employee receives creditable compensation for an average of eighty (80) or more hours of work per month based on the employee's employment contract. (a) A member on military leave shall be entitled to service credit in accordance with KRS 61.555; and

(b) A member on educational leave who meets the criteria established by the state Department of Personnel for approved educational leave, who is receiving seventy-five percent (75%) or more of full salary, shall receive service credit and shall pay member contributions in accordance with KRS 78.610, and his employer shall pay employer contributions or the contributions shall be picked up in accordance with KRS 61.565. If a tuition agreement is broken by the member, the member and employer contributions paid or picked up during the period of educational leave shall be refunded.

Section 24. KRS 78.616 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any agency participating in the County Employees Retirement System which has formally adopted a sick-leave program that is universally administered to its employees may purchase service credit with the retirement system for up to six (6) months of unused sick-leave for each retiring employee.

(2) Participation under this section shall be at the option of each participating employer. The election to participate shall be made by the governing authority of the participating employer and shall be certified in writing to the system on forms prescribed by the board. The certification shall provide for equal treatment of all employees.

(3) (a) Upon the member's notification of retirement as prescribed in KRS 61.590, the employer shall certify the retiring employee's unused, accumulated sick-leave balance to the system. The member's sick-leave balance, expressed in days, shall be divided by the average number of working days per month in county service and rounded to the nearest number of whole months. A maximum of six (6) months of the member's sick-leave balance, expressed in months, shall be added to his service credit for the purpose of determining his annual retirement allowance under KRS 78.510 to 78.852 and for the purpose of determining whether the member is eligible to receive a retirement allowance under KRS 78.510 to 78.852. Accumulated sick-leave in excess of six (6) months shall be added to the member's service credit if the member or employer pays to the retirement system the value of the additional service credit based on the formula adopted by the board.

(b) The employer may elect to pay fifty percent (50%) of the cost of the sick leave in excess of six (6) months on behalf of its employees. The employee shall pay the remaining fifty percent (50%). The payment by the employer shall not be deposited to the member's account. Service credit shall not be credited to the member's account until both the employer's and employee's payments are received by the retirement system.

(c) Once the employer elects to pay all or fifty percent (50%) of the cost on behalf of its employees, it shall continue to pay the same portion of the cost.

(4) The system shall compute the cost of the sick-leave credit of each retiring employee and bill the employer accordingly. The employer shall remit payment within thirty (30) days from receipt of the bill.

(5) As an alternative to subsections (1), (3), and (4) of this section, any agency participating in the County Employees Retirement System which has formally adopted a sick-leave program that is universally administered to its employees shall, at the time of termination, compensate the employee for unused sick-leave days the employee has accumulated which it is the uniform policy of the agency to allow. The rate of compensation for each unused sick-leave day shall be based on the daily salary rate calculated from the employee's current rate of pay. Payment for unused sick-leave days shall be incorporated into the employee's final compensation~~[annual salary of the final year of service]~~, if the employee and employer make the regular employee and employer contributions, respectively, on the sick-leave payment. The number of sick-leave days for which the employee is compensated shall be divided by the average number of working days per month in county service and rounded to the nearest number of whole months. This number of months shall be added to the employee's total service credit and to the number of months used to determine creditable compensation, pursuant to KRS 78.510, but no more than sixty (60) months shall be used to determine final compensation.

Section 25. KRS 78.625 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The agency reporting official of the county shall, by the tenth day of each month, forward to the system an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the employees' contributions deducted during the previous month in accordance with KRS 78.610 and the aggregate amount of the employer's contributions due for the previous month in accordance with KRS 61.565.

(2) The agency reporting official or some other person designated by the county shall forward a record of all contributions to the system on the forms the board prescribes.

(3) (a) If the agency reporting official fails to forward all contributions within twenty (20) days of the tenth day of the month following the period being reported, interest at the actuarial rate adopted by the board~~[of eight percent (8%) per year]~~ compounded annually on the delinquent contributions, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100), shall be added to the amount due the system.

(b) Delinquent contributions, with interest at the rate adopted by the board~~[of eight percent (8%) per year]~~ compounded annually, or penalties may be recovered by action in the Franklin Circuit Court against the county liable or may, at the request of the board, be deducted from any other moneys payable to the county by any department or agency of the state.

(4) If an agency is delinquent in the payment of contributions due in accordance with any of the provisions of KRS 78.510 to 78.852, refunds and retirement allowance payments to members of this agency may be suspended until the delinquent contributions have been made.

2. The determination of a permanent incapacity shall be based on the medical evidence contained in the member's file and the member's residual functional capacity and physical exertion requirements.

(b) The person's residual functional capacity shall be the person's capacity for work activity on a regular and continuing basis. The person's physical ability shall be assessed in light of the severity of the person's physical, mental, and other impairments. The person's ability to understand, remember, and carry out instructions and respond appropriately to supervision, coworkers, and work pressures in a work setting shall be considered with regard to mental impairments. Other impairments, including skin impairments, epilepsy, visual sensory impairments, postural and manipulative limitations, and environmental restrictions, shall be considered in conjunction with the person's physical and mental impairments to determine residual functional capacity.

(c) The person's physical exertion requirements shall be determined based on the following standards:

1. Sedentary work shall be work that involves lifting no more than ten (10) pounds at a time and occasionally lifting or carrying articles such as large files, ledgers, and small tools. Although a sedentary job primarily involves sitting, occasional walking and standing may also be required in the performance of duties.

2. Light work shall be work that involves lifting no more than twenty (20) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to ten (10) pounds. A job shall be in this category if lifting is infrequently required but walking and standing are frequently required, or if the job primarily requires sitting with pushing and pulling of arm or leg controls. If the person has the ability to perform substantially all of these activities, the person shall be deemed capable of light work. A person deemed capable of light work shall be deemed capable of sedentary work unless the person has additional limitations such as the loss of fine dexterity or inability to sit for long periods.

3. Medium work shall be work that involves lifting no more than fifty (50) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to twenty-five (25) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of medium work, the person shall be deemed capable of light and sedentary work.

4. Heavy work shall be work that involves lifting no more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to fifty (50) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of heavy work, the person shall also be deemed capable of medium, light, and sedentary work.

5. Very heavy work shall be work that involves lifting objects weighing more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing fifty (50) or more pounds. If the person is deemed capable of very heavy work, the person shall be deemed capable of heavy, medium, light, and sedentary work.

(5) The disability retirement allowance shall be determined as provided in KRS 16.576, subject to the following:

(a) If the member's total service credit on his last day of paid employment in a regular full-time position is less than twenty (20) years, service shall be added beginning with his last date of paid employment and continuing to his fifty-fifth birthday. The maximum service credit added shall not exceed the total service the member had on his last day of paid employment, and the maximum service credit for calculating his retirement allowance, including his total service and service added under this section, shall not exceed twenty (20) years;

(b) If the member's total service credit on his last day of paid employment is twenty (20) or more years, then his total service credit shall be used.

(6) If the member receives a satisfactory determination of total and permanent disability or hazardous disability pursuant to KRS 61.665 and the disability is the direct result of an act in line of duty, the member's retirement allowance shall be calculated as follows:

(a) For the disabled member, benefits as provided in subsection (5) of this section except that the monthly retirement allowance payable shall not be less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the member's monthly final rate of pay; and

(b) For each dependent child of the member on his disability retirement date, who is alive at the time any particular payment is due, a monthly payment equal to ten percent (10%) of the disabled member's monthly final rate of pay; however, total maximum dependent children's benefit shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the member's monthly final rate of pay. The payments shall be payable to each dependent child, or to a legally-appointed guardian, or as directed by the system.

(7) No benefit provided in this section shall be reduced as a result of any change in the extent of disability of any retired member who is age fifty-five (55) or older.

(8) If a regular full-time officer or hazardous position member has been approved for benefits under a hazardous disability, the board shall, upon request of the member, permit the member to receive the hazardous disability allowance while accruing benefits in a nonhazardous position, subject to proper medical review of the nonhazardous position's job description by the system's medical examiner.

(9) For a member of the State Police Retirement System, in lieu of the allowance provided in subsection (5) or (6) of this section, the member may be retained on the regular payroll and receive the compensation authorized by KRS 16.165, if he is qualified.

Section 4. KRS 16.596 is amended to read as follows:

Once each year following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, or less frequently as determined by the board's medical examiner but not less than once every five (5) years, the system may require the member, prior to his normal retirement date, to undergo a medical examination and financial review. (a) Upon termination from employment, if the member is contributing to the same system or systems from which he was retired; or

(b) Upon completion of six (6) months' service credit as required under subsection (6) of this section, if the member is contributing to a system other than the system or systems from which he is retired.

(14) Any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems who has at least forty-eight (48) months of service if age sixty-five (65) or at least sixty (60) months of service if under age sixty-five (65) may obtain credit for prior or current service for any period of approved educational leave, or for agency-approved leave to work for a work-related labor organization if the agency subsequently participated in the County Employees Retirement System, by paying to the respective retirement system a delayed contribution payment. The employee may also obtain credit for agency-approved leave to work for a work-related labor organization if the agency subsequently participated in the County Employees Retirement System, but only if the Kentucky Retirement Systems receives a favorable private letter ruling from the United States Internal Revenue Service or a favorable opinion letter from the United States Department of Labor. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4), by the employer, and shall be deposited to the individual member's account.

(15) Any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems may obtain credit for prior or current service for any period of approved maternity leave granted prior to January 1, 1972, or for any period of approved sick leave without pay, by paying to the respective retirement system a delayed contribution payment. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4), by the employer, and shall be deposited to the individual member's account.

(16) Any employee participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems may purchase service credit under any of the provisions of KRS 16.510 to 16.652, KRS 61.515 to 61.705, or KRS 78.520 to 78.852 by making installment payments in lieu of a lump-sum payment.

(a) The cost of the service shall be computed in the same manner as for a lump-sum payment which shall be the principal; and interest, at the actuarial rate in effect at the time the member elects to make the purchase compounded annually, shall be added for the period that the installments are to be made. Multiple service purchases may be combined under a single installment purchase; however, no employee may make more than one (1) installment purchase at the same time. The employee may elect to stop the installment payments by notifying the retirement system; may have the installment purchase recalculated to add one (1) or more additional service purchases; or may pay by lump sum the remaining principal.

(b) Twelve (12) consecutive monthly installment payments shall be made for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) or any part thereof of the total cost, except that the total number of installments shall not be less than twelve (12) and shall not exceed sixty (60).

(c) The employee shall pay the installments by payroll deduction each pay period. Upon notification by the retirement system, the employer shall report the installment payments separate from regular employee contributions on the forms or by the computer format specified by the board. The payments made under this subsection shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member and shall not be picked up by the employer pursuant to KRS 61.560(4) and no employer contributions shall be paid on the installments.

(d) The retirement system shall determine how much of the total cost represents payment for one (1) month of the service to be purchased and shall credit one (1) month of service to the member's account each time this amount has been paid. The first service credited shall represent the first calendar month of the service to be purchased and each succeeding month of service credit shall represent the succeeding months of that service.

(e) If the employee dies, retires, or does not continue employment in a position required to participate in the retirement system, the member, or in the case of death, the beneficiary, shall have sixty (60) days to pay the remaining principal of the purchase by lump sum. If the member or beneficiary does not pay the remaining cost, the retirement system shall refund to the member or the beneficiary the payment, payments, or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(f) If the employer does not report installment payments on an employee for sixty (60) days, the installment purchase shall cease and the retirement system shall refund to the employee the payment, payments, or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(g) If payments have ceased under subsection (16)(e) or (f) of this section and the member later becomes a participating employee in one (1) of the three (3) systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems, the employee may complete the adjusted original installment purchase by lump sum or installment payments. If the employee elects to renew the installment purchase, the cost of the remaining service shall be recalculated in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection. If the original installment purchase was for multiple service purchases, the employee may not separate those purchases under a new installment purchase.

(h) Any employee participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems may purchase service credit under any of the provisions of KRS 16.510 to 16.652, KRS 61.515 to 61.705, or KRS 78.520 to 78.852 by transferring funds directly from a retirement plan maintained by his employer which is a qualified plan pursuant to Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a rollover of funds from the plan pursuant to the rules specified in Section 402(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and the Kentucky Retirement Systems shall accept the transfer or rollover to the extent permitted under the rules specified in Section 402 (c) and Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code. The amount shall be credited to the individual member's contribution account in the appropriate retirement system and shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member.

The employee may transfer funds directly from the other state's plan if eligible to the extent permitted under subsection (16)(h) of this section and to the extent permitted by the other state's laws and shall provide proof that he is not eligible for a retirement benefit for the period of service from the other state's plan.

The cost of the service shall be determined by computing the member and employer contributions for the period of time involved plus interest compounded annually at the current actuarial rate, which shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 61.560(4).

(22) Any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems on June 30, 2000, may obtain credit for subsequent service with a parted employer from the Commonwealth operating for the purposes of KRS 163.475, by paying to the respective retirement system a delayed contribution payment if the respective retirement system receives a favorable private letter ruling from the United States Internal Revenue Service or a favorable opinion letter from the United States Department of Labor. The delayed contribution payment shall be deposited to the individual member's account. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 61.560(4).

(23) Any employee participating in the County Employees Retirement System who has at least forty-eight (48) months of service if age sixty-five (65) or at least sixty (60) months of service if under age sixty-five (65) may purchase service credit for service with a city, county, or joint city-county planning commission, if that service was not covered by a state-administered retirement system. Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, the employee shall be entitled to a full month of service for each month or portion of month that the employee occupied the position whether or not the employee would have qualified, at the time of planning commission service, for the service under KRS 6.525. The employee shall pay to the retirement system the full cost of the service credit purchased, as determined by the board's actuary. The payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 78.610(4), by the employer and shall be deposited to the member's account. Payment may be by lump sum or in increments. The employee may obtain credit for service with a city, county, or joint city-county planning commission only if the Kentucky Retirement Systems receives a favorable letter ruling from the United States Internal Revenue Service or a favorable opinion letter from the United States Department of Labor.

No interest shall be added to the contributions. The service credit shall not be credited to the member's account until the employer contributions are received. If a retired member makes the payment within six (6) months, the retired member's retirement allowance shall be adjusted to reflect the added service after the employer contributions are received by the retirement system.

(b) Any employee participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems who is entitled to service credit under paragraph (a) of this subsection and who has not repaid the employee contributions due within six (6) months of notification by the system may regain the credit after the six (6) months by paying to the system the employee contributions plus interest at the actuarially assumed rate from the date of initial notification under paragraph (a) of this subsection. The payments shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4), by the employer.

(25) Any employee participating in one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems may purchase service credit for employment with a public agency that would have been eligible to participate under KRS 61.520 but which did not participate in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or a political subdivision that would have been eligible to participate under KRS 78.530 but which did not participate in the County Employees Retirement System if the former public agency or political subdivision has merged with or been taken over by a participating department or county. The cost of the service shall be determined as a delayed contribution payment for the respective retirement system. Payment may be made by lump sum or in increments. The payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 61.560(4) or KRS 78.610(4), by the employer.

Section 10. KRS 61.555 is amended to read as follows:

(2) After August 1, 1998, any member of the system who, prior to the date he first participated in the system, terminated his employment in order to enter the Armed Forces of the United States and who returns to work with an employer participating in one (1) of the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems[~~was or is reemployed~~] within two (2) years after his honorable discharge therefrom, or upon the subsequent termination of any total disability which existed at the expiration of the two (2) years after discharge, shall be entitled to have credited as prior service his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces, not to exceed six (6) years.

(3) Any National Guard technician involuntarily serving on active military duty during the period between January 26, 1968, and January 1, 1970, who completes his eight (8) years service while on military duty during this period, shall have that portion of his active military duty, necessary to the completion of eight (8) years current service, credited to his account, as current service without having to meet the reemployment criteria.

(4) Any employee eligible for retirement as prescribed in KRS 61.559 or any employee upon completion of five (5) years of service shall receive current service credit for a maximum of four (4) years for his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, if his discharge therefrom is honorable and he has not been credited with the service under subsections (1) to (3) of this section if he pays thirty-five percent (35%) of the cost of the service based on the formula adopted by the board. The payment by the member shall not be picked up by the employer, as described in subsection (4) of KRS 61.560, and shall be deposited to his individual member's account. The remaining sixty-five percent (65%) shall be paid by the state from funds appropriated specifically for the purpose and these payments shall be deposited to the respective retirement allowance accounts. If no funds are available in the special appropriation account, the system shall not accept employee payments until funds are available in the account.

(5) A member eligible to purchase military service credit under subsection (4) of this section shall receive current service credit for active military duty as provided under subsection (4) of this section without payment of the current employee contribution ratio if the member was taken prisoner by a hostile power at any time during active military service.

(6) Any member age sixty-five (65) or older who has forty-eight (48) months of service, at least twelve (12) of which are current service, or any other member who has sixty (60) months of service, at least twelve (12) of which are current service (or his beneficiary if the member dies prior to retirement) shall receive current service for a maximum of four (4) years for his period of active military duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, if his discharge therefrom is honorable and he has not been credited with the service under subsections (1) to (4) of this section, by paying the retirement system a delayed contribution payment as defined in subsection (22) of KRS 61.510. Payment shall be by lump sum, except that members may pay by increments. The delayed contribution payment shall not be picked up, as described in subsection (4) of KRS 61.560, by the employer and shall be deposited to the individual member's account.

(7) Effective July 1, 1978, no veteran shall be eligible to purchase military service credit under this section if he is receiving a military pension or is eligible for such pension in the future; but nothing in this section shall prohibit the purchase of credit if the military pension results from service primarily on inactive duty in a reserve component of the Armed Forces, or if the military pension is a disability pension, or is for a veteran sixty-five (65) years of age or older who is considered permanently and totally disabled. Any veteran receiving a military disability pension who retired prior to July 15, 1986, who was unable to purchase military service credit pursuant to subsection (4) or subsection (6) of this section, may make the payment required by subsection (4) or subsection (6), and his retirement benefits shall be recalculated to apply to all retirement allowances and insurance benefits received after the date of the payment. Retiree payments pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall not be accepted unless matching state funds are available in the special appropriation account.

Section 11. KRS 61.600 is amended to read as follows:

(c) The person's application shall be on file in the retirement office no later than twelve (12) months after the person's last day of paid employment, as defined in Section 6 of this Act, in a regular full-time position, as defined in Section 6 of this Act or Section 21 of this Act;

(d) The person shall receive a satisfactory determination pursuant to KRS 61.665; and

(e) No disability application based on the same claim of incapacity shall be accepted and considered for disability for any person who has previously applied for and been denied disability benefits unless it[~~an application based on the same claim of incapacity~~] is accompanied by evidence of a substantial change in the person's condition which shall satisfy subsection (4) of this section. The application shall be on file in the retirement office no later than twenty-four (24) months after the person's last day of paid employment in a regular full-time position.

(2) Upon the examination of the objective medical evidence by licensed physicians pursuant to KRS 61.665, it shall be determined that:

(a) The person, since his last day of paid employment, has been mentally or physically incapacitated to perform the job, or jobs of like duties, from which he received his last paid employment. In determining whether the person may return to a job of like duties, any reasonable accommodation by the employer as provided in 42 U.S.C. sec. 12111(9) and 29 C. F. R. Part 1630 shall be considered;

(b) The incapacity is a result of bodily injury, mental illness, or disease. For purposes of this section, "injury" means any physical harm or damage to the human organism other than disease or mental illness;

(c) The incapacity is deemed to be permanent; and

(d) The incapacity does not result directly or indirectly from bodily injury, mental illness, disease, or condition which pre-existed membership in the system or reemployment, whichever is most recent. For purposes of this subsection, reemployment shall not mean a change of employment between employers participating in the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems with no loss of service credit.

(3) Paragraph (d) of subsection (2) shall not apply if:

(a) The incapacity is a result of bodily injury, mental illness, disease, or condition which has been substantially aggravated by an injury or accident arising out of or in the course of employment; or

(b) The person has at least sixteen (16) years current or prior service for employment with employers participating in the retirement systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems.

(4) (a) 1. An incapacity shall be deemed to be permanent if it is expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months from the person's last day of paid employment in a regular full-time position.

2. The determination of a permanent incapacity shall be based on the medical evidence contained in the member's file and the member's residual functional capacity and physical exertion requirements.

(b) The person's residual functional capacity shall be the person's capacity for work activity on a regular and continuing basis. The person's physical ability shall be assessed in light of the severity of the person's physical, mental, and other impairments. The person's ability to walk, stand, carry, push, pull, reach, handle, and other physical functions shall be considered with regard to physical impairments. The person's ability to understand, remember, and carry out instructions and respond appropriately to supervision, coworkers, and work pressures in a work setting shall be considered with regard to mental impairments. Other impairments, including skin impairments, epilepsy, visual sensory impairments, postural and manipulative limitations, and environmental restrictions, shall be considered in conjunction with the person's physical and mental impairments to determine residual functional capacity.

(c) The person's physical exertion requirements shall be determined based on the following standards:

1. Sedentary work shall be work that involves lifting no more than ten (10) pounds at a time and occasionally lifting or carrying articles such as large files, ledgers, and small tools. Although a sedentary job primarily involves sitting, occasional walking and standing may also be required in the performance of duties.
2. Light work shall be work that involves lifting no more than twenty (20) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to ten (10) pounds. A job shall be in this category if lifting is infrequently required but walking and standing are frequently required, or if the job primarily requires sitting with pushing and pulling of arm or leg controls. If the person has the ability to perform substantially all of these activities, the person shall be deemed capable of light work. A person deemed capable of light work shall be deemed capable of sedentary work unless the person has additional limitations such as the loss of fine dexterity or inability to sit for long periods.
3. Medium work shall be work that involves lifting no more than fifty (50) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to twenty-five (25) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of medium work, the person shall be deemed capable of light and sedentary work.
4. Heavy work shall be work that involves lifting no more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing up to fifty (50) pounds. If the person is deemed capable of heavy work, the person shall also be deemed capable of medium, light, and sedentary work.
5. Very heavy work shall be work that involves lifting objects weighing more than one hundred (100) pounds at a time with frequent lifting or carrying of objects weighing fifty (50) or more pounds. If the person is deemed capable of very heavy work, the person shall be deemed capable of heavy, medium, light, and sedentary work.

(5) Persons who have previously qualified for disability retirement and have had benefits discontinued shall be reevaluated under the criteria of subsection (2) of this section.

Section 12. KRS 61.605 is amended to read as follows:

Upon disability retirement, an employee may receive an annual retirement allowance payable monthly during his lifetime which shall be determined in the same manner as for retirement at his normal retirement date with years of service and final compensation being determined as of the date of his disability except that service credit shall be added to the employee's total service beginning with his last date of paid employment and continuing to his sixty-fifth (65th) birthday; however, the maximum service credit added shall not exceed the total service the employee had upon his last day of paid employment, and the maximum combined service credit for calculating his disability retirement allowance, including total service and added service shall not exceed twenty-five (25) years. If, however, an employee has accumulated twenty-five (25) or more years of total service, he shall receive added service necessary to bring his combined service credit, including total and added service, to thirty (30) years. When the employee has accumulated total service of thirty (30) or more years, his total service shall be used in computing disability benefits. For employees hired on or after the effective date of this Act, the total service and added service for determining disability benefits shall not exceed twenty-seven (27) years.

Section 13. KRS 61.610 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Once each year following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, or less frequently as determined by the board's medical examiner but not less than once every five (5) years, the system may require the person, prior to his normal retirement date, to undergo a financial and medical staff review and, if necessary, be required to submit current medical information. If he refuses to submit to a medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of refusal, and if the refusal continues for one (1) year, all his rights to any further disability allowance shall cease.

(2) Disability retirees whose effective retirement date is August 1, 1988, or thereafter shall undergo an annual financial and medical staff review and, if necessary, be required to submit current medical information.

Section 14. KRS 61.625 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that the provisions of KRS 61.515 to 61.705, KRS 16.510 to 16.652, and KRS 78.520 to 78.852 conform with federal statute or regulation. All proceedings and records of the board shall be open for inspection by the public. The system shall make copies of the audit required by this subsection available for examination by any member, retiree, or beneficiary in the office of the general manager of the Kentucky Retirement Systems and in other places as necessary to make the audit available to all members, retirees, and beneficiaries. A copy of the annual audit shall be sent to the Legislative Research Commission no later than ten (10) days after receipt by the board.

2. Legal counsel, public accountants, actuaries, or other persons as to matters the trustee honestly believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
3. A committee of the board of trustees of which he is not a member if the trustee honestly believes the committee merits confidence.

(d) A trustee shall not be considered as acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (c) of this section unwarranted.

(e) Any action taken as a trustee, or any failure to take any action as a trustee, shall not be the basis for monetary damages or injunctive relief unless:

1. The trustee has breached or failed to perform the duties of the trustee's office in compliance with this section; and
2. In the case of an action for monetary damages, the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for human rights, safety, or property.

(f) A person bringing an action for monetary damages under this section shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence the provisions of paragraphs (e)1. and (e)2. of this subsection, and the burden of proving that the breach or failure to perform was the legal cause of damages suffered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems.

(g) Nothing in this section shall eliminate or limit the liability of any trustee for any act or omission occurring prior to July 15, 1988.

(16) When an order by the system substantially impairs the benefits or rights of a member, retired member, or recipient, except action which relates to entitlement to disability benefits, the affected member, retired member, or recipient may request a hearing to be held in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The member, retired member, or recipient aggrieved by a final order of the board following the hearing may appeal the decision to the Franklin Circuit Court, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

Section 16. KRS 61.650 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall be the trustee of the several funds created by KRS 16.510, 61.515, 61.701, and 78.520 and shall have full power to invest and reinvest such funds, subject to the limitations that no investments shall be made except in securities which, at the time of making the investment, are, by law, permitted for the investment of funds by fiduciaries in this state, except that the board may at its discretion purchase common stocks in corporations that do not have a record of paying dividends to their stockholders and may acquire real estate without obtaining the approval of the District Court as set forth in KRS 386.020(1)(h). Subject to such limitations, the board shall have full power to hold, purchase, sell, assign, transfer or dispose of, any of the securities or investments in which any of the funds created herein have been invested, as well as of the proceeds of such investments and any moneys belonging to such funds. The board members or any investment manager shall discharge their duties with respect to the assets of the several funds solely in the interest of the members and beneficiaries and:

(a) For the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to members and their beneficiaries and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the plan;

(b) With the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims; and

(2) All registered securities acquired under authority of KRS 61.510 to 61.705 shall be registered in the name "Kentucky Retirement Systems of the Commonwealth of Kentucky" or nominee name as provided by KRS 287.225 and every change in registration, by reason of sale or assignment of such securities, shall be accomplished by the signatures of the chairman or a trustee appointed by the chairman and the general manager of the board of trustees.

(3) The board, in keeping with its responsibility as trustee and wherever consistent with its fiduciary responsibilities, shall give priority to the investment of funds in obligation calculated to improve the industrial development and enhance the economic welfare of the Commonwealth.

(4) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering or feasibility estimates, and evaluations made by or for the system relative to the acquisition or disposition of property, until such time as all of the property has been acquired or sold, shall be excluded from the application of KRS 61.870 to 61.884 and shall be subject to inspection only upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 17. KRS 61.665 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall employ at least three (3) physicians, practicing in the state and not members of the system, upon terms and conditions it prescribes to serve as medical examiners, whose duty it shall be to pass upon all medical examinations required under KRS 61.510 to 61.705, KRS 16.505 to 16.652, and KRS 78.510 to 78.852, to investigate all health or medical statements and certificates made by or in behalf of any person in connection with the payment of money to the person under KRS 61.510 to 61.705, KRS 16.505 to 16.652, and KRS 78.510 to 78.852, and who shall report in writing to the system the conclusions and recommendations upon all matters referred to them.

(2) (a) Each employee requesting disability retirement shall furnish the retirement office with the names and addresses of two (2) or more physicians who have the necessary information to report the employee's physical and mental condition. The employee shall also file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] a complete description of the job and duties from which he received his last pay as well as evidence that the employee has made a request for reasonable accommodation as provided for in 42 U.S.C. sec. 12111(9) and 29 C.F.R. Part 1630.

(b) The employer shall file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] a complete description of the job and duties for which the employee was last paid and shall submit a detailed description of reasonable accommodations attempted.

(c) The board shall prescribe forms upon which medical evidence shall be recorded. The forms shall be sent to the employee's physicians with the request that the documents be completed and filed at the retirement office.

(d) The cost of a medical examination shall be paid by the employee. The physicians shall be paid a reasonable amount by the retirement system for the filing of the medical report with the retirement office, pursuant to an administrative regulation promulgated by the board.

(e) The system shall select a medical examiner to evaluate the medical evidence submitted by the employee's physician. The examiner shall recommend that disability retirement be approved, or that disability retirement be denied. If the medical examiner recommends denial of disability benefits, the system shall submit the member's application to two (2) additional medical examiners. Both of the additional medical examiners shall recommend approval of disability benefits to overturn the original recommendation. Recommendations by the examiners shall be submitted to the board for approval.

(f) If the medical examiners recommend that the employee be approved for disability retirement, the general manager shall make retirement payments in accordance with the retirement plan selected by the employee.

(g) If the medical examiners recommend that the employee be denied disability retirement, the general manager shall notify the employee of this recommendation. The employee shall have sixty (60) days to file at the retirement office[~~submit~~] additional medical information[~~ to the retirement office~~] or to appeal his denial for disability benefits by filing at the retirement office a request for[~~requesting~~] a formal hearing. An extension of time may be granted by the system for a medical examiner to evaluate additional medical information. The extensions of time shall not be for more than sixty (60) days for any one (1) extension, and no more than three (3) extensions shall be granted. The cumulative extension of time shall not exceed one hundred twenty (120) days. The extension of time shall end upon request of a formal hearing.

(h) The medical examiners shall be paid a reasonable amount by the retirement system for each case evaluated.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the system may pay for one (1) or more medical examinations requested by the examiners for the purpose of providing medical information deemed necessary by the examiners. The system may direct that a specialist be sought.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a final order or determination of the system may file at the retirement office a request that a hearing be conducted by the system in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The right to demand a hearing shall be limited to a period of sixty (60) days after the requester has had notice, as described in subsection (6) of this section, of the system's determination. If any extensions of time are granted by the system, they shall be as provided for in subsection (2)(g) of this section.

(a) Any person whose disability benefits have been reduced, discontinued, or denied pursuant to subsection (2)(g) of this section or KRS 61.615(1) may file at the retirement office a request for an administrative hearing with the system. The right to demand a hearing shall be limited to a period of sixty (60) days after the requester has had notice, as described in subsection (6) of this section, of the system's determination. The request shall be filed with the general manager, at the system's central office in Frankfort. The request for a hearing shall include a short and plain statement of the reasons the reduction, discontinuance, or denial of disability benefits is being contested. The request shall not operate as a stay of any reduction, discontinuance, or denial of benefits.

(b) Failure of the member to request a formal hearing within the period of time specified shall preclude the member from proceeding any further with his cause of action, except as provided in KRS 61.600(1)(e). This paragraph shall not limit the member's right to appeal to a court.

(c) The system may require the member requesting the formal hearing to submit to one (1) or more medical or psychological examinations. Notice of the time and place of the examination shall be mailed to the member or his legal representative. The system shall be responsible for the cost of the examination.

(d) A final order of the board shall be based on substantial evidence appearing in the record as a whole and shall set forth the decision of the board and the facts and law upon which the decision is based.

(e) A final order of the board which alters or amends the decision recommended pursuant to subsection (2)(g) of this section shall relate back and take effect on the date of the recommendation.

(f) All requests for a hearing pursuant to this section shall be made in writing.

(4) The board may establish an appeals committee whose members shall be appointed by the chairman and who shall have the authority to act upon the recommendations and reports of the hearing officer pursuant to this section on behalf of the board.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the board may seek judicial review after all administrative appeals have been exhausted by filing a petition for judicial review in the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(6) The system, pursuant to regulations, may refer an employee determined by it to be disabled to the Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation for evaluation and, if appropriate, retraining.

(a) The cost of the evaluation and retraining shall be paid by the system in accordance with the regulations established by the board.

(b) The member shall perform all acts that are necessary to enroll in and satisfy the requirements of Vocational Rehabilitation as prescribed by the board. This shall include the exchange of confidential information between Kentucky Retirement Systems and the Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation as necessary to conduct the rehabilitation process. Failure of the member to cooperate with the system or Vocational Rehabilitation may result in his disability allowance being discontinued, reduced, or denied until the member complies with the agency requests. If the refusal continues for one (1) year, all his rights to any further disability allowance shall cease.

Section 18. KRS 61.675 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The employer shall prepare the records and, from time to time, shall furnish the information the system may require in the discharge of its duties. Upon employment of an employee, the employer shall inform him of his duties and obligations in connection with the system as a condition of employment.

(2) The system may at any time conduct an audit of the employer in order to determine if the employer is complying with the provisions of KRS 16.505 to 16.652, 61.610 to 61.705, or 78.510 to 78.852. The system shall have access to and may examine all books, accounts, reports, correspondence files, and records of any employer. Every employer, employee, or agency reporting official of a department or county, as defined in KRS 78.510(3), having records in his possession or under his control, shall permit access to and examination of the records upon the request of the system.

(3) Any agency participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System which is not an integral part of the executive branch of state government shall forward the employer and employee contributions required under KRS 61.560 and 61.565 to the retirement office within twenty (20) days of the tenth day of the month following the period being reported. If the agency fails to forward all contributions within the twenty (20) days, interest at the actuarial rate adopted by the board compounded annually on the delinquent contributions, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100), shall be added to the amount due the system.

Section 19. KRS 61.680 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Prior to August 1, 1982, every employee shall be deemed to consent and agree to any deduction from his compensation required by KRS 6.500 to 6.535, 16.510 to 16.652, 61.510 to 61.692, 78.510 to 78.852, and to all other provisions thereof. Thereafter, employee contributions shall be picked up by the employer pursuant to KRS 61.560(4).

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS 6.500 to 6.535, 16.510 to 16.652, 61.510 to 61.692, 78.510 to 78.852 and 161.220 to 161.714, upon death, disability, or service retirement, a member's accounts under the Legislators' Retirement Plan, State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System and Teachers' Retirement System shall be consolidated for the purpose of determining eligibility and amount of benefits. Vested service credit in a retirement system, other than the Teachers' Retirement System, sponsored by a Kentucky institution of higher education and accepted by the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System, may be used to determine eligibility for thirty (30) year retirement but not the amount of benefits. The computation of benefits shall be based on the applicable formula in each system and service credit in each system, but the final compensation shall be determined as if all service were in one (1) system. If the member has prior service in more than one (1) system, he shall obtain at least twelve (12) months' current service in each system in which he has prior service in order to validate the prior service in each system for purposes of determining consolidated benefits under this section. Upon the determination of benefits, each system shall pay the applicable percentage of total benefits.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be waived if the member notifies the system of his desire to maintain separate retirement accounts in the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System, or if he is a member of the State Police Retirement System or is working in a hazardous position under the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System and as a result of an act in line of duty, becomes disabled or deceased.

(c) If the member has not contributed at least one (1) year in a system in which he has prior service, his current service in the system shall be valid for purposes of determining eligibility and in computation of benefits on a consolidated basis.

(3) A member with service credit in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System who becomes the holder of an office entitling him to membership in the Judicial Retirement Plan or the Legislators' Retirement Plan, but who does not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office in such service to participate in the plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505 or 21.360, shall be deemed to have elected to retain membership in the system in which he is a member, either the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System. In that event, the agency employing the member shall withhold employee contributions, or picked-up employee contributions after August 2, 1982, make employer contributions and remit these contributions to the system in which the member retained his membership. Any person entitled to membership in the Judicial Retirement Plan or the Legislators' Retirement Plan, who does not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office to participate in the plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505 or 21.360, and who at the time of taking office is not a contributing member of, or does not have service credit in, any of the retirement systems mentioned in this section, or the Teachers' Retirement System, shall participate in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System.

(4) (a) Prior to July 1, 1976, a person entering the service of an employer participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System with service credit in the Teachers' Retirement System and who desires to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System, and who is permitted by that system to continue, shall be exempt from participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or the County Employees Retirement System.

(b) Any person who has elected to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection may cancel his election and participate in the system under which his position would normally participate, if he elects to cancel his option prior to January 1, 1977.

(c) Any member of the General Assembly who upon election is a contributing member of the Teachers' Retirement System and who does not elect within thirty (30) days after taking office to participate in the Legislators' Retirement Plan, in accordance with KRS 6.505, shall during his term of office participate in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System unless an election to retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System is filed in writing within ninety (90) days after his term of office begins. No contributions may be made to the Teachers' Retirement System for the same period of service under the Legislators' Retirement Plan or the Kentucky Employees Retirement System as a member of the General Assembly, but contributions made to the Teachers' Retirement System while a member of the General Assembly shall be transferred to the Legislators' Retirement Plan, as provided for in KRS 6.535, when the member elects to join the Legislators' Retirement Plan, and service credit in the Legislators' Retirement Plan shall be granted as provided for in KRS 6.505(3).

(5) Effective July 1, 1974, any member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System who is working in a position covered by one (1) of these retirement systems and his employee contributions, service credit and employer contributions made on his behalf are being transferred to the other retirement system shall contribute to the system in which his employer participates, or after August 1, 1982, the employer shall pick up the employee contributions, and no further contributions or service credit shall be transferred to the system in which he elected to retain membership, as subsection (2) of this section eliminates the necessity of the transfers.

(6) Any member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System or County Employees Retirement System who is working in more than one (1) position covered by the same retirement system, shall have his wages and contributions consolidated and his retirement account administered as a single account. If part-time positions are involved, an accumulation of all hours worked within the same retirement system shall be used to determine eligibility under KRS 61.510(21).

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a person who does not have the amount of service required for service retirement in the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, Legislators' Retirement Plan, or Teachers' Retirement System, but who is a member of one (1) of the systems or is a former member of one (1) or more of the systems with valid service credit therein, shall become eligible for service retirement benefits attributable to the amount of his actual service credit in each system in which he has service credit when his combined service credit in all the systems, plus any service credit he has in the Judicial Retirement Plan[~~ or Legislators' Retirement Plan~~], is equal to that required for service retirement in each respective system. The computation of benefits shall be based on the applicable formula in each system and service credit in each system.[~~, but~~] The final compensation shall be determined by using the creditable compensation reported to the State Police Retirement System, Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, Legislators' Retirement Plan, or Teachers' Retirement System and only as much of the compensation earned in the Judicial Retirement Plan as is needed to satisfy the final compensation requirement applicable in the respective retirement systems[~~as if all service were in one (1) system~~].

Section 20. KRS 61.702 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of trustees of Kentucky Retirement Systems shall arrange by appropriate contract or on a self-insured basis to provide a group hospital and medical insurance plan for present and future recipients of a retirement allowance from the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, and State Police Retirement System. The board shall also arrange to provide health care coverage by health maintenance organizations, as defined in KRS 18A.225, as an alternative to group hospital and medical insurance for any person eligible for hospital and medical benefits under this section. Any person who chooses coverage by a health maintenance organization shall pay, by payroll deduction from the retirement allowance or by another method, the difference in premium between the cost of health maintenance organization coverage and the benefits to which he would be entitled under this section. The board may authorize present and future recipients of a retirement allowance from any of the three (3) retirement systems, who are under age sixty-five (65), to be included in the state employees' group for hospital and medical insurance and shall provide benefits for recipients equal to those provided to state employees having the same Medicare hospital and medical insurance eligibility status.

(2) Each employer participating in the State Police Retirement System as provided for in KRS 16.510 to 16.652, each employer participating in the County Employees Retirement System as provided in KRS 78.510 to 78.852, and each employer participating in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided for in KRS 61.510 to 61.705 shall contribute to the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund the amount necessary to provide hospital and medical insurance as provided for under this section. Such employer contribution rate shall be developed by appropriate actuarial method as a part of the determination of each respective employer contribution rate to each respective retirement system determined under KRS 61.565.

(3) (a) The premium required to provide hospital and medical benefits under this section shall be paid:

1. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by the recipient of a retirement allowance, by payroll deduction, or otherwise;

2. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund;

3. Wholly or partly from funds contributed by another state-administered retirement system under a reciprocal arrangement, except that any portion of the premium paid from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund under a reciprocal agreement shall not exceed the amount that would be payable under this section if all the member's service were in one (1) of the systems administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems; or

4. Partly from subparagraphs 1., 2., or 3., except that any premium for hospital and medical insurance over the amount contributed by the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund or another state-administered retirement system under a reciprocal agreement shall be paid by the recipient.

(b) The board shall determine the amount of the monthly contribution from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund for a recipient to provide benefits equal to those provided to state employees, which may include cross-referencing with employed members or spouses participating in the same group insurance plan. If the board provides for cross-referencing of insurance premiums, the employer's contribution for the working member or spouse shall be applied toward the premium, and the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund shall pay the balance, not to exceed the monthly contribution. Where the recipient is retired from the State Police Retirement System or retired from a hazardous position as defined in KRS 61.592, the board shall determine the monthly contributions to be paid for a recipient with one (1) or more dependents.

(c) 1. The monthly contribution from the Kentucky Retirement Systems insurance fund as determined by the board shall be paid in full from the insurance fund for all recipients of a retirement allowance from any of the three (3) retirement systems where such recipient is a retired former member of one (1) or more of the three (3) retirement systems (not a beneficiary or dependent child receiving benefits) and had two hundred and forty (240) months or more of service upon retirement.

2. The number of sick-leave days for which the employee is compensated shall be divided by the average number of working days per month in county service and rounded to the nearest number of whole months. This number of months shall be added to the employee's total service credit and to the number of months used to determine creditable compensation, pursuant to KRS 78.510, but no more than sixty (60) months shall be used to determine final compensation.

(4) If an agency is delinquent in the payment of contributions due in accordance with any of the provisions of KRS 78.510 to 78.852, refunds and retirement allowance payments to members of this agency may be suspended until the delinquent contributions have been made.

Section 2. Whereas using the proceeds from the issuance of private activity bonds is the primary and most effective method of financing low-interest rate mortgages for first-time, low-income homebuyers and of providing student loans for those persons seeking postsecondary educational opportunities; and whereas, the demand for low-interest rate mortgages and postsecondary educational loans will result in the depletion of the available funds before a new allocation period for private activity bonds begins, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming law.

He spent the next twenty years bravely facing the challenges that life had dealt him.
